JEREMY SHULMAN

HEAD MEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

Jeremy Shulman enters his third season as head coach of the University of Tennessee at Martin men's basketball program in 2026-27. Named the 13th head coach in program history on March 27, 2024, the Nashville, Tenn., native has established a reputation for building championship programs, developing student-athletes and achieving success at every level of his coaching career.

Shulman's second season at UT Martin was among the most successful in school history. The Skyhawks recorded 22 victories in 2025-26, tying the program's single-season wins record, while reaching 20 wins faster than any team in UT Martin's NCAA Division I history. The Skyhawks advanced to the Ohio Valley Conference Championship semifinals after collecting 13 league victories.

Defensively, UT Martin ranked among the nation's best, finishing third nationally in scoring defense (63.2 points per game), fourth in three-point percentage defense and sixth in field goal percentage defense. The Skyhawks also ranked eighth nationally in offensive rebounds per game and established a school record with 143 blocked shots.

Shulman's 2025-26 squad featured All-OVC performers Andrija Bukumirovic and Matas Deniusas, with Deniusas earning OVC Freshman of the Year honors. The Skyhawks also received the OVC Team Sportsmanship Award and Team Academic Achievement Award.

During his inaugural 2024-25 campaign, Shulman guided a completely rebuilt roster featuring 16 newcomers to 14 victories and an OVC Championship tournament win. UT Martin ranked among the national leaders in rebounding, bench scoring and three-point shooting while establishing several program records.

Before arriving at UT Martin, Shulman spent 14 seasons as head coach at Eastern Florida State College, transforming the Titans into a national junior college powerhouse. He compiled a 346-107 record, becoming the winningest coach in program history while capturing 11 conference championships over his final 12 seasons.

Under Shulman's leadership, Eastern Florida State made three NJCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearances, including two Final Four berths. The Titans finished as national runner-up in 2016-17 and placed third nationally in 2017-18. A nine-time conference Coach of the Year, Shulman produced 12 seasons with at least 20 victories and coached 78 all-conference selections. His accomplishments earned him induction into the Florida College System Activities Association Hall of Fame in 2023.

Shulman previously served three seasons as an assistant coach at East Mississippi Community College, helping the Lions reach their first NJCAA Tournament in program history in 2010.

His coaching career began at age 16, when he became Tennessee AAU's youngest coach. He founded the Midstate Ballerz Elite program in 1998, winning 415 games and helping 126 players earn collegiate scholarships.

A 2003 Middle Tennessee State University graduate, Shulman earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice with minors in athletic coaching and psychology. He and his wife, Evi, have three children: Jordan, Mila and Giannis.

KEVIN McMILLAN

HEAD WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

Kevin McMillan enters his 18th season as head coach of the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball program in 2026-27, having established himself as one of the most successful coaches in Ohio Valley Conference history. Since taking over the Skyhawks in 2009, McMillan has transformed UT Martin into a perennial conference contender while becoming the winningest basketball coach in university history.

Through 17 seasons, McMillan has compiled a 307-230 overall record, including a remarkable 207-91 mark in OVC play. His 307 victories rank fifth in OVC history among men's and women's basketball coaches and third among women's basketball coaches. His accomplishments earned him induction into the Basketball Coaches Association of Tennessee Hall of Fame in 2026.

Under McMillan's leadership, UT Martin has captured 10 OVC championships, including six regular season titles and four tournament crowns. The Skyhawks have made five NCAA Tournament appearances, earned five Women's National Invitation Tournament berths, including the canceled 2020 event, and recorded eight 20-win seasons. McMillan is also a four-time OVC Coach of the Year, receiving the honor in 2010, 2015, 2016 and 2021.

One of McMillan's most impressive accomplishments came during the 2010-14 seasons, when the Skyhawks won four consecutive OVC Tournament championships and advanced to four straight NCAA Tournaments. His 2013-14 squad established a program record with 24 victories, while the 2014-15 team completed a perfect 16-0 conference season.

McMillan guided UT Martin to consecutive regular season championships in 2020 and 2021, highlighted by a 22-6 record and 17-2 league mark during the 2020-21 campaign. That season, the Skyhawks became the first OVC program to record multiple victories in the same Women's NIT.

The Skyhawks returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2024, marking their fifth appearance in program history and first since 2014. Most recently, UT Martin qualified for its 17th consecutive OVC Basketball Championship in 2025-26.

McMillan's commitment to player development has produced 45 All-OVC selections, six OVC Player of the Year awards and four OVC Defensive Player of the Year honors. Among his standout players are Jasmine Newsome, Heather Butler, Ashia Jones and Chelsey Perry, who became the highest WNBA Draft selection in OVC history in 2021.

Academic excellence has remained a cornerstone of McMillan's program, with his teams consistently exceeding NCAA Academic Progress Rate averages. Every student-athlete who has completed their eligibility under his leadership has graduated.

Before UT Martin, McMillan enjoyed a successful 17-year high school coaching career, compiling a 435-126 record with a state championship and six state tournament appearances. He also served two seasons as an assistant at Middle Tennessee.

A former standout at Rhodes College, McMillan earned conference Player of the Year honors in 1988. He holds degrees from Rhodes and Middle Tennessee and has three children: Matt, Ben and Alli.
