The longest tenured head football coach in the Ohio Valley Conference is Jason Simpson, who has transformed the University of Tennessee at Martin program into one of the winningest teams in the OVC since his first season in 2006.

In 16 years, Simpson has led UT Martin to an 100-80 record (.556 winning percentage) and a 77-47 mark against OVC opponents (.621 winning percentage). That comes after the program had won 20 OVC games in its first 14 seasons in the league. He also has presided over 120 All-OVC players after the program tallied 33 such players in its first 15 seasons in the OVC.

Simpson's 100 career victories rank fourth in OVC history while his 77 conference wins sits in third place.

Four of the program's eight 8-win seasons have come under Simpson, including all four at the Football Championship Subdivision level. He is responsible for the program's only OVC championship teams in 2006 and 2021. The 2006 team ended the season ranked No. 13 nationally with a 9-3 record while the 2021 team won the playoff game in the Division I Era while finishing the campaign ranked No. 12 nationally with a 10-3 overall mark.

Simpson is a four-time finalist for the Eddie Robinson FCS Coach of the Year Award in 2006, 2012, 2016 and 2021 while finishing fourth overall in 2006. He is also a two-time recipient of the OVC's Roy Kidd Coach of the Year award in 2006 and 2021 while being named the American Football Coaches Association Region 3 Coach of the Year in 2006, his debut season at UT Martin.

A total of 28 Skyhawks have been named an All-American under Simpson. A collection of those players include Alex Atkins (2006), Tony Bell (2013, 2014), Josh Bey (2009), Jessie Burton (2006), Jeremy Butler (2013), Don Chapman (2006), CJ Estelle (2011), Joe Gibbs (2009), Matthan Hatchie (2021), Montori Hughes (2012), Ben Johnson (2013), Dontrell Miller (2008), Quentin Sims (2012), Ray Williams (2008), Rodney Williams II (2020), Terry Williams (2019) and Josh Yarbrough (2007).

In April 2012, Hughes became the 12th UT Martin player and first since 1996 to be selected in the NFL Draft. Hughes was picked by the Indianapolis Colts in the fifth round (139th overall). Since 2011, Gibbs (St. Louis Rams, Green Bay Packers), Sims (Atlanta Falcons, New England Patriots), Derek Carr (New York Giants), Johnson (Kansas City Chiefs), Butler (Baltimore Ravens), DJ Roberts (Baltimore Ravens), Abou Toure (Indianapolis Colts), Charles Sweeton (Kansas City Chiefs), Bell (Tennessee Titans), Corey Jordan (Jacksonville Jaguars), Caylon Weathers (Chicago Bears), Brett Thompson (Pittsburgh Steelers), Joe Este (Tennessee Titans), Jaylon Moore (Baltimore Ravens), Donnell Williams (Tennessee Titans and Washington Commanders) and Rodney Williams II (Denver Broncos) have all received opportunities with NFL teams.

Simpson also coached Chapman for two seasons, who became just the 14th Division-I player to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons. He was named the program's first-ever OVC Offensive Player of the Year in 2006.

The Skyhawks have won or shared the Sgt. Alvin C. York Trophy - which was established in 2007 and is given annually to the best of the four OVC teams located in Tennessee - nine times. The Skyhawks won the trophy in 2010 and shared it in 2012, 2018, 2019 and 2020 while claiming the trophy outright in 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2021. UT Martin owns a 32-13 all-time record in the Sgt. York Trophy series, which is the best mark out of the four OVC schools.

Prior to accepting his first head coaching job at UT Martin, Simpson was the offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. He was instrumental in the resurgence of the UTC football program. In 2005, Chattanooga posted a 6-5 campaign, the school's first winning season since 1997.

Before Chattanooga, Simpson coached at Texas State University, a member of the Southland Football League. He coached quarterbacks, receivers and served as the team's recruiting coordinator. In 2000, Texas State posted a 7-4 record, the school's first winning season in 10 years.

Simpson served as an assistant coach from 1997-1999 at Jacksonville State University. He coached quarterbacks and was the team's passing game coordinator. He also coached receivers and served as an assistant special teams coordinator. He was a member of the Jacksonville State staff responsible for the third best turnaround in Division I football for the 1997 and 1998 seasons.

An Ellisville, Miss. native, Simpson signed as a quarterback with Mississippi State and played for two seasons for the Bulldogs. He also played baseball for Ron Polk at Mississippi State before transferring to Southern Miss in 1992. At Southern Miss, Simpson was a two-time all-conference selection in baseball and was team captain his senior season.

After earning a bachelor's degree in 1994 from Southern Miss, he spent the next year as a graduate assistant football coach at Delta State, where he coached defensive backs. In the spring of 1995, Simpson served as an assistant football and head baseball coach at Collins High School in Mississippi.

Simpson and his wife, the former Julie Wilkerson, have two sons and a daughter: Ty, Emma and Graham. The family lives in Martin and attends First Baptist Church.

#21 UT MARTIN

1ST	2ND	3RD	4TH	FINAL

Oct. 9, 2021 | Graham Stadium | Martin, Tenn. | 2 pm | Att: 7,111

MARTIN, Tenn. – An eventful week filled with Homecoming activities on the University of Tennessee at Martin campus was capped off by an explosive showing on the gridiron as the No. 21 ranked football team surged pasted Ohio Valley Conference rival Murray State in the league opener with a 48-24 triumph at Hardy M. Graham Stadium.

The Skyhawks [4-1, 1-0 OVC] pushed their winning streak to four games with a statement victory over their regional rival. After playing the last two games on the road prior to the team's bye week, UT Martin responded well to its first home contest in 28 days by scoring on its opening drive and never looking back before eventually scoring 35 unanswered points against the OVC's top-ranked defense.

By the time the dust settled on Homecoming and the sun began to set on the horizon, the Skyhawks sang the UT Martin fight song with a tone of jubilation which is only replicated following a big win.

UT Martin played at or above its season averages in several categories while setting season-highs in total points (48), rushing yards (266), rushing touchdowns (five), tackles (79), quarterback hurries (five) and interceptions (two). Meanwhile, the Skyhawks limited the Racers to just 325 yards of total offense while forcing two turnover on downs and a pair of interceptions.

One of the top contributors for the Skyhawks came on the shoulders of power running back Zak Wallace. The freshman from Benton, Ark. made the most of his 14 carries by eating up 67 yards and scoring a career-high three rushing touchdowns. His afternoon marked the first three-touchdown rushing performance by a Skyhawk since Abou Toure accomplished the feat back in 2014 against Murray State.

Wallace was not the only player to post a big day as UT Martin scored a total of seven touchdowns – including five on the ground. Graduate quarterback Keon Howard led a high-powered offense by completing 67 percent of his pass attempts (12-of-18) while throwing for 171 yards and one touchdown. The dual-threat quarterback also notched nine carries for 98 yards while scoring his sixth rushing touchdown of the season on a 10-yard scamper.

The day will also serve as a lifelong memory for freshman transfer Jordan Castleberry who punched in his first career touchdown on a six-yard carry in the first quarter.

In the receiving game, junior Colton Dowell hauled in three catches for 86 yards – including a 49-yard reception. With his strong day, Dowell brings his career receiving yards total to 1,731 yards which elevates him to ninth place on the program's all-time leaderboard by surpassing Deumaine Reeder (1,673 yards). Freshman Zoe Roberts also tallied three receptions – including a two-yard touchdown reception which marked his third in the last two games.

Along with the team's success on the offensive side, UT Martin had several impressive contributions on the defensive end. Most notably came in the second quarter when freshman Tevin Shipp tallied his first career interception and returned it 47 yards down the right sideline for a touchdown – the team's first defensive touchdown of the season. The Skyhawks would later tally another interception as graduate John Ford snatched his second interception of the season on the first play of the second half and returned it 17 yards to set up yet another scoring drive.

The safety duo of Takeem Young and Deven Sims led the game with 10 tackles and one pass breakup each. Hard-hitting rover JaQuez Akins and Ford weren't too far behind with seven tackles each while David DuBose finished with five stops on the afternoon. As a team, the Skyhawks combined for 5.0 tackles for loss split between nine players while Shawn Shamburger paced the squad with two pass breakups.

In July 2007, the Nashville Sports Council and the Ohio Valley Conference announced the creation of the Sergeant York Trophy which goes to the winner of the quadrangular season football series between the four Ohio Valley Conference schools located in the state of Tennessee – which now includes the University of Tennessee at Martin, Tennessee State University and Tennessee Technological University.

The award is the only traveling trophy that involves four teams in college sports; there are three others that involve three teams, including the Commander in Chief's Trophy which has been contested between Air Force, Army and Navy annually since 1972.

The award is presented by Delta Dental of Tennessee.

In a close race, Tennessee State and Austin Peay shared the inaugural award, finishing with identical 2-1 records in 2007. Tennessee State took the trophy home with it thanks to a one-point victory in overtime over the Governors; that game was decided by a blocked extra point by NFL First Round Draft Pick Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie.

The award is named in honor of Alvin C. York, the most noted Soldier of World War I. As a corporal in the 2nd battalion, 328th Infantry, in the Battle of the Meuse River-Argonne (Oct. 8, 1918), York and seven other soldiers captured 132 prisoners, was promoted to sergeant and received the Distinguished Service Cross, the French Croix de Guerre, the French Legion of Honor, the Croce di Guerra of Italy and the War Medal of Montenegro. Upon his return to the United States in 1919, he was bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Following the war York returned his home in Pall Mall, Tenn. (located in north central Tennessee, 55 miles northeast of Cookeville) where he dedicated his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee. In 1927 he established the Alvin C. York Institute after spending several years raising money for the school which opened as a private institution. That school was established, in part, to provide educational opportunities denied to the boys and girls of Fentress County. In 1937, the Institute became a state special school after an appeal to the Tennessee State Legislature. The school, located in Jamestown, Tennessee, is still in operation today.

York died on Sept. 2, 1964 and the foundation which he helped establish in 1920 – The Sergeant York Patriotic Foundation – was dormant for many years. The Foundation was re-established by Lipscomb Davis, Jr. in 1992 and is currently run by Sgt. York's grandson Gerald (U.S. Army Colonel, Retired). York's papers are archived by Michael E. Birdwell, Ph.D., who is an associate professor of history at Tennessee Technological University, one of the four institutions that will compete for the yearly honor.

After the completion of the football season, the Sergeant York Trophy is awarded to the institution with the best head-to-head record in the match-ups with their fellow Tennessee schools. In the event of a tie, the award is shared; however, the previous winner will retain the trophy if they are part of the tie. If the tie is between two other institutions, the trophy will go to the institution that has gone the most seasons without winning the trophy.

NO. 15 SKYHAWKS SHOW OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER IN 42-25 SEASON OPENING WIN OVER WESTERN ILLINOIS

The No. 15 ranked University of Tennessee at Martin football team opened the season with an impressive offensive showing, tallying 577 yards of total offense on the way to a commanding 42-25 home victory over Western Illinois on Thursday evening.

The Skyhawks (1-0) scored on their opening offensive drive and never looked back in their 2022 season debut in front of a large crowd eclipsing 5,000 fans at Hardy M. Graham Stadium. UT Martin presented a balanced offensive attack which featured 317 yards through the air and 260 yards on the ground while its defense forced two turnovers and blocked two kicks on special teams.

UT Martin boasted several impressive individual performances led by running back Zak Wallace who tallied 20 carries for 139 yards and three touchdowns. The contest marked the second time in his career that he recorded three touchdowns in a single game, matching his feat against Murray State last season, posting just the 14th such performance in school history. Along with his three touchdowns, he jumped up the career rushing touchdown leaderboard into seventh place with 21.

Quarterback Dresser Winn also commanded the offense with an efficient night, completing 22-of-37 passes for 317 yards and three touchdowns. The contest marked the third 300-yard passing performance of his career. Meanwhile his top receiving target Colton Dowell hauled in seven catches for 100 yards and a touchdown. Dowell notched his seventh 100-yard receiving contest of his career while moving into sixth place on the program's all-time receiving yards list with 1,860 yards and jumping into 10th on the all-time receiving touchdowns leaderboard with his 14th score.

Other top performances included redshirt-freshman Sam Franklin nearly reaching the century mark on the ground with 89 rushing yards – averaging 8.9 yards per carry – while DeVonte Tanksley and EJ Smoot excelled in the passing game. Tanksley – who missed most of last season with an injury – tallied five receptions for 98 yards while Smoot recorded three catches for 63 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively, it was Preseason OVC Defensive Player of the Year John H. Ford II who paced the team with 13 tackles – including six solo stops – while fellow graduate linebacker Rob Hicks also eclipsed double figures with 10 total tackles. Cornerback Shaun Lewis had a big debut for the Skyhawks as he recorded a pair of interceptions while also tallying three tackles and an additional pass breakup. Then on special teams, Oshae Baker and Ty Woods each blocked kicks to keep points off the board for the Leathernecks.

Western Illinois (0-1) tallied 405 yards of total offense as the quarterback tandem of Henry Ogala and Nick Davenport combined to throw for 285 yards and four touchdowns. Davenport did most of the damage by going 9-for-19 with 180 yards and three touchdown strikes while Naseim Brantley hauled in six receptions for 171 yards and three touchdowns. Meanwhile on defense, Anthony Quinney tallied a game-high 15 tackles in the loss.

NO. 15 SKYHAWKS SHOW OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER IN 42-25 SEASON OPENING WIN OVER WESTERN ILLINOIS

In the week's lone matchup between nationally ranked opponents and a rematch of last season's NCAA Division I Championship first round contest, the No. 14 University of Tennessee at Martin football team went toe-to-toe with No. 5 ranked Missouri State on Thursday evening before ultimately falling just short by a final score of 35-30 at Plaster Stadium.

The Skyhawks (1-1) battled from their first offensive drive of the game until their last, bookending both drives with touchdowns passes to challenge their nationally ranked foe on the road. With last season's contest being decided by just one point, tonight's contest looked to have a similar theme and stuck to its script until the Bears escaped with a five-point victory.

UT Martin tallied 429 yards of total offense on the night while challenging Missouri State through the air with 344 passing yards. Quarterback Dresser Winn led the Skyhawk offense by completing 29-of-41 pass attempts for 344 yards and three touchdowns in his second career start against the Bears. With the strong performance, Winn moved into ninth in program history in both career passing yards (3,533) and passing touchdowns (25).

A big recipient of Winn's completions was Colton Dowell who hauled in 10 receptions for a career-high 159 yards and one touchdown. Dowell got the Skyhawks on the board on their first drive courtesy of a 24-yard touchdown reception while tallying seven catches of 10 yards or more. His evening moved him into select company by becoming just the fourth player in program history to eclipse 2,000 career receiving yards (2,019) while also moving into a tie for ninth on the school's career touchdown leaderboard with his 15th snag.

Running back Zak Wallace also had a nice evening with 17 carries for 76 yards and one touchdown. He ripped a game-long 36-yard carry late in the fourth quarter to set up the Skyhawks final touchdown drive while also scoring on a 15-yard carry of his own. The touchdown scamper marked the 20th of his career – moving him into a tie for sixth place in program history.

UT Martin's defense posted some bright moments in the high scoring affair – including a key goal line stand in the third quarter to stuff the run at the one-yard line. The squad also tallied five sacks – totaling 30 yards.

The linebacker core of Rob Hicks and John H. Ford II led the team for the second straight outing in the tackle department. Hicks tallied a game-high 13 tackles in the contest while Ford notched 12 stops – including 2.0 tackles for loss. The Skyhawks also found sacks from Tyler Gore, Daylan Dotson, Chris Hunter, TJ Neal and Hicks while Kenyonte Davis forced a fumble.

Missouri State (2-0) remained unbeaten behind the playmaking ability of its star quarterback Jason Shelley who completed 19-of-24 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. Shelley found his receiver Tyrone Scott for three touchdowns while Jacardia Wright and Celdon Manning also recorded touchdown receptions. Wright also excelled in the rushing attack with 23 carries for 120 yards.

DEFENSE PERFORMS WELL BUT FCS NO. 16 SKYHAWK FOOTBALL FALLS 30-7 AT BOISE STATE

The University of Tennessee at Martin football squad gave a valiant effort against Mountain West Conference preseason favorite Boise State today but the host Broncos claimed a 30-7 win in front of 36,396 fans at Albertsons Stadium.

Facing their first of two Football Bowl Subdivision opponents in 2022, the Skyhawks (1-2) were tied after one quarter of play and were within striking distance in the fourth quarter. That was thanks in large part to a swarming UT Martin defense that slowed only 76 total yards on 36 plays in the second half. Overall, the Skyhawks only conceded 327 total yards of offense and had nine tackles for loss with three sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Rob Hicks made plays all over the field for UT Martin as the linebacker from Miami, Fla. collected a game-high 11 tackles for his third double-digit tackle outing of the season while recovering a fumble. Daylan Dotson posted a pair of sacks and a forced fumble while John H. Ford II racked up seven tackles and a sack. TJ Neal (1.5 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one quarterback hurry) was also a defensive presence while Deven Sims (eight tackles) and Oshae Baker (seven tackles) also stood out for the Skyhawks.

At quarterback, Dresser Winn went 13-for-23 for 104 yards and a touchdown. Cornelious Brown IV also saw playing time in the fourth quarter, completing a pair of passes for 22 yards. Colton Dowell was one of six UT Martin players to catch a pass as he dialed up game-highs in receptions (five) and receiving yards (53) to go along with a touchdown. Devonte Tanksley had four receptions while Zak Wallace was responsible for 12 of the Skyhawks' 20 carries out of the backfield.

On special teams, Tyler Larco boomed nine punts for a 44.4 yard average, including a long of 57 yards.

Boise State (2-1) was led by 226 all-purpose yards and a pair of touchdowns out of George Holani. The junior running back tallied 110 rushing yards on 24 carries, 47 receiving yards on four catches and 69 yards from five punt returns. Hank Bachmeier completed 18 of his 25 pass attempts for 204 yards and two touchdowns while Tyreque Jones (team-high four tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss) paced the defensive unit for the Broncos, whose .820 winning percentage since 2000 trails only Ohio State for the best mark in the FBS ranks.

After UT Martin was forced to punt on the opening possession of the game, Boise State pieced together a seven-play, 80-yard drive to get on the scoreboard. Bachmeier hit Stefan Cobbs for a four-yard touchdown pass to make the score 7-0 with 9:41 to go in the first quarter.

The Skyhawk defense forced a turnover on the first play of the Broncos' next drive. Bachmeier was flushed out of the pocket and on a scrambling attempt, Neal forced a fumble while Hicks emerged from the scrum with the ball to give UT Martin the ball on the Boise State 35-yard line.

The Skyhawks took advantage of prime field position as Winn found Dowell in stride down the left sideline for a 37-yard score on 4th-and-12. Larco split the uprights to even the score at 7-all at the 4:25 mark of the opening quarter - marking the team's lone points of the game.

UT Martin set a new program record with its eighth consecutive home victory

The Skyhawks eclipsed 500 yards of total offense for the third time this season

Sam Franklin became the eighth player in program history to rush for three touchdowns

NO. 18 UT MARTIN FOOTBALL RUSHES PAST LINDENWOOD IN OVC OPENER

The No. 18 ranked UT Martin football team opened its quest for back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference championships on Saturday night with a commanding home victory over new league foe Lindenwood by a final score of 56-26 at Hardy Graham Stadium.

The Skyhawks (2-2, 1-0 OVC) opened conference play in impressive fashion on Saturday evening by tallying 541 yards of total offense while averaging 9.8 yards per play in just 55 offensive snaps. The ground attack was especially fruitful as the home squad racked up 343 rushing yards – the team's highest rushing output since the 2015 season against Eastern Kentucky – while tallying five rushing touchdowns.

With a healthy offensive line back in action for the first full game this season, the running back duo of Zak Wallace and Sam Franklin flourished. Wallace made the most of his 11 carries by tallying 204 rushing yards – including a UT Martin record-breaking 97-yard rushing touchdown in the third quarter for his second of the game which also marked the longest rush in the FCS this season. With his big day, Wallace added two touchdowns to his career tally, moving him into a tie for third place on the program's career touchdown leaderboard with Jaimiee Bowe (2015-19) at 22. Also enjoying a breakout performance was Franklin who tallied six carries for 56 yards and three touchdowns – the first of his career. Franklin now joins Wallace as just the eighth player in program history to tally three rushing touchdowns in a single contest.

The ground attack wasn't the only bright spot for the Skyhawk offense as quarterback Dresser Winn was efficient in the pocket by completing 19-of-26 pass attempts for 198 yards and two touchdowns. Winn also rose on program's career touchdown leaderboard with his two touchdown throws, taking sole possession of ninth place with 28. The quarterback found DeVonte Tanksley for a game-high eight catches along with 57 yards – including a 25-yard touchdown connection on the opening drive of the game. Colton Dowell tallied 59 yards through the air while DJ Nelson recorded the Skyhawks final touchdown reception with a seven-yard catch in the fourth quarter.

UT Martin added to its scoring output with the team's first defensive touchdown of the season as linebacker Rob Hicks tipped a pass on the squad's opening possession on defense which safety Oshae Baker returned 41 yards for a touchdown. The Skyhawks forced another turnover in the third quarter as Tyler Gore stripped the Lions and Carson Evans jumped on the loose ball to set up another scoring drive.

The team flushed the Lindenwood pocket throughout the game while tallying four sacks and 7.0 tackles for loss in the contest. Sophomore Christian Dowell led the team in tackles in his first career start at nose tackle, tallying a game-high eight stops. Trailing close behind was safety Deven Sims who registered seven tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss while Baker and Evans notched six tackles each.

Lindenwood (2-1, 0-1 OVC) suffered its first loss of the season in their OVC debut despite tallying 429 yards of total offense. Quarterback Cade Brister was versatile by escaping pressure and making plays down field while completing 25-of-42 pass attempts for 306 yards and a touchdown. Wide receiver Payton Rose was Brister's primary target with seven catches for 156 yards.
