SETTING THE SCENE

PLAYER TO WATCH

Sophomore running back Chris Franklin recorded his third multi-touchdown rushing performance of the season with a pair of touchdown runs against Eastern Illinois last week.

Franklin has found the endzone four games this season, while rushing for two touchdowns against Chicago State, Tennessee State and Eastern Illinois.

Franklin is currently tied for first among OVC running backs with seven rushing touchdowns on the season.

›› The University of Tennessee at Martin football team will look to return to the win column this weekend when the Skyhawks travel to the Palmetto State for an Ohio Valley Conference matchup against Charleston Southern on Saturday, Nov. 7. Kickoff from Buccaneer Field in Charleston, S.C., is scheduled for 1 p.m. CT.

›› The matchup features a pair of teams looking to gain momentum down the stretch of the regular season as UT Martin (3-6, 2-2 OVC) squares off against Charleston Southern (4-5, 1-3 OVC). With three games remaining on the schedule, the Skyhawks will look to strengthen their position in the conference standings while attempting to remain unbeaten in the all-time series against the Buccaneers.

›› UT Martin enters the contest looking to bounce back from consecutive setbacks against Western Illinois and Eastern Illinois. The Skyhawks most recently suffered a 45-16 defeat to Eastern Illinois during Homecoming at Hardy M. Graham Stadium, despite finding success on the ground with 236 rushing yards and a pair of touchdowns.

›› Junior running back Chris Franklin provided the offensive highlights against the Panthers, scoring both UT Martin touchdowns while rushing for 67 yards on 11 carries. Freshman Jaydon Peete also turned in a strong performance, leading the team with 99 rushing yards on 11 attempts, including a 50-yard burst. The Skyhawks finished with 341 yards of total offense but struggled to contain an Eastern Illinois attack that accumulated 552 yards.

›› Under the direction of 21st-year head coach Jason Simpson, UT Martin will look to rediscover the form that helped the Skyhawks compete for four consecutive conference championships from 2021-2024. With the team's next OVC win, Simpson will move into a tie for second place in OVC history for conference victories.

›› Charleston Southern dropped its most recent contest in an offensive shootout against Western Illinois, dropping their Homecoming matchup by a 42-35 margin. The Buccaneers have been competitive, dropping each of its three OVC contests by seven points or fewer.

›› Saturday's matchup will mark the fifth all-time meeting between the programs and UT Martin's second trip to Buccaneer Field. UT Martin has enjoyed considerable success against Charleston Southern, holding a perfect 4-0 advantage in the all-time series. The Skyhawks have won each of the three meetings since the programs became conference opponents in 2023. The most recent meeting came on Nov. 15, 2025, when UT Martin claimed a hard-fought 17-14 victory in Martin.

Jason Simpson enters his 21st season at the helm of the UT Martin football program in 2026 after transforming the Skyhawks into one of the most consistent and accomplished programs in the Football Championship Subdivision.

Since taking over the program in 2006, Simpson has compiled a 133-102 overall record while posting a remarkable 101-52 mark in conference play. His 133 career victories rank third in Ohio Valley Conference history, while his 101 league wins also stand third all-time behind legendary coaches Roy Kidd and Boots Donnelly.

Under Simpson's leadership, UT Martin has captured five conference championships, earned three FCS playoff berths, produced 45 All-Americans and developed nearly 200 all-conference performers. The Skyhawks have also defeated a pair of Football Bowl Subdivision opponents, knocking off Memphis in 2012 and Kennesaw State in 2024.

Simpson's tenure has produced the most successful sustained stretch in UT Martin's Division I history.

The Skyhawks have claimed conference championships in 2006, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024, including an unprecedented run of four consecutive titles from 2021-24. UT Martin became just the fifth program in OVC history to win at least four straight conference championships.

Six of the program's 10 eight-win seasons have come during Simpson's tenure, including each of UT Martin's six such campaigns at the FCS level.

His teams have also reached the FCS playoffs three times. UT Martin earned its first Division I postseason berth under Simpson in 2006 before returning to the playoffs in 2021 and 2024. The Skyhawks recorded the first two FCS playoff victories in school history during the latter two appearances.

The historic run has earned Simpson recognition among the nation's top coaches. He is a four-time finalist for the Eddie Robinson FCS Coach of the Year Award and a two-time OVC Roy Kidd Coach of the Year, earning the league's top coaching honor in 2006 and 2021. Simpson was also selected as the AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year following his debut season in 2006.

The success of the Simpson era has represented a dramatic shift in UT Martin's standing within its conference.

The Skyhawks have won 99 conference games during his tenure after the program recorded just 20 OVC victories over its first 14 seasons as a league member. Likewise, Simpson has coached 187 all-conference selections after UT Martin totaled only 33 during its first 15 seasons in the OVC.

His program has produced 44 All-Americans, along with 81 first-team all-conference selections, 84 second-team honorees and 20 all-newcomer selections.

Among the major individual award winners developed during Simpson's tenure are OVC Offensive Players of the Year Don Chapman and Keon Howard, along with defensive standouts John H. Ford II and Keyshawn Johnson, who earned conference Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Aidan Laros was named the inaugural Big South-OVC Football Association Special Teams Player of the Year in 2023, while Chapman, John Bachus III and Sam Franklin each earned OVC Freshman of the Year accolades during their Skyhawk careers.

Two Skyhawks have been selected in the NFL Draft during his tenure. Defensive tackle Montori Hughes was selected by the Indianapolis Colts in the fifth round, while wide receiver Colton Dowell was chosen by the Tennessee Titans in the seventh round of the 2023 NFL Draft. Numerous other Skyhawks have earned opportunities with NFL organizations, including Rodney Williams II, Dresser Winn, Jeremy Butler, Joe Gibbs, Quentin Sims, Jaylon Moore and others. The program enjoyed a particularly noteworthy moment in 2023 when Dowell, Williams and Winn simultaneously held spots on NFL active rosters.

UT Martin has also enjoyed tremendous success against its in-state conference rivals during Simpson's tenure. The Skyhawks have won or shared the Sgt. Alvin C. York Trophy 11 times since the award was established in 2007. UT Martin captured the trophy in 2010 and shared the honor in 2012, 2018, 2019 and 2020 before winning outright in 2014, 2015, 2016, 2021, 2022 and 2023. UT Martin has established the best record in Sgt. York Trophy competition with a 37-14 all-time mark.

Prior to earning his first collegiate head coaching opportunity at UT Martin, Simpson built an extensive résumé as an assistant coach throughout the Southeast. He came to Martin after serving as offensive coordinator at Chattanooga, where he helped engineer the resurgence of the Mocs' program. Chattanooga finished 6-5 in 2005, recording its first winning season since 1997.

Before his stint at Chattanooga, Simpson coached quarterbacks and wide receivers while serving as recruiting coordinator at Texas State. He helped the Bobcats to a 7-4 record in 2000, their first winning season in a decade. Simpson also spent three seasons at Jacksonville State from 1997-99, working with quarterbacks and receivers while serving as passing game coordinator and assistant special teams coordinator. He was part of a staff that engineered one of the largest turnarounds in Division I football during the 1997 and 1998 seasons.

His collegiate coaching career began at Delta State, where he worked as a graduate assistant with the defensive backs after earning his bachelor's degree from Southern Miss in 1994. He also spent time as an assistant football coach and head baseball coach at Collins High School in Mississippi.

A native of Ellisville, Mississippi, Simpson originally signed with Mississippi State as a quarterback and spent two seasons with the Bulldogs football program. A talented two-sport athlete, he also played baseball for legendary Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk before transferring to Southern Miss in 1992. Simpson became a two-time all-conference baseball selection for the Golden Eagles and served as team captain during his senior season before earning his bachelor's degree in 1994.

Simpson and his wife, Julie, have three children — Ty, Emma and Graham. Their oldest son, Ty, played quarterback at Alabama, serving as a team captain and guiding the Crimson Tide to the College Football Playoff quarterfinals before being selected 13th overall by the Los Angeles Rams in the first round of the 2026 NFL Draft.

MARTIN, Tenn. – A go-ahead touchdown with just under seven minutes remaining and a late defensive stand lifted the University of Tennessee at Martin to its fifth straight win as the Skyhawks topped Charleston Southern by a 17-14 margin on Senior Day.

After a scoreless first half, both teams swapped touchdowns in a 44-second span in the third quarter. UT Martin (6-5, 6-1 OVC-Big South) split the uprights to reclaim the lead with 10:24 remaining before the Buccaneers took their first lead of the day 80 seconds later with a touchdown. Chris Franklin then gave the Skyhawks the lead for good with a nifty 21-yard rushing score – reversing course in traffic for broad daylight on the left side – with 6:53 to go.

UT Martin produced its second-most passing yards (252) of the season today as part of 402 yards of total offense. Jase Bauer completed 69.2 percent (17-for-26) of his pass attempts for 252 yards through the air and added 54 yards on six carries – including a clutch 18-yard scamper on 3rd-and-12 with two minutes remaining to ice the victory.

Phaizon Wilson set a career-high with 120 receiving yards and equaled his previous high with seven catches while Scottie Alexander (three receptions, 74 yards) broke free for the first score of the game with a 52-yard catch.

UT Martin's defense was led by Jacob Stevenson's and Tah Mac Bright Banda's eight tackles and Keyshawn Johnson's two sacks – including a massive six-yard loss on 4th-and-5 for a turnover on downs on Charleston Southern's final possession of the contest. LaMarion Pierce snagged his second interception of the season while Toby Camp (sack) and CJ Cobbins (pass breakup) also made big plays to stall the Buccaneers' final drive.

Cade Hechter made a 34-yard field goal while Jaren Van Winkle averaged 38.6 yards over five punts for the Skyhawk special teams unit.

Charleston Southern saw its three-game winning streak snapped despite a big day from wide receiver Rashawn Cunningham (seven receptions, 216 yards, one touchdown). Zolten Osborne passed for 276 yards and two scores while Ke'Marion Baldwin rushed for a game-high 90 yards on 12 totes. Steve Zayachkowsky wrapped up 10 tackles to pace the Buccaneer defense.

In July 2007, the Nashville Sports Council and the Ohio Valley Conference announced the creation of the Sergeant York Trophy which goes to the winner of the season football series between the two Ohio Valley Conference football-playing schools located in the state of Tennessee – Tennessee State University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

The award is named in honor of Alvin C. York, the most noted Soldier of World War I. As a corporal in the 2nd battalion, 328th Infantry, in the Battle of the Meuse River-Argonne (Oct. 8, 1918), York and seven other soldiers captured 132 prisoners, was promoted to sergeant and received the Distinguished Service Cross, the French Croix de Guerre, the French Legion of Honor, the Croce di Guerra of Italy and the War Medal of Montenegro. Upon his return to the United States in 1919, he was bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Following the war York returned his home in Pall Mall, Tennessee (located in north central Tennessee, 55 miles northeast of Cookeville) where he dedicated his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee. In 1927 he established the Alvin C. York Institute after spending several years raising money for the school which opened as a private institution. That school was established, in part, to provide educational opportunities denied to the boys and girls of Fentress Country. In 1937, the Institute became a state special school after an appeal to the Tennessee State Legislature. The school, located in Jamestown, Tenn., is still in operation today.

York died on Sept. 2, 1964 and the foundation which he helped establish in 1920 – The Sergeant York Patriotic Foundation – was dormant for many years. The Foundation was re-established by Lipscomb Davis, Jr. in 1992 and is currently run by Sgt. York's grandson Gerald (U.S. Army Colonel, Retired). York's papers are archived by Michael E. Birdwell, Ph.D., who is an associate professor of history at Tennessee Technological University, one of the four institutions that will compete for the yearly honor.

NO. 22 UT MARTIN FALLS TO CENTRAL ARKANSAS IN 2026 FOOTBALL SEASON OPENER

MARTIN, Tenn. - The No. 22 ranked University of Tennessee at Martin football squad battled tonight in its season opener but fell by a 36-24 margin to Central Arkansas in front of 5,516 fans at Hardy Graham Stadium.

The Skyhawks led late in the second quarter before 16 unanswered points by Central Arkansas tilted the score in favor of the Bears. UT Martin pulled within five points with 9:49 to go in the contest but the Bears answered with the final touchdown of the contest six-plus minutes later.

Sophomore safety Trey Cotton opened the scoring with the Skyhawks' first pick-six since Oct. 26, 2024, taking Central Arkansas' first pass of its second drive 55 yards to the house in the opening quarter. Cotton also forced a fumble while Jamarcus Smith (10 tackles, team-best 1.5 tackles for loss) and Jamal Mayers (nine tackles, three pass breakups) each recorded double-digit stops to pace UT Martin defensively. Chris Wilson additionally blocked a pair of PAT's to tie a school record with Toby Camp (at Lindenwood in 2025) and Dean Wathen (at Murray State in 2010).

Tommy Ansley found the endzone twice out of the Skyhawk backfield, also topping the team with 61 rushing yards on 10 carries. Julian Calvez made his first UT Martin start under center, completing 13 of his 24 passes for 147 yards while adding 37 rushing yards on nine totes. Kaleb Washington tied for the team lead with three catches and tallied a team-best 53 receiving yards in his Skyhawk debut.

Brandon Sims converted a 25-yard field goal in the second quarter, went 3-for-3 in PAT opportunities and placed four of his five kickoff chances for touchbacks. Max Zuluaga also landed his only punt for 48 yards tonight to guide the UT Martin special teams.

"Central Arkansas has a good football team – we don't lose much at home so give them credit," Skyhawk head coach Jason Simpson said. "If you look at the stats, they were 10-of-15 on third downs and we were 3-of-11 and only snapped the ball 57 times. It's a long season and we'll know more about us as we go forward – tonight was some growing pains with 53 new players but we're not going to overreact. We're all in this together – we'll watch the tape, make some adjustments and find an identity for ourselves."

UT MARTIN CRUISES TO 42-7 VICTORY OVER CHICAGO STATE

MARTIN, Tenn. – Six rushing touchdowns paved the way for the University of Tennessee at Martin football squad's first triumph of the 2026 season, a 42-7 victory over Chicago State.

The six scores on the ground were the first time for the Skyhawks since Oct. 8, 2022 at Murray State. Tommy Ansley led the charge with 16 carries for 118 yards with three touchdowns, while Chris Franklin found the endzone twice. Jaydon Peete capped off the scoring with a rushing touchdown as UT Martin ended the contest with 42 unanswered points.

"It felt good to get a win," Skyhawk head coach Jason Simpson said. "We have a really good offensive line – we leaned on those guys and ran behind them tonight. Defensively, we were better tonight with only allowing 4-of-17 on third downs. We're still a work in progress – we'll use this nonconference season to get guys some experience and keep evaluating. We'll look different by the time we get to conference play."

The UT Martin offense piled up 477 yards of total offense (261 passing, 216 rushing) en route to the win. Redshirt freshman Tate Surber went 16-for-23 with 222 passing yards in his collegiate debut, while Julian Calvez added 39 passing yards in his second start of the season. Anthony Carter accumulated a team-high 62 receiving yards while tying three teammates (Connie Hewitt II, Makhia Sherrard and Kaleb Washington) with a team-best three catches.

The Skyhawks allowed only 191 yards of total offense as the swarming defensive unit combined for nine tackles for loss (including two sacks), five quarterback hurries and four pass breakups. Reginald Allen, Jr. corralled a team-high eight tackles with Chris Wilson (1.5 tackles for loss), Duston Chavis (one sack), LaMarion Pierce (two pass breakups) and Bryce Dailey (two quarterback hurries) additionally securing team-highs in their respective statistical categories.

On special teams, Brandon Sims was a perfect 6-for-6 in PAT attempts while also sending three of his seven kickoffs for touchbacks. Max Zuluaga averaged 50.0 yards over three punts.

Playing in its second game since debuting its program last week, Chicago State was led by Adrian Bowers' game-high 10 tackles. Ashton Pannell found De Armond Mathews for a 4-yard passing touchdown for the Cougars' only score midway through the first quarter, but the UT Martin defense conceded just 129 total yards over the final 45 minutes.

UT MARTIN FALLS AT BIG 12 CONFERENCE OPPONENT WEST VIRGINIA

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. - The University of Tennessee at Martin football squad took to the road today for the first time this season, falling by a 52-7 margin at Football Bowl Subdivision opponent West Virginia in front of 47,049 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Skyhawks (1-2) put together a trio of chunk plays in the opening quarter, averaging 7.3 yards over 20 plays. Julian Calvez hit Connie Hewitt II for a 24-yard pass on the first play of the game before Chris Franklin added a 48-yard run, setting the stage for an eventual UT Martin 1st-and-goal from the 5-yard line. Later in the period, Tate Surber found Kaleb Costner for a 25-yard reception.

At the halftime break, the Skyhawks gained 246 total yards compared to West Virginia's 254 while UT Martin held a 13-8 advantage in first downs. Five of the Skyhawks' seven first-half drives ventured into Mountaineer territory.

In the second half, UT Martin got on the scoreboard with a defensive score. John Betts III scooped up a fumble off a West Virginia read option and returned it across the goal line from six yards out with 3:25 to go in the contest.

Trey Cotton accounted for a game-high 10 tackles today as the Skyhawk defensive unit. Quincy Hamilton and Chris Wilson (0.5 tackles for loss, one pass breakup) also made six tackles apiece to pace UT Martin.

Franklin led the way for the Skyhawk offense today, managing 85 yards on 12 carries for an average of 7.1 yards per tote. Surber took a majority of the snaps at quarterback, going 19-of-28 for 137 yards. His favorite target today was Deuce Oliver, who hauled in a game-high six catches while Costner's 36 receiving yards led nine different UT Martin players who had at least one catch.

On special teams, Max Zuluaga pinned two of his four punts inside the 10-yard line, including a 68-yard boot in the third quarter. Overall, he averaged 53.3 yards per punt while Brandon Sims successfully converted the Skyhawk PAT in the fourth quarter.

The Mountaineers (2-0) was led by quarterback Michael Hawkins, Jr., who combined for four touchdowns while going 5-of-7 for 155 passing yards with 96 rushing yards on six carries. Isaiah Patterson topped the West Virginia defense with eight tackles.

"This was a learning experience for our players in a good environment," UT Martin head coach Jason Simpson said. "When you play a FBS opponent, if you handle it the right way – your team will get better with that experience. I thought our guys competed – we did some good things especially offensively in the first half but it wasn't a very clean game for us and the margin for error is very small."

UT MARTIN DROPS IN-STATE MATCHUP TO MEMPHIS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin football team scored a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns but could not overcome an early deficit as Memphis claimed a 45-21 victory on Saturday evening at Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium.

Playing in front of 30,840 fans, UT Martin (1-3) finished with 291 yards of total offense and converted seven of its 13 third-down opportunities. The Skyhawks were particularly effective inside the 20-yard line, scoring touchdowns on all three of their red-zone possessions.

In his first career start, freshman quarterback Tate Surber posted a solid performance by completing 17 of 29 passes for 177 yards and two touchdowns while committing no turnovers. The tandem of Deuce Oliver and Makhia Sherrard paced the team with four receptions. Oliver paced the team with 69 receiving yards on the night – including a 46-yard over the shoulder catch to set up a scoring drive in the fourth quarter. Meanwhile, Sherrard scored the Skyhawks first receiving touchdown of the season by tip-toeing the endzone for a second quarter touchdown snag.

The offensive production continued in the fourth quarter for the Skyhawks as the team punched a pair of touchdowns into the endzone. A dazzling reception by Kaleb Washington resulted in a seven-yard touchdown while running back Tommy Ansley punctuated another scoring drive with a one-yard rush up the middle.

Defensively, Joel Castleberry recorded his second career interception and capped it off with a 33-yard return to set up a scoring drive in the fourth quarter while sharing the team-lead with eight tackles on the night. Sophomore safety Trey Cotton also recorded eight tackles in the contest – including a tackle for loss in the first quarter. Another highlight play came in the second quarter when Rasheen Duncan bull rushed the opposing center and sacked Memphis quarterback Marcus Stokes for an 11-yard loss.

A big play on special teams also flashed on the stat sheet when Max Zuluaga booted a 74-yard punt in the first quarter. The punt marked the third-longest punt in program history, trailing only an 80-yard blast by Jade Stillings in 1997 and a 75-yard punt by Tyler Larco in 2022.

Memphis (3-1) racked up 572 yards of total offense on the night with a balanced attack – including 299 yards on the ground and 273 yards through the air. Stokes provided stability under center, completing 26-of-32 pass attempts for 258 yards and four touchdowns. Meanwhile Jordan Thompson tallied 110 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

Malik Brown recorded the team's first safety of the season with a sack on the opening defensive drive

Malik Brown tallied 2.0 sacks

Joel Castleberry recovered a fumble - the first of his career

Kaleb Costner tallied his first touchdown as a Skyhawk

SKYHAWKS CAN'T SLOW SECOND HALF SURGE AGAINST NO. 11 AUSTIN PEAY

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. - The University of Tennessee at Martin football team carried a five-point lead into halftime, but No. 11 ranked Austin Peay scored 28 unanswered points after the break to hand the Skyhawks a 35-12 setback Saturday at Fortera Stadium.

Big plays proved to be the difference in the game for both teams. The Skyhawks (1-4) struck first when Malik Brown sacked Austin Peay quarterback Chris Parson in the end zone for a safety on the opening defensive drive of the game. After a 66-yard Parson touchdown run put the Governors ahead, Tate Surber found Kaleb Costner for a 3-yard touchdown pass to give UT Martin a 9-7 lead late in the first quarter.

Brandon Sims added a 24-yard field goal with 3:29 left in the second quarter, sending the Skyhawks into the locker room up 12-7.

From there, the nationally ranked Governors took control. Austin Peay retook the lead on an 18-yard Parson run on its opening possession of the second half. Eight seconds later, Ta'Ron Haile returned an interception 18 yards for a touchdown. The Governors added another touchdown in the third quarter and one in the fourth to close out the scoring.

Surber completed 20 of 27 passes for 175 yards and a touchdown. Makhia Sherrard led UT Martin's receivers with five catches for 85 yards, including a 42-yard reception, while Chris Franklin rushed 12 times for 63 yards and caught five passes.

On the defensive side of the ball, Brown finished with two sacks, including the safety, as the Skyhawk defense totaled four sacks on the afternoon. Jamarcus Smith and Zamaryion Farmer-McCray shared the team lead with seven tackles apiece, and Joel Castleberry recorded six tackles, a sack and a fumble recovery.

"They have a good football team," UT Martin head coach Jason Simpson said. "The quarterback is a good player and they have some good weapons around him but I'll take this one. I was proud of the kids in the first half. They were really competitive and fought hard to take a 12-7 lead into halftime. It has to be coaching if we get outscored 28-0 in the second half. We've got to regroup, reassess what we do well, who does it well and see if we can coach it better heading into conference play."

Austin Peay was led by Parson who accounted for three touchdowns and 336 yards of total offense, including two touchdowns on the ground and one through the air. Marvin Sims also found the endzone twice via an eight-yard rush and an eight-yard reception.

SKYHAWKS RALLY PAST TSU TO CAPTURE PROGRAM'S 12TH SGT. YORK TROPHY

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Four forced turnovers, two defensive touchdowns and a second-half surge powered the University of Tennessee at Martin football team to a 42-28 victory over Tennessee State on Saturday at Nissan Stadium, securing the program's 12th Sgt. York Trophy and head coach Jason Simpson's 100th career Ohio Valley Conference victory.

The Skyhawks (2-4, 1-0 OVC) overcame a 21-7 second-quarter deficit and scored 28 unanswered points to take control of their conference opener. UT Martin outscored the Tigers 28-7 after halftime, using a 97-yard fumble return by Farand Washington and a 23-yard interception return by Joel Castleberry to help deliver the milestone victory behind a pair of defensive touchdowns.

The win added another championship to UT Martin's trophy-leading total in the Sgt. York Trophy series while giving Simpson his 100th career OVC victory in his 21st season leading the Skyhawks. The Skyhawks now improve to 39-15 in Sgt. York Trophy games while Simpson joins legendary coaches Roy Kidd (207) and Boots Donnelly (102) as the only coaches to eclipse 100 conference victories in OVC history.

UT Martin's defense intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble, turning Tennessee State's four turnovers into 21 points. LaMarion Pierce, Jamal Mayers and Castleberry each recorded an interception, while Broderick Tommie Jr. forced the fumble that Washington returned nearly the length of the field (97 yards) for the program's longest fumble return for a touchdown.

The Skyhawks also limited Tennessee State to just 15 rushing yards on 21 attempts and stopped the Tigers on all three of their fourth-down tries. Brylan Jordan and Chris Wilson shared the team lead with six tackles apiece, while Duston Chavis recorded 1.5 tackles for loss, including a half-sack.

Offensively, UT Martin generated 193 rushing yards and four touchdowns on the ground. Chris Franklin carried the ball 22 times for 82 yards and two scores, while Jaydon Peete added 79 yards on 12 attempts. Makhia Sherrard provided a 34-yard touchdown run, and quarterback Tate Surber also reached the end zone on the ground.

Surber completed 15 of 21 passes for 114 yards without an interception. Kaleb Washington paced the receiving corps with six catches for 53 yards, while Peete added two receptions for 24 yards to finish with 103 yards from scrimmage.

Tennessee State (1-5, 0-2 conference) built an early advantage behind quarterback Daylin Lee, who connected Cam Bullock for three of his four touchdown strikes on the afternoon. Lee finished the day completing 20-of-39 pass attempts for four touchdowns but threw three interceptions in his Nissan Stadium debut. Bullock finished a monster day with seven catches for 191 yards and three touchdowns while Aaron Duncan II added the team's first of four touchdowns on the day.

BIG DEFENSIVE EFFORT LIFTS SKYHAWKS TO FAMILY WEEKEND VICTORY OVER GARDNER-WEBB

MARTIN, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin football team leaned on a suffocating defensive performance and a punishing ground attack to secure a 17-6 victory over Ohio Valley Conference foe Gardner-Webb.

The Skyhawks (3-4, 2-0 OVC) returned home for their first game in 42 days and leaned on its homefield advantage and energetic Family Weekend crowd to support a gritty conference matchup. UT Martin excelled on defense by limiting the visitors from Gardner-Webb to just 168 yards of total offense – including 20 rushing yards – while tallying three interceptions and zero offensive points.

Efficiency was the name of the game for the Skyhawks on defense, limiting the Runnin' Bulldogs to 0-for-12 on third downs while surrendering just seven first downs in the contest. Offensively, UT Martin controlled the line of scrimmage with 218 rushing yards on 53 carries while dominating time of possession by a 41:01 to 18:59 margin. The Skyhawks finished with 310 yards of total offense and 16 first downs, including 12 on the ground.

Freshman running back Jaydon Peete paced the Skyhawk rushing attack with 73 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries while freshman quarterback Tate Surber added 61 rushing yards, highlighted by a 58-yard scamper. Surber also completed 10 passes for 92 yards and a touchdown.

Through the air, senior tight end Kaleb Costner led the Skyhawks with 33 receiving yards on two catches while Kaleb Washington hauled in a 20-yard reception. Senior wide receiver Makhia Sherrard added two receptions for 18 yards, including a 13-yard touchdown grab.

Defensively, sophomore Zamaryion Farmer-McCray paced the Skyhawks with six tackles while junior linebacker Jamarcus Smith and junior defensive lineman Duston Chavis each registered five stops. Junior linebacker Malik Brown made his presence felt with four tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss, a sack and three quarterback hurries.

The Skyhawk secondary also delivered several game-changing plays as Reginald Allen Jr., Jamal Mayers and Ant Fisher each recorded an interception. Allen returned his takeaway 19 yards while Mayers added two pass breakups.

Special teams also played a significant role in the contest as sophomore punter Max Zuluaga averaged 47.0 yards on seven punts, including a booming 75-yard effort. The punt ranked tied for the second-longest punt in program history – trying a 75-yard booming punt by Tyler Larco against Kennesaw State back in 2022. Sims accounted for five points with his 37-yard field goal and a pair of successful extra-point attempts.

Gardner-Webb was led offensively by quarterbacks Jared Doolittle and Lan Farmer, who combined to complete 12-of-37 passes for 148 yards and three interceptions. Kory Jones paced the receiving corps with three catches for 49 yards while linebacker Cahari Haynes registered a game-high 13 tackles.

UT MARTIN FALLS ON THE ROAD TO WESTERN ILLINOIS

MACOMB, Ill. – The University of Tennessee at Martin football team could not slow down the high-powered offense of Western Illinois in the host's Homecoming matchup, falling on the road by a final 55-24 margin at Hanson Field.

UT Martin (3-5, 2-1 OVC) totaled 366 yards of offense and stayed within striking distance for much of the contest before Western Illinois (4-4, 2-1 OVC) closed the game with 17-point fourth quarter to seal the conference matchup.

The Skyhawks found some success through the air, as quarterback Tate Surber completed 18-of-34 pass attempts for a career-high 266 yards but also threw two turnovers to stall offensive drives. Keyshaun Pipkin paced the team with four receptions and 77 yards – including a 47-yard reception to set up a scoring drive early in the second quarter. Meanwhile, Deuce Oliver eclipsed the 100-yard receiving mark for the first time in his career with a game-high 119 yards – including a 79-yard pass reception – which led to a Skyhawk touchdown.

Western Illinois did a nice job of keeping the UT Martin rushing offense in check throughout the game, limiting the Skyhawks to a season-low 90 rushing yards. Despite the tough running lanes, Jaydon Peete found the endzone twice on the ground, tallying two touchdowns on eight carries for 15 yards. Meanwhile, Chris Franklin also found the endzone with a 34-yard rushing touchdown late in the third quarter.

The tandem of Joel Castleberry and Brylan Jordan paced the team with six tackles each while Duston Chavis, Chris Wilson and Broderick Tommie Jr. each had a sack. Stefan Ponder also got involved by hauling in a tipped pass from CJ Cobbins and returning his first career interception 14 yards.

On special teams, central Illinois product Brandon Sims nailed a 22-yard field goal while Max Zuluaga consistently flipped the field for the Skyhawks by tallied four punts for an average of 51.2 yards per attempt – including a game-long 68-yard punt.

Western Illinois leaned heavily on the shoulders of dual-threat quarterback Kennedy McGill who powers a high-scoring offense. McGill tallied 349 yards of total offense by rushing 25 times for 210 yards and three touchdowns while completing 12-of-22 pass attempts for 139 yards and a touchdown through the air. David Hargro also added two touchdowns for the Fighting Leathernecks, with one coming on the ground and one through the air.

The Leatherneck defense was led by Nick Reinicke with 10 tackles and an interception while Justin Buckner also added 10 tackles in the victory.

MARTIN, Tenn. - The University of Tennessee at Martin football team saw its Homecoming celebration spoiled Saturday afternoon as Eastern Illinois used an explosive offensive performance to claim a 45-16 victory at Hardy M. Graham Stadium.

The setback dropped the Skyhawks to 3-6 overall and 2-2 in conference play, while the Panthers improved to 3-6 on the season with an identical 2-2 league mark.

Eastern Illinois accumulated 552 yards of total offense, including 283 rushing yards and 269 passing yards. Panther quarterback Cole LaCrue proved difficult to contain, completing 20-of-31 passes for 269 yards and four touchdowns while rushing for another 112 yards and a score. Four different players hauled in receiving touchdowns for the Panthers while tallying a pair of interceptions in the road victory to snap a seven game losing streak to the Skyhawks.
