SETTING THE SCENE

» Fresh off a thrilling come-from-behind victory to capture the program's 12th Sgt. York Trophy championship, the University of Tennessee at Martin football team returns to the friendly confines of Hardy M. Graham Stadium for the first time in 42 days when playing host to Ohio Valley Conference foe Gardner-Webb on Saturday, Oct. 17. Kickoff is scheduled for 2 p.m. on ESPN+ as part of the university's Family Weekend festivities.

» Saturday's contest marks a long-awaited homecoming for UT Martin after spending the previous six weeks away from Martin while navigating a challenging stretch featuring four consecutive road games and an open date. The Skyhawks (2-4, 1-0 OVC) will look to build momentum following a 42-28 road victory over Tennessee State in the team's conference opener.

» UT Martin overcame a slow start before rattling off 28 unanswered points to end the road trip on a high note and clinch the program's 12th Sgt. York Trophy and bring the trophy back to Martin for the first time in 693 days. The Skyhawks pounded the ground attack, rushing for 193 yards and four touchdowns while forcing four turnovers on the defensive side - including three interceptions and a school-record 97-yard fumble return.

» The victory carried historical significance for 21st-year head coach Jason Simpson, who earned his 100th career Ohio Valley Conference victory. Simpson became just the third head coach in league history to reach the milestone, joining Roy Kidd (207) and Boots Donnelly (102).

» Gardner-Webb (2-5, 1-1 OVC) enters the contest looking to get back to its winning ways after falling to Eastern Illinois last weekend by a 21-7 margin. The Runnin' Bulldogs have suffered several narrow losses - including two against Football Bowl Subdivision programs - dropping three of their four contests by six combined points against Wofford (L, 17-13), Liberty (L, 24-23) and Marshall (L, 36-35).

» Interim head coach Pete Bennett took over the program after Week 0 and boasts two of the top playmakers in the OVC in quarterback Cole Pennington and linebacker Tre Yanez. Pennington leads the OVC and ranks fifth nationally with 1,680 passing yards while throwing for eight touchdowns. Meanwhile, Yanez is a two-time OVC Defensive Player of the Week after leading the league in both tackles (74) and tackles for loss (12.5).

» Saturday's matchup marks the eighth all-time meeting between UT Martin and Gardner-Webb, with the Skyhawks holding a narrow 4-3 advantage in the series. UT Martin has won each of the previous two meetings and three of the last four encounters - all of which coming during the Simpson era.

QUICK HITS

SGT. YORK TROPHY CHAMPIONS

>> For the 12th time in program history, UT Martin claimed the annual Sgt. York Trophy after picking up a 42-28 road win over Tennessee State on Oct. 10. The contest marked the first head-to-head showdown in the 20th annual Sgt. York Trophy Series.

>> UT Martin has claimed the Sgt. York Trophy 12 times overall and boasts a 39-15 record in the series. The Skyhawks have won outright or shared the traveling trophy in 2010, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2026.

HOME SWEET HOME

>> UT Martin has found success at Hardy Graham Stadium with three unbeaten campaigns in the last four years. Additionally, the Skyhawks have won 28 of their last 34 contests at home since 2019 - including a 22-4 record over the past five seasons. Against OVC opponents, the Skyhawks have lost just one game since Apr. 3, 2020 - a record of 16-1.

MUSIC CITY COMEBACK

>> With UT Martin facing a two touchdown deficit in the first quarter, the Skyhawks rallied to score 28 unanswered points and take control of the game against Tennessee State. The Skyhawks used the ground attack to rush for four touchdowns while forcing four turnovers in the victory - including a pair of defensive touchdowns via a 97-yard fumble return by Farand Washington and a 23-yard interception return by Joel Castleberry.

DEFENSE FORCES THE ACTION

>> UT Martin's defense was opportunistic in the team's road win over Tennessee State by forcing four turnovers and getting three fourth down stops. The Skyhawks had three interceptions from the trio of LaMarion Pierce, Jamal Mayers and Joel Castleberry (TD return) while Farand Washington scooped up a forced fumble by Broderick Tommie Jr. and returned in a school-record 97 yards for a touchdown. UT Martin leads the country with four defensive touchdowns on the season.

SIMPSON REACHES 100 OVC WINS

>> After 21 seasons at the helm of the Skyhawks, UT Martin head coach Jason Simpson became just the third coach in Ohio Valley Conference history to reach 100 conference victories with the team's win over Tennessee State on Oct. 10. Simpson joins College Football Hall of Famers Roy Kidd (207) and Boots Donnelly (102) in this select company and just two conference wins away from second place all-time.

POUNDING THE GROUND ATTACK

>> With rain sprinkling Nissan Stadium, the Skyhawks went ground and pound against Tennessee State. UT Martin rushed for 193 net yards while finding the endzone four times by three different individuals. Chris Franklin led the team with 93 yards and a pair of touchdowns while Jaydon Peete rushed for 79 yards in the win. Makhia Sherrard (34 yards) and Tate Surber (8 yards) also recorded rushing touchdowns.

HOT OFF A BYE WEEK

>> UT Martin used the bye week to rest the season, much like in previous campaigns. Since 2006, the Skyhawks have posted a 13-5 record when coming off of a bye week while posting an 12-3 mark against conference foes.

SKYHAWKS IN OVC OPENERS

>> UT Martin got back to its winning ways after switching to Ohio Valley Conference play after picking up a 42-28 win over Tennessee State. Since head coach Jason Simpson's first season in 2006, the Skyhawks have boasted a 15-6 record in conference openers. Additionally, UT Martin is 3-0 when opening the conference slate against Tennessee State (2017, 2023 and 2026) under the direction of Simpson.

SKYHAWKS OVER THE LAST FIVE YEARS

>> UT Martin has seen unparalleled success for the program over the last six seasons dating back to 2021. During that stretch, the Skyhawks have racked four conference championship titles and posted a 28-6 record against league foes.

5. Kerwin Bell (Western Carolina)	100	65	.606

SIMPSON RANKS THIRD ALL-TIME IN OVC

» UT Martin head coach Jason Simpson currently sits third in OVC history with 132 career victories. With his win against Gardner-Webb on Oct. 5, 2024 he surpassed former Middle Tennessee coach Charles Murphy. Now in his 21st season at UTM, Simpson ranks as the longest tenured coach in the league while sitting first among active OVC coaches in victories.

BACK IN THE OVC

» The 2026 season marks a return to the OVC identity for the football brand. The return to the OVC identity follows three successful years of partnership with the Big South Conference from 2023-2025.

» Schools who will play OVC football in 2026 are Charleston Southern, Eastern Illinois, Gardner-Webb, Lindenwood, Southeast Missouri, Tennessee State, UT Martin and Western Illinois.

UT MARTIN PICKED TO WIN OVC

» After winning four of the last five conference championships, the Skyhawks are tabbed to return to a championship level in 2026 after being picked to first in the OVC's annual preseason poll. The Skyhawks received 47 total points and six of eight first place votes.

Preseason Predicted Order of Finish

1.	UT Martin (6 first-place votes) - 47
2.	Southeast Missouri (1) - 38

TENNESSEE TOUGH, #MARTINMADE

» Under the direction of head coach Jason Simpson, the Skyhawks have taken pride in winning games against in-state opponents. Since 2014, the Skyhawks have posted a 28-12 record against in-state foes - including a 27-9 record against in-state FCS opponents.

BATTLE FOR THE VOLUNTEER STATE

» Football has been a storied part of the state of Tennessee's history for decades. Dating back to the 2021 season, UT Martin ranks third in the state (including all Division I universities) in winning percentage at 63.6 percent. The Skyhawks are 27-11 against in-state foes since 2014.

Best Winning Percentage in Tennessee Since 2021

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU?

» Junior outside linebacker Malik Brown put the Skyhawks on the board on the opening defensive drive against Austin Peay by recording a 13-yard sack in the endzone for a sack. While finishing with 2.0 sacks for a total of 22 yards against the Governors, Brown tallied the first defensive safety for the squad (omitting special teams), since 2024 against North Alabama.

TURNING DEFENSE INTO OFFENSE

» UT Martin currently leads the FCS in defensive touchdowns this season with four. Trey Cotton returned an interception 55 yards for a touchdown against Central Arkansas while John Betts III returned a fumble six yards for a touchdown against West Virginia. Then the Skyhawks added two against Tennessee State, including a 97-yard fumble return by Farand Washington and a 23-yard interception return by Joel Castleberry.

QUICK HITS

SURBER NAMED OVC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

» Redshirt-freshman quarterback Tate Surber picked up his first weekly honor of his career by being named OVC Rookie of the Week after his performance against No. 11 ranked Austin Peay. He completed 20-of-27 pass attempts for 175 yards and a touchdown - including completing 11-of-12 pass attempts in the first half.

ZULUAGA IS SPECIAL TEAMS SICKO

» Redshirt-sophomore punter Max Zuluaga has been a big contributor for the Skyhawks on special teams this season. The JUCO All-American newcomer currently ranks second nationally with 48.8 yards per punt, while placing six punts inside the 20-yard line and booming seven punts of 50 yards or more. He also leads the OVC in several punting categories. Zuluaga was also honored by the Sickos Committee for the Longest Punt of the Week following his 74-yard punt against Memphis - which ranks as the fourth longest punt in FCS this season.

PROTECTING THE QUARTERBACK

» With a young quarterback under center, the Skyhawks have relied on a strong offensive line to keep the quarterback upright. To date, UT Martin ranks 23rd nationally in sacks allowed, allowing 1.2 sacks per game. The success has been behind a consistent starting group of Santiago Macias (LT), Eric Lane (LG), Garrett Smith (C), Dolapo Egunjobi (RG) and Travis Gray (RT) starting all five games.

SURBER UNDER CENTER

» In his first start for the Skyhawks, redshirt-freshman Tate Surber completed 17-of-27 passes for 177 yards and two touchdowns against Memphis. The two touchdowns marked the first two passing touchdowns for the Skyhawks this season, finding Makhia Sherrard for an eight-yard touchdown pass and Kaleb Washington for a seven-yard strike.

ZULUAGA PUNTS IT DEEP

» A booming punt in the first quarter against Memphis put UT Martin specialist Max Zuluaga into the program's record books. With the Skyhawks on their own 24, Zuluaga booted a 74-yard punt into the Memphis endzone - ranking as the third-longest punt in program history. His punt only ranked behind an 80-yard blast by Jade Stillings in 1997 and a 75-yard punt by Tyler Larco in 2022.

BETTS WITH THE SCOOP AND SCORE

» Skyhawk outside linebacker John Betts III played a botched handoff perfectly against West Virginia, scooping up a fumble and returning it six yards for a touchdown to score the team's lone points of the contest and avoid a shutout. The fumble return marked the first returned for a touchdown since Daylan Dotson recovered a fumble in the endzone against Houston Christian in 2022.

DUO NAMED OVC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

» After an impressive showing against Chicago State, the UT Martin duo of running back Tommy Ansley (Offensive) and linebacker Reginald Allen Jr. (Defensive) garnered respective OVC Player of the Week honors.

» Ansley posted the best game of his Skyhawk career by tallying 16 carries while setting new career highs in rushing yards (118) and touchdowns (three). He became the 14th player in program history to rush for three or more touchdowns in a contest and the first since 2024.

» Allen has made a big impact by leading the Skyhawks with eight total tackles in the team's win over Chicago State, recording three solo stops. He also notched 1.5 tackles for loss.

SKYHAWK DEBUTS

» 38 different players have made their UT Martin debut this season. Included in that group are 15 players who debuted in the starting lineup, including linebacker Reginald Allen Jr., outside linebacker John Betts III, outside linebacker Malik Brown, tight end Kaleb Costner, defensive lineman Rasheen Duncan, offensive tackle Travis Gray, tight end Connie Hewitt II, linebacker Brylan Jordan, offensive tackle Santiago Macias, wide receiver Makhia Sherrard, linebacker Jamarcus Smith, cornerback Wendell Smith, quarterback Tate Surber, cornerback Farand Washington and wide receiver Kaleb Washington.

SKYHAWKS RUSH FOR SIX TOUCHDOWNS

» UT Martin had no problem finding the endzone in the team's win over Chicago State, pounding the ground game and punching in six rushing touchdowns in the 35-point victory. Trio of running backs Tommy Ansley (three), Chris Franklin (two) and Jaydon Peete (one) combined for the six scores. The game ranks tied for the fifth most rushing touchdowns in a single game.

*According to available data

ZULUAGA PEPPERS THE MOUNTAINEERS

>> Punter Max Zuluaga had a big day in the team's matchup against West Virginia by booting four punts for an average of 53.2 yards per punt. That average ranks as the third-highest single-game punt average in program history, sitting behind former All-American Aidan Laros (56.8 at Gardner-Webb, 2023) and All-OVC selection Tyler Larco (55.7 at Kennesaw State, 2022). His best attempt came on a booming 68-yard punt which ranked just outside the program's top-10.

PICK SIX IS 100% COTTON

>> Sophomore safety Trey Cotton made the most of his first career start in the season opener against Central Arkansas by catching a tipped pass by Jamal Mayers and returning an interception 55 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. The interception marked the first of Cotton's career and first pick six for a Skyhawk since the 2024 season when the team returned four for touchdowns.

DIPPING INTO THE TRANSFER PORTAL

>> The Skyhawks added to a veteran return group this offseason by dipping into the transfer portal and acquiring talent. UT Martin welcomes in 14 FBS/FCS transfers including Dawson Adams-Grenier (Campbell), Ololade Adeduro (Robert Morris), Reginald Allen, Jr. (Bryant), Greg Ard (Boise State), Jamauri Brice (Georgia Tech), Ryan Donnelly (Drake), Rasheen Duncan (Morgan State), Ant Fisher (NC Central), Travis Gray (New Mexico), Connie Hewitt II (Liberty), Justin Kowalak (Ole Miss), Porter Reynolds (Northern Arizona), Jamarcus Smith (Illinois State) and Bryan Wallace (Southern).

SEASON 97

>> The 2026 campaign is UT Martin's 97th season of football despite suspending play during Great Depression (1933) and World War II (1942-45). The Skyhawks are in their 34th season at the NCAA Division I FCS level. UT Martin joined the NCAA Division I ranks in 1992 and have compiled an overall record of 173-225 with three Ohio Valley Conference titles (2006, 2021 and 2022), two OVC-Big South titles (2023 and 2024) and three NCAA Playoff appearance (2006, 2021 and 2024) as a Division-I program.

QUICK HITS

BLOCK THAT KICK

>> After leading the FCS with eight blocked kicks in 2025, the Skyhawks picked up right where they left off in the season opener against Central Arkansas. On two point after attempts, defensive lineman Chris Wilson blocked a kick - tying the program single game record with Toby Camp (2025) and Dean Wathen (2010) for most blocked kicks in a single game.

12 SKYHAWKS NAMED OVC PRESEASON PLAYERS TO WATCH LIST

>> 12 Skyhawk were named to the OVC Preseason Players to Watch List. The Skyhawk group includes five players on offense, three on defense and four specialist. Included is running back Tommy Ansley, wide receiver Phaizon Wilson, tight end Kaleb Costner, offensive lineman Travis Gray, all-purpose performer Chris Franklin, defensive lineman Broderick Tommie, Jr., linebacker Jamarcus Smith, defensive back Trey Cotton, place kicker Brandon Sims, punter Max Zuluaga, punt returner Deuce Oliver and long snapper Hayden King.

PHIL STEELE HONORS EIGHT SKYHAWKS ON PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE LIST

>> A total of eight UT Martin football players garnered spots on the annual Phil Steele Preseason All-OVC teams. The preseason all-conference teams consisted of three groupings with UT Martin claiming one first team honor, three second team selections and four third team pick.
>> Earning a spot on the first team was long snapper Hayden King while wide receiver Phaizon Wilson, punter Max Zuluaga and offensive tackle Travis Gray earned spots on the second team. Making the third team was linebacker Jamarcus Smith, safety Trey Cotton, punt return specialist Deuce Oliver and all-purpose performer Chris Franklin.

THE GRADUATES

>> Nine players on the 2026 UT Martin roster have already received bachelor's degrees:

- Julian Calvez
- Kaleb Costner
- Dolapo Egunjobi
- Travis Gray
- Keyshaun Pipkin
- AJ Robinson, Jr.
- Makhia Sherrard
- Garrett Smith
- Kaleb Washington

OVC MEDAL OF HONOR

>> Skyhawk running back Tommy Ansley became the first player to garner an OVC Medal of Honor award since 2020-21 after posting a perfect 4.00 grade point average for the 2025-26 season. Ansley was one of 33 Skyhawks to achieve the benchmark.

QUICK HITS

KING NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

» Veteran long snapper Hayden King was named a preseason first team All-American by both Phil Steele and Stats Perform after earning all-conference first team honors last season. He started all 12 games as the team's primary long snapper and short snapper for a squad which led the country with zero allowed blocked kicks or punts. His specialists converted 95.4 percent of their kick attempts, including 15-of-17 field goal attempts and 27-of-27 PATs. Meanwhile, his punting unit averaged 41.1 yards per punt while adding two tackles on coverage.

Jason Simpson enters his 21st season at the helm of the UT Martin football program in 2026 after transforming the Skyhawks into one of the most consistent and accomplished programs in the Football Championship Subdivision.

Since taking over the program in 2006, Simpson has compiled a 130-99 overall record while posting a remarkable 99-52 mark in conference play. His 130 career victories rank third in Ohio Valley Conference history, while his 99 league wins also stand third all-time behind legendary coaches Roy Kidd and Boots Donnelly.

Under Simpson's leadership, UT Martin has captured five conference championships, earned three FCS playoff berths, produced 45 All-Americans and developed nearly 200 all-conference performers. The Skyhawks have also defeated a pair of Football Bowl Subdivision opponents, knocking off Memphis in 2012 and Kennesaw State in 2024.

Simpson's tenure has produced the most successful sustained stretch in UT Martin's Division I history.

The Skyhawks have claimed conference championships in 2006, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024, including an unprecedented run of four consecutive titles from 2021-24. UT Martin became just the fifth program in OVC history to win at least four straight conference championships.

Six of the program's 10 eight-win seasons have come during Simpson's tenure, including each of UT Martin's six such campaigns at the FCS level.

His teams have also reached the FCS playoffs three times. UT Martin earned its first Division I postseason berth under Simpson in 2006 before returning to the playoffs in 2021 and 2024. The Skyhawks recorded the first two FCS playoff victories in school history during the latter two appearances.

The historic run has earned Simpson recognition among the nation's top coaches. He is a four-time finalist for the Eddie Robinson FCS Coach of the Year Award and a two-time OVC Roy Kidd Coach of the Year, earning the league's top coaching honor in 2006 and 2021. Simpson was also selected as the AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year following his debut season in 2006.

The success of the Simpson era has represented a dramatic shift in UT Martin's standing within its conference.

The Skyhawks have won 99 conference games during his tenure after the program recorded just 20 OVC victories over its first 14 seasons as a league member. Likewise, Simpson has coached 187 all-conference selections after UT Martin totaled only 33 during its first 15 seasons in the OVC.

His program has produced 44 All-Americans, along with 81 first-team all-conference selections, 84 second-team honorees and 20 all-newcomer selections.

Among the major individual award winners developed during Simpson's tenure are OVC Offensive Players of the Year Don Chapman and Keon Howard, along with defensive standouts John H. Ford II and Keyshawn Johnson, who earned conference Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Aidan Laros was named the inaugural Big South-OVC Football Association Special Teams Player of the Year in 2023, while Chapman, John Bachus III and Sam Franklin each earned OVC Freshman of the Year accolades during their Skyhawk careers.

Two Skyhawks have been selected in the NFL Draft during his tenure. Defensive tackle Montori Hughes was selected by the Indianapolis Colts in the fifth round, while wide receiver Colton Dowell was chosen by the Tennessee Titans in the seventh round of the 2023 NFL Draft. Numerous other Skyhawks have earned opportunities with NFL organizations, including Rodney Williams II, Dresser Winn, Jeremy Butler, Joe Gibbs, Quentin Sims, Jaylon Moore and others. The program enjoyed a particularly noteworthy moment in 2023 when Dowell, Williams and Winn simultaneously held spots on NFL active rosters.

UT Martin has also enjoyed tremendous success against its in-state conference rivals during Simpson's tenure. The Skyhawks have won or shared the Sgt. Alvin C. York Trophy 11 times since the award was established in 2007. UT Martin captured the trophy in 2010 and shared the honor in 2012, 2018, 2019 and 2020 before winning outright in 2014, 2015, 2016, 2021, 2022 and 2023. UT Martin has established the best record in Sgt. York Trophy competition with a 37-14 all-time mark.

Prior to earning his first collegiate head coaching opportunity at UT Martin, Simpson built an extensive résumé as an assistant coach throughout the Southeast. He came to Martin after serving as offensive coordinator at Chattanooga, where he helped engineer the resurgence of the Mocs' program. Chattanooga finished 6-5 in 2005, recording its first winning season since 1997.

Before his stint at Chattanooga, Simpson coached quarterbacks and wide receivers while serving as recruiting coordinator at Texas State. He helped the Bobcats to a 7-4 record in 2000, their first winning season in a decade. Simpson also spent three seasons at Jacksonville State from 1997-99, working with quarterbacks and receivers while serving as passing game coordinator and assistant special teams coordinator. He was part of a staff that engineered one of the largest turnarounds in Division I football during the 1997 and 1998 seasons.

His collegiate coaching career began at Delta State, where he worked as a graduate assistant with the defensive backs after earning his bachelor's degree from Southern Miss in 1994. He also spent time as an assistant football coach and head baseball coach at Collins High School in Mississippi.

A native of Ellisville, Mississippi, Simpson originally signed with Mississippi State as a quarterback and spent two seasons with the Bulldogs football program. A talented two-sport athlete, he also played baseball for legendary Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk before transferring to Southern Miss in 1992. Simpson became a two-time all-conference baseball selection for the Golden Eagles and served as team captain during his senior season before earning his bachelor's degree in 1994.

Simpson and his wife, Julie, have three children – Ty, Emma and Graham. Their oldest son, Ty, played quarterback at Alabama, serving as a team captain and guiding the Crimson Tide to the College Football Playoff quarterfinals before being selected 13th overall by the Los Angeles Rams in the first round of the 2026 NFL Draft.

The University of Tennessee at Martin football program went on the road and posted a dominant 37-7 victory over OVC-Big South Football Association foe Gardner-Webb behind strong play in all three phases of the game.

The Skyhawks (3-5, 3-1 OVC-Big South) picked up their first road victory of the season and second win in a row after producing in every phase with four offensive touchdowns, four forced turnovers on defense and three field goals on special teams. UT Martin jumped out to an early lead with a daunting 18-play opening drive which chewed up nearly 10 minutes of game clock and never looked back. The team's impressive play marked the program's largest road margin of victory against a league opponent since Nov. 13, 2021 when the Skyhawks blasted Tennessee Tech by a 42-3 score.

Statistically the Skyhawks posted a dominant performance with 408 yards of total offense while finding the endzone on four occasions. Quarterback Jase Bauer used his arm to score the game's first touchdown as a 28-yard passing connection to Dazalin Worsham put the Skyhawks up 10-0 after the first period. From there the UT Martin pounded the ground game on the way to 244 rushing yards and three touchdowns courtesy of Bauer (15-yard touchdown), John Gentry (seven-yard touchdown) and Chris Franklin (66-yard touchdown).

On the defensive side of the ball the visitors wrecked the Runnin' Bulldogs Homecoming early and often. UT Martin pitched a shutout for the first three quarters while thwarting scoring opportunities with four forced turnovers - including three interceptions by the trio of Chris Rhodes, Jamal Mayers and JaMichael McGoy, Jr. The squad also forced two fumbles as Jabaree Dawkins and Keyshawn Johnson were each credited with a force while Toby Camp recorded a recovery.

Special teams were also a bright spot for the Skyhawks as reining OVC-Big South Special Teams Player of the Week Cade Hechter made his case for back-to-back honors after converting 3-of-3 field goal attempts from 37, 41 and 25 yards, respectively.

Other performances of note included a record-setting day for McGoy. The All-American contributed three passes defended - two pass breakups and one interception - in the game to bump his career total up to 43 while his two PBUs set a new program record for the senior with 37 to surpass former teammate Oshae Baker's previous mark (36) set last season.

Gardner-Webb (4-3, 2-1 OVC-Big South) entered the contest one position out of the Top 25 in the AFCA Coaches' Poll. The Runnin' Bulldogs were chained up by the Skyhawk offense as their four turnovers marked a season high while the team's rushing (83 yards) and total offense (319 yards) production ranked as season lows. The Skyhawks were especially impressive on third (4-of-11) and fourth down (1-of-3) conversion opportunities on defense.

In July 2007, the Nashville Sports Council and the Ohio Valley Conference announced the creation of the Sergeant York Trophy which goes to the winner of the season football series between the two Ohio Valley Conference football-playing schools located in the state of Tennessee - Tennessee State University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

The award is named in honor of Alvin C. York, the most noted Soldier of World War I. As a corporal in the 2nd battalion, 328th Infantry, in the Battle of the Meuse River-Argonne (Oct. 8, 1918), York and seven other soldiers captured 132 prisoners, was promoted to sergeant and received the Distinguished Service Cross, the French Croix de Guerre, the French Legion of Honor, the Croce di Guerra of Italy and the War Medal of Montenegro. Upon his return to the United States in 1919, he was bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Following the war York returned his home in Pall Mall, Tennessee (located in north central Tennessee, 55 miles northeast of Cookeville) where he dedicated his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee. In 1927 he established the Alvin C. York Institute after spending several years raising money for the school which opened as a private institution. That school was established, in part, to provide educational opportunities denied to the boys and girls of Fentress Country. In 1937, the Institute became a state special school after an appeal to the Tennessee State Legislature. The school, located in Jamestown, Tenn., is still in operation today.

York died on Sept. 2, 1964 and the foundation which he helped establish in 1920 - The Sergeant York Patriotic Foundation - was dormant for many years. The Foundation was re-established by Lipscomb Davis, Jr. in 1992 and is currently run by Sgt. York's grandson Gerald (U.S. Army Colonel, Retired). York's papers are archived by Michael E. Birdwell, Ph.D., who is an associate professor of history at Tennessee Technological University, one of the four institutions that will compete for the yearly honor.

NO. 22 UT MARTIN FALLS TO CENTRAL ARKANSAS IN 2026 FOOTBALL SEASON OPENER

MARTIN, Tenn. - The No. 22 ranked University of Tennessee at Martin football squad battled tonight in its season opener but fell by a 36-24 margin to Central Arkansas in front of 5,516 fans at Hardy Graham Stadium.

The Skyhawks led late in the second quarter before 16 unanswered points by Central Arkansas tilted the score in favor of the Bears. UT Martin pulled within five points with 9:49 to go in the contest but the Bears answered with the final touchdown of the contest six-plus minutes later.

Sophomore safety Trey Cotton opened the scoring with the Skyhawks' first pick-six since Oct. 26, 2024, taking Central Arkansas' first pass of its second drive 55 yards to the house in the opening quarter. Cotton also forced a fumble while Jamarcus Smith (10 tackles, team-best 1.5 tackles for loss) and Jamal Mayers (nine tackles, three pass breakups) each recorded double-digit stops to pace UT Martin defensively. Chris Wilson additionally blocked a pair of PAT's to tie a school record with Toby Camp (at Lindenwood in 2025) and Dean Wathen (at Murray State in 2010).

Tommy Ansley found the endzone twice out of the Skyhawk backfield, also topping the team with 61 rushing yards on 10 carries. Julian Calvez made his first UT Martin start under center, completing 13 of his 24 passes for 147 yards while adding 37 rushing yards on nine totes. Kaleb Washington tied for the team lead with three catches and tallied a team-best 53 receiving yards in his Skyhawk debut.

Brandon Sims converted a 25-yard field goal in the second quarter, went 3-for-3 in PAT opportunities and placed four of his five kickoff chances for touchbacks. Max Zuluaga also landed his only punt for 48 yards tonight to guide the UT Martin special teams.

"Central Arkansas has a good football team - we don't lose much at home so give them credit," Skyhawk head coach Jason Simpson said. "If you look at the stats, they were 10-of-15 on third downs and we were 3-of-11 and only snapped the ball 57 times. It's a long season and we'll know more about us as we go forward - tonight was some growing pains with 53 new players but we're not going to overreact. We're all in this together - we'll watch the tape, make some adjustments and find an identity for ourselves."

UT MARTIN CRUISES TO 42-7 VICTORY OVER CHICAGO STATE

MARTIN, Tenn. - Six rushing touchdowns paved the way for the University of Tennessee at Martin football squad's first triumph of the 2026 season, a 42-7 victory over Chicago State.

The six scores on the ground were the first time for the Skyhawks since Oct. 8, 2022 at Murray State. Tommy Ansley led the charge with 16 carries for 118 yards with three touchdowns, while Chris Franklin found the endzone twice. Jaydon Peete capped off the scoring with a rushing touchdown as UT Martin ended the contest with 42 unanswered points.

"It felt good to get a win," Skyhawk head coach Jason Simpson said. "We have a really good offensive line - we leaned on those guys and ran behind them tonight. Defensively, we were better tonight with only allowing 4-of-17 on third downs. We're still a work in progress - we'll use this nonconference season to get guys some experience and keep evaluating. We'll look different by the time we get to conference play."

The UT Martin offense piled up 477 yards of total offense (261 passing, 216 rushing) en route to the win. Redshirt freshman Tate Surber went 16-for-23 with 222 passing yards in his collegiate debut, while Julian Calvez added 39 passing yards in his second start of the season. Anthony Carter accumulated a team-high 62 receiving yards while tying three teammates (Connie Hewitt II, Makhia Sherrard and Kaleb Washington) with a team-best three catches.

The Skyhawks allowed only 191 yards of total offense as the swarming defensive unit combined for nine tackles for loss (including two sacks), five quarterback hurries and four pass breakups. Reginald Allen, Jr. corralled a team-high eight tackles with Chris Wilson (1.5 tackles for loss), Duston Chavis (one sack), LaMarion Pierce (two pass breakups) and Bryce Dailey (two quarterback hurries) additionally securing team-highs in their respective statistical categories.

On special teams, Brandon Sims was a perfect 6-for-6 in PAT attempts while also sending three of his seven kickoffs for touchbacks. Max Zuluaga averaged 50.0 yards over three punts.

Playing in its second game since debuting its program last week, Chicago State was led by Adrian Bowers' game-high 10 tackles. Ashton Pannell found De Armond Mathews for a 4-yard passing touchdown for the Cougars' only score midway through the first quarter, but the UT Martin defense conceded just 129 total yards over the final 45 minutes.

UT MARTIN FALLS AT BIG 12 CONFERENCE OPPONENT WEST VIRGINIA

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. - The University of Tennessee at Martin football squad took to the road today for the first time this season, falling by a 52-7 margin at Football Bowl Subdivision opponent West Virginia in front of 47,049 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Skyhawks (1-2) put together a trio of chunk plays in the opening quarter, averaging 7.3 yards over 20 plays. Julian Calvez hit Connie Hewitt II for a 24-yard pass on the first play of the game before Chris Franklin added a 48-yard run, setting the stage for an eventual UT Martin 1st-and-goal from the 5-yard line. Later in the period, Tate Surber found Kaleb Costner for a 25-yard reception.

At the halftime break, the Skyhawks gained 246 total yards compared to West Virginia's 254 while UT Martin held a 13-8 advantage in first downs. Five of the Skyhawks' seven first-half drives ventured into Mountaineer territory.

In the second half, UT Martin got on the scoreboard with a defensive score. John Betts III scooped up a fumble off a West Virginia read option and returned it across the goal line from six yards out with 3:25 to go in the contest.

Trey Cotton accounted for a game-high 10 tackles today as the Skyhawk defensive unit. Quincy Hamilton and Chris Wilson (0.5 tackles for loss, one pass breakup) also made six tackles apiece to pace UT Martin.

Franklin led the way for the Skyhawk offense today, managing 85 yards on 12 carries for an average of 7.1 yards per tote. Surber took a majority of the snaps at quarterback, going 19-of-28 for 137 yards. His favorite target today was Deuce Oliver, who hauled in a game-high six catches while Costner's 36 receiving yards led nine different UT Martin players who had at least one catch.

On special teams, Max Zuluaga pinned two of his four punts inside the 10-yard line, including a 68-yard boot in the third quarter. Overall, he averaged 53.3 yards per punt while Brandon Sims successfully converted the Skyhawk PAT in the fourth quarter.

The Mountaineers (2-0) was led by quarterback Michael Hawkins, Jr., who combined for four touchdowns while going 5-of-7 for 155 passing yards with 96 rushing yards on six carries. Isaiah Patterson topped the West Virginia defense with eight tackles.

"This was a learning experience for our players in a good environment," UT Martin head coach Jason Simpson said. "When you play a FBS opponent, if you handle it the right way - your team will get better with that experience. I thought our guys competed - we did some good things especially offensively in the first half but it wasn't a very clean game for us and the margin for error is very small."

UT MARTIN DROPS IN-STATE MATCHUP TO MEMPHIS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The University of Tennessee at Martin football team scored a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns but could not overcome an early deficit as Memphis claimed a 45-21 victory on Saturday evening at Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium.

Playing in front of 30,840 fans, UT Martin (1-3) finished with 291 yards of total offense and converted seven of its 13 third-down opportunities. The Skyhawks were particularly effective inside the 20-yard line, scoring touchdowns on all three of their red-zone possessions.

In his first career start, freshman quarterback Tate Surber posted a solid performance by completing 17 of 29 passes for 177 yards and two touchdowns while committing no turnovers. The tandem of Deuce Oliver and Makhia Sherrard paced the team with four receptions. Oliver paced the team with 69 receiving yards on the night - including a 46-yard over the shoulder catch to set up a scoring drive in the fourth quarter. Meanwhile, Sherrard scored the Skyhawks first receiving touchdown of the season by tip-toeing the endzone for a second quarter touchdown snag.

The offensive production continued in the fourth quarter for the Skyhawks as the team punched a pair of touchdowns into the endzone. A dazzling reception by Kaleb Washington resulted in a seven-yard touchdown while running back Tommy Ansley punctuated another scoring drive with a one-yard rush up the middle.

Defensively, Joel Castleberry recorded his second career interception and capped it off with a 33-yard return to set up a scoring drive in the fourth quarter while sharing the team-lead with eight tackles on the night. Sophomore safety Trey Cotton also recorded eight tackles in the contest - including a tackle for loss in the first quarter. Another highlight play came in the second quarter when Rasheen Duncan bull rushed the opposing center and sacked Memphis quarterback Marcus Stokes for an 11-yard loss.

A big play on special teams also flashed on the stat sheet when Max Zuluaga booted a 74-yard punt in the first quarter. The punt marked the third-longest punt in program history, trailing only an 80-yard blast by Jade Stillings in 1997 and a 75-yard punt by Tyler Larco in 2022.

Memphis (3-1) racked up 572 yards of total offense on the night with a balanced attack - including 299 yards on the ground and 273 yards through the air. Stokes provided stability under center, completing 26-of-32 pass attempts for 258 yards and four touchdowns. Meanwhile Jordan Thompson tallied 110 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

SKYHAWKS CAN'T SLOW SECOND HALF SURGE AGAINST NO. 11 AUSTIN PEAY

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. - The University of Tennessee at Martin football team carried a five-point lead into halftime, but No. 11 ranked Austin Peay scored 28 unanswered points after the break to hand the Skyhawks a 35-12 setback Saturday at Fortera Stadium.

Big plays proved to be the difference in the game for both teams. The Skyhawks (1-4) struck first when Malik Brown sacked Austin Peay quarterback Chris Parson in the end zone for a safety on the opening defensive drive of the game. After a 66-yard Parson touchdown run put the Governors ahead, Tate Surber found Kaleb Costner for a 3-yard touchdown pass to give UT Martin a 9-7 lead late in the first quarter.

Brandon Sims added a 24-yard field goal with 3:29 left in the second quarter, sending the Skyhawks into the locker room up 12-7.

From there, the nationally ranked Governors took control. Austin Peay retook the lead on an 18-yard Parson run on its opening possession of the second half. Eight seconds later, Ta'Ron Haile returned an interception 18 yards for a touchdown. The Governors added another touchdown in the third quarter and one in the fourth to close out the scoring.

Surber completed 20 of 27 passes for 175 yards and a touchdown. Makhia Sherrard led UT Martin's receivers with five catches for 85 yards, including a 42-yard reception, while Chris Franklin rushed 12 times for 63 yards and caught five passes.

On the defensive side of the ball, Brown finished with two sacks, including the safety, as the Skyhawk defense totaled four sacks on the afternoon. Jamarcus Smith and Zamaryion Farmer-McCray shared the team lead with seven tackles apiece, and Joel Castleberry recorded six tackles, a sack and a fumble recovery.

"They have a good football team," UT Martin head coach Jason Simpson said. "The quarterback is a good player and they have some good weapons around him but I'll take this one. I was proud of the kids in the first half. They were really competitive and fought hard to take a 12-7 lead into halftime. It has to be coaching if we get outscored 28-0 in the second half. We've got to regroup, reassess what we do well, who does it well and see if we can coach it better heading into conference play."

Austin Peay was led by Parson who accounted for three touchdowns and 336 yards of total offense, including two touchdowns on the ground and one through the air. Marvin Sims also found the endzone twice via an eight-yard rush and an eight-yard reception.

SKYHAWKS RALLY PAST TSU TO CAPTURE PROGRAM'S 12TH SGT. YORK TROPHY

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Four forced turnovers, two defensive touchdowns and a second-half surge powered the University of Tennessee at Martin football team to a 42-28 victory over Tennessee State on Saturday at Nissan Stadium, securing the program's 12th Sgt. York Trophy and head coach Jason Simpson's 100th career Ohio Valley Conference victory.

The Skyhawks (2-4, 1-0 OVC) overcame a 21-7 second-quarter deficit and scored 28 unanswered points to take control of their conference opener. UT Martin outscored the Tigers 28-7 after halftime, using a 97-yard fumble return by Farand Washington and a 23-yard interception return by Joel Castleberry to help deliver the milestone victory behind a pair of defensive touchdowns.

The win added another championship to UT Martin's trophy-leading total in the Sgt. York Trophy series while giving Simpson his 100th career OVC victory in his 21st season leading the Skyhawks. The Skyhawks now improve to 39-15 in Sgt. York Trophy games while Simpson joins legendary coaches Roy Kidd (207) and Boots Donnelly (102) as the only coaches to eclipse 100 conference victories in OVC history.

UT Martin's defense intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble, turning Tennessee State's four turnovers into 21 points. LaMarion Pierce, Jamal Mayers and Castleberry each recorded an interception, while Broderick Tommie Jr. forced the fumble that Washington returned nearly the length of the field (97 yards) for the program's longest fumble return for a touchdown.

The Skyhawks also limited Tennessee State to just 15 rushing yards on 21 attempts and stopped the Tigers on all three of their fourth-down tries. Brylan Jordan and Chris Wilson shared the team lead with six tackles apiece, while Duston Chavis recorded 1.5 tackles for loss, including a half-sack.

Offensively, UT Martin generated 193 rushing yards and four touchdowns on the ground. Chris Franklin carried the ball 22 times for 82 yards and two scores, while Jaydon Peete added 79 yards on 12 attempts. Makhia Sherrard provided a 34-yard touchdown run, and quarterback Tate Surber also reached the end zone on the ground.

Surber completed 15 of 21 passes for 114 yards without an interception. Kaleb Washington paced the receiving corps with six catches for 53 yards, while Peete added two receptions for 24 yards to finish with 103 yards from scrimmage.

Tennessee State (1-5, 0-2 conference) built an early advantage behind quarterback Daylin Lee, who connected Cam Bullock for three of his four touchdown strikes on the afternoon. Lee finished the day completing 20-of-39 pass attempts for four touchdowns but threw three interceptions in his Nissan Stadium debut. Bullock finished a monster day with seven catches for 191 yards and three touchdowns while Aaron Duncan II added the team's first of four touchdowns on the day.
