The University of Tennessee at Martin Intercollegiate Athletics Mission Statement

The University of Tennessee at Martin intercollegiate athletics program enhances the total collegiate experience for currently enrolled students and generates interest in UT Martin from various stakeholders by developing competitive teams, academically successful student-athletes, and staff and student-athletes who are involved in the campus and external community. These goals are pursued while stressing the physical, emotional and social well being of student-athletes. All coaches and staff are expected to comply with NCAA and NIRA regulations and principles, especially those related to sportsmanship and ethical conduct. Opportunities for women and minorities are expanded whenever possible.

The University of Tennessee is an EEO/AA/Title VI/Title IX/ Section 504/ADA/ADEA institution in the provision of its education and employment programs and services. All qualified applicants will receive equal consideration for employment without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, physical or mental disability, or covered veteran status. ## GO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

UT MARTIN

UT MARTIN HEAD COACH TELLS SKYHAWKS TO GO MAD (Make A Difference) THIS SEASON

MARTIN, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin football team learned two things after the 2011 campaign. The team must do the small things, such as cut down on penalties, gain at least one more yard and grab an interception along the way, to make a difference. The other thing the Skyhawks took away from the disappointing 2011 season is lessons learned. "You always hope to learn lessons from one year to the next," head football coach Jason Simpson said.

It didn't take long for the Skyhawks to learn a lesson this past season. After suffering a heart-breaking 24-23 loss to No. 9 Jacksonville State in the season opener, Simpson and the Skyhawks were still encouraged because the moral victory gave them some self confidence. "We thought we would be 6-2 in the OVC (Ohio Valley Conference) after that loss," Simpson said. "We knew we had the ability to play well and win."

The Skyhawks recorded back-toback wins over Union College and No. 24 Murray State and added to their self confidence. In fact the pair of home-field victories were ominous because the Skyhawks outscored the two foes, 111-26.

Then reality sat in the first week of October when the Skyhawks suffered a 34-31 loss to Tennessee Tech on their home turf at Hardy Graham Stadium. After a disappointing road loss at South Alabama, the Skyhawks rattled off back-to-back OVC victories over Eastern Illinois and Southeast Missouri State. With two OVC games left and a 4-2 record, the Skyhawks were poised for their second OVC title in five years. Instead of making a statement with road wins at Tennessee State and at Eastern Kentucky, the Skyhawks suffered back-to-back losses and finished with a 4-4 OVC record which was only good enough for sixth-place proper or tied for fifth. Four OVC setbacks by a total of 16 points. Simpson, who will enter his seventh season when the season opens Sept. 1, knew something had to change during the offseason. The head coach and his staff watched game film continuously. They studied every aspect of the season, and when spring practice opened Simpson's new battle cry, Go MAD (Make A Difference) revealed the findings of the intense studying.

"Everything we said, everything we did and everything we told the team was go make a difference," Simpson said. As the beginning of fall camp approaches on Aug. 5, the diatribe continues to be "make a difference."

While some of the personel from this past season returns, the biggest change is the team's dynamics. "We have more talent then we had a year ago, we have a fifth-year senior at quarterback and two seniors at the running back position," Simpson said. "We must capitalize on our strengths."
Here is a quick look at the Skyhawks, position by position .

QUARTERBACK

Fifth-year senior Derek Carr will call the signals for the Skyhawks. The McKenzie native threw for more than 300 yards three times in 2011, including an ominous 387 yards against Austin Peay. He finished 27th in the nation in total passing yards (2,482) and 34th in the country for completions per game (18.18).

Carr finished third in the OVC in passing average (225.6 per game) and fifth in the league in passing efficiency (136.1).

RUNNING BACK

Seniors Jason McNair and Tevin Barksdale, along with junior DJ McNeil, will see plenty of action in the backfield for the Skyhawks. Both McNair and Barksdale finished among the top 10 rushers in the OVC this past season. McNair was seventh with 166 attempts and 782 yards. Barksdale was tenth with 107 carries for 685 yards.

McNeil was the team's third leading rusher with 58 attempts for 275 yards. He also had five rushing touchdowns

As a team the Skyhawks finished second in the league in total offense with 2,108 rushing yards. However, UT Martin was fifth in the OVC in rushing offense.

Missing from last year's squad are fullbacks Jarvis Perry and Kenny Jones. The two only accounted of 69 yards of rushing. However Kenny Jones, who also played tight end, accounted for 25 catches for 334 yards and five touchdowns.

RECEIVERS

All-Ohio Valley Conference wide reciever Quentin Sims returns for his senior season. Sims led the Skyhawks in 2011 with 54 catches for 712 yards and 10 touchdowns. The Cincinnati native was fourth in the OVC among receivers. He averaged 64.7 yards of receiving per game.

While Sims returns, the Skyhawks will miss Stephen Shiver who was the OVC's fifth leading receiver with 42 catches for 657 yards.

The Skyhawk receiving corps is not one dimensional. Newcomer Jeremy Butler, from Brandenton, Fla., will contend for playing time as well as Kevin Barfield, Dylan Davis, Chris Thompson, Rod Wright, Malik Generett, Walter Evans and Ben Axline.

OFFENSIVE LINE

This year's offensive line is probably the best

UT Martin has had in a long time, Simpson said. Matt Axline and Charles Sweeton will play the tackle positions. Tyler Eady will handle the center chores, while Michael Bryant and redshirt sophomore John Johnson take care of the guard postions. Senior Ben Everett will play tight end. The senior from Loudon is more than capable of handling a blocking assignment and he showed in 2011 he could catch the ball.

In 2011, the Skyhawks were 25th in the nation in rushing offense and 13th in the country in scoring offense. A large portion of that credit goes to the offensive line.

"Our offensive line averages 300 pounds and for the first time in a long time looks like an offensive line in the OVC," Simpson said. "With the exception of Eady at center, they are all tall and and athletic."

DEFENSIVE LINE

One of the biggest questions for the Skyhawks is the defense. For the third time in the past three years, the Skyhawks will have a new defensive coordinator. Jeff Byrd and David Reeves, both from Southern Arkansas, join Simpson's staff this season. Byrd will handle the defensive coordinator's assignment, while Reeves works with the secondary.

Simpson, being the offensive minded coach that he is, will not say much about the defense. "You can expect a lot of things to be going on, and you should probably count on seeing multiple formations."

In the middle of the defense line is Tennessee transfer Montori Hughes (6-4, 330 pounds) and Darrin Nalls (5-10, 300 pounds). DJ Roberts and Ryan Isom will see time at defensive ends as well as Dean Wathen, Nick Brown and Matt Murphy.

LINEBACKERS

This past season walk-on Ben Johnson didn't waste any time earning a scholarship for the 2012 season. Johnson led the team in tackles the first game of the season at Jacksonville State. He led the Skyhawks with 97 total tackles and 7.5 TFLs. Johnson and Jett Howard will both play outside linebacker positions. "Ben has good strength and he is consistent," Simpson said. "I think we are all waiting for Jett to have a big year."

Howard played in two games in 2011 and was sidelined with an injury for the rest of the season. However in two games Howard record nine tackles and 2.5 TFLs.
The Skyhawks will have plenty of depth and options at this positon. Tony Bell, James Ratliff, Jarvis McCann and Chris Wright will battle for playing time.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Skyhawks have some big holes to fill at the cornerback positions with the graduation of TJ Drakeford and CJ Estelle. However Taino Fears Perez, Thad Williams, Aaron Simms and Fred Flenorl are ready to go. The success of the Skyhawks could hinge on this position and the number of interceptions the group can grab.

"We did some research and we know that the No. 1 defensive team in this league has only won the conference one time and that was in 2006 when we did it," Simpson said. "The other five times, the team with the most interceptions has managed to win this league. We have got to make some things happen at this position."

SAFETIES

Local product Kendal Harper was supposed to be the answer for the Skyhawks in 2011 at the safety position. Unfortunately a nagging injury spoiled Harper's senior season. The nearby Trenton native managed to play in 10 games and make 30 total tackles. He also had 4.5 TFLs and on sack.

This season the Skyhawks will move Julius McNair from the linebacker position to safety. "We think Julius has the cerebral ability to play back there," Simpson said. "We need knowledge back there and we think Julius can get the job done.."

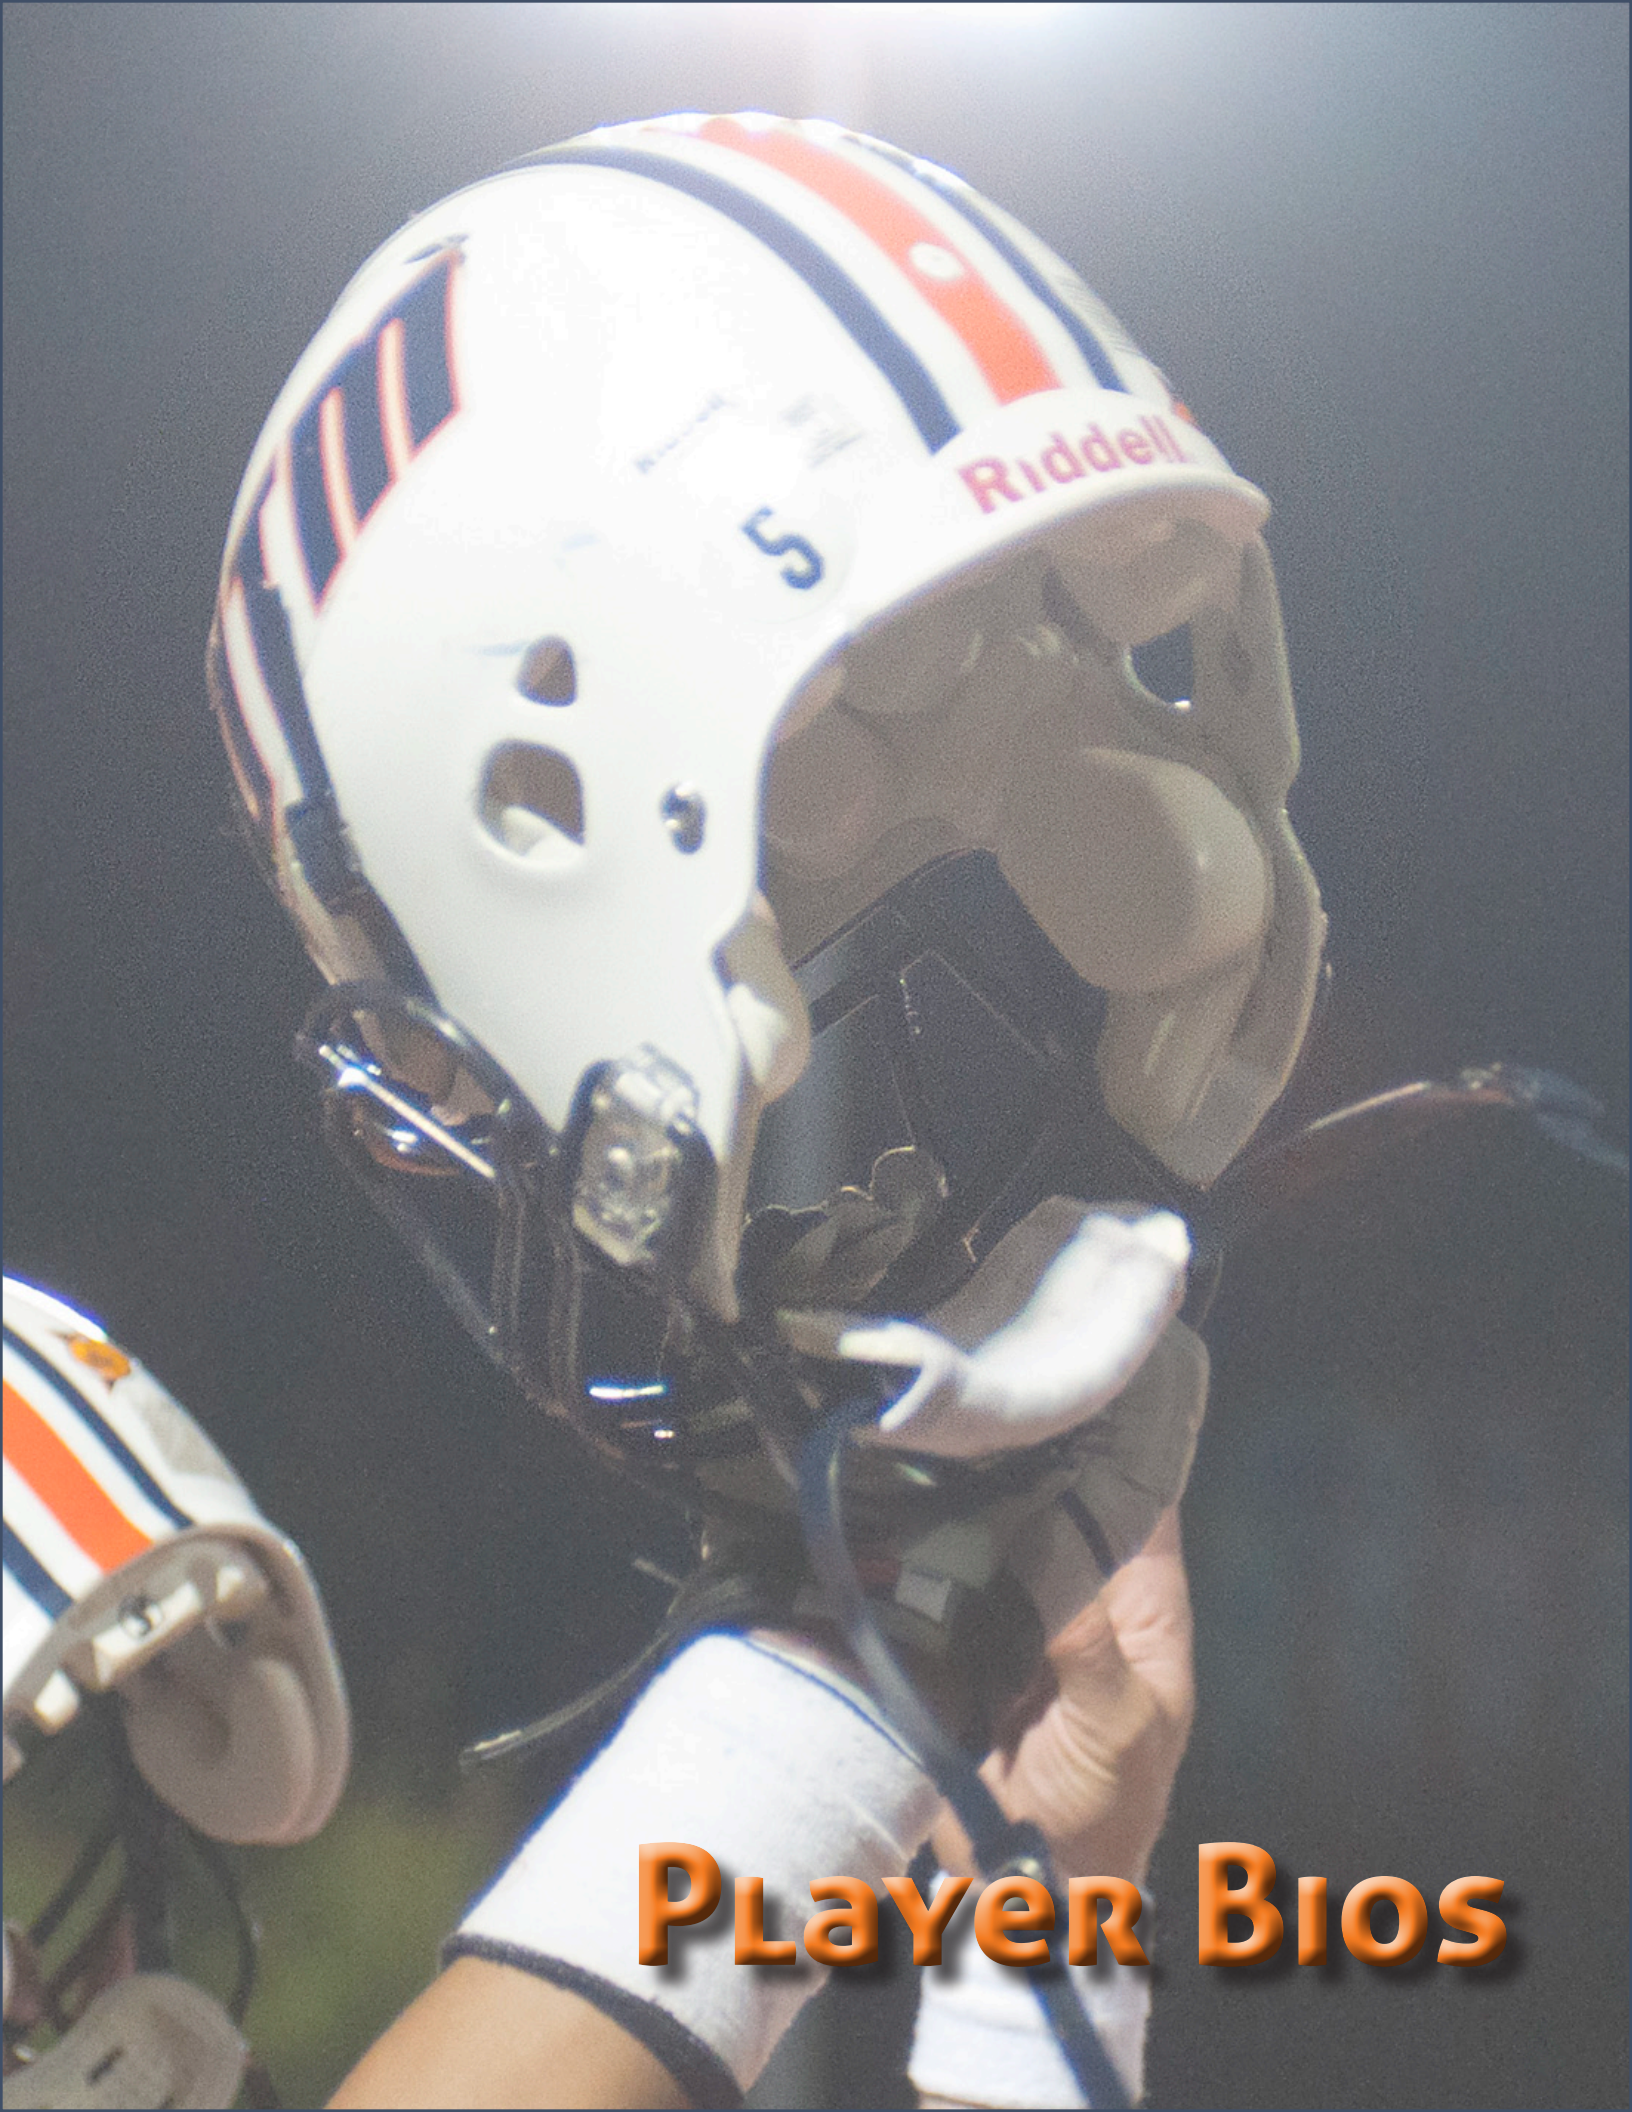

The Skyhawks will also have junior college transfer Jvontez Blackmon (6-0, 190 pounds) to play safety. Junior Obi Nwankwo, Aaron Simms and freshman Amiri Hawkins can also play the position.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Special teams presents another question for the Skyhawks. This unit suffers the loss of punter, Joe Hook, and punt returner CJ Estelle. Both players graduated. Hook averaged more than 38 yards a punt, had seven inside the 20 yard line and had two that went for more than 50 yards. Estelle led the nation in punt return yardage. He returned a punt 76 yards for a touchdown against Austin Peay and was named National Punt Returner of the Week.

While the Skyhawks will have to find a replacement for Estelle and rely on James Satterfield, from Gallatin, to handle the punting chores, All-OVC place kicker Cody Sandlin returns for his senior campaign. Sandlin made 14-of-17 field goals, including a record-tying 53 yarder. He also made 45-of-48 PATs.

Pre-Season Notes

OVC victories piling up
Head coach Jason Simpson has won 37 Ohio Valley Conference games in six years at UT Martin. Before Simpson arrived, UT Martin managed 37 wins in 14 years (1992-2005) under the direction of five head coaches (Don McLeary, Jim Marshall, Sam McCorkle, Johnny Jernigan and Matt Griffin).

New coaches on both sides of the ball
Jeff Byrd will serve as the defensive coordinator for the Skyhawks this season. Byrd, from Arkansas Tech, is one of two new coaches on head coach Jason Simpson's staff this year. Also joining the staff is Eric Stuedemann, a former graduate assistant at Mississippi State, who will coach the quarterbacks. Like Stuedemann, Byrd has a Mississippi connection. He graduated from Southern Miss in 1989.

There's no place like home ...
The Skyhawks sport a .742 winning percentage (23-8) at Hardy M. Graham Stadium under the direction of head coach Jason Simpson (2006-present). The Skyhawks have won at least four home games in five of Simpson's six seasons. In 2007, the Skyhawks were 3-2 at Hardy M. Graham Stadium.

Five former FBS players on roster
The Skyhawks have five former FBS players on its roster this season, including seniors Quentin Sims (Georgia Tech), Michael Bryant (Vanderbilt), Malik Generett (Connecticut), Montori Hughes (Tennessee) and Cortez Brown (Southern Miss).

Eastern Kentucky has been picked to win the 2012 crown by league head football coaches and sports information directors, while The University of Tennessee at Martin, under the direction of seventh-year head coach Jason Simpson, has been picked sixth in the preseason OVC poll released July 23 at the annual football media day in Nashville. Eastern Kentucky totaled 124 points to top the poll. The only other school to receive first-place votes was Jacksonville State, who picked up the remaining six votes and had 117 total points. Murray State was picked third (85 points) and followed closely by Tennessee Tech in fourth (83). The poll was rounded out by Tennessee State (69), UT Martin (67), Southeast Missouri (44), Eastern Illinois (42) and Austin Peay (17).

HEAD COACH

UT Martin head football coach Jason Simpson and his UT Martin Skyhawks didn't waste any time garnering attention in 2011. The Skyhawks opened the season at No. 9 Jacksonville State and suffered a one-point loss in the final minute of the game. Two weeks later Simpson and the Skyhawks stunned arch rival Murray State, 48-26, in front of the home crowd at Hardy Graham Stadium.

The explosive offense led by West Tennessee product Derek Carr didn't stop cruising. The Skyhawks lambasted Austin Peay 61-23 and then closed out the home season with a 38-30 win over Southeast Missouri State. Going into the final two games of the season, the Skyhawks were in a position to win their second OVC championship in five years.

However, it was the litle things that proved costly on the road against Tennessee State and Eastern Kentucky. When the dust settled and the regular season came to an end the Skyhawks found themselves in the middle of the OVC standings with a 4-4 worksheet. The four losses were by a combined 16 points.

It was the four losses, that ignited Simpson's battle cry – Go Make A Difference, or Go MAD – for the 2012 campaign.

In six years, Simpson has led the Skyhawks to a .617 OVC winning percentage and a .544 overall winning percentage. The OVC winning percentage is among the top four in the league, backing up why Simpson was the 2006 Roy Kidd Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year.

Along with winning, Simpson has delivered one of the most explosive offensives and a stifling defenses in the country.

The Mississippi native and sixth-year head coach has recently produced the nation's No. 1 punt returner in All-American CJ Estelle and All-American defensive back Dontrell Miller.

As a team UT Martin won the Sgt. Alvin York Trophy in 2010 when it went 6-5 overall and 5-3 in the OVC. The Sgt. York Trophy was not the only piece of the puzzle for the Skyhawks in 2010. Simpson led his charges to a 10-7 Homecoming victory and the first ever win over perennial power Eastern Kentucky in school history.

With the 2006 OVC championship to his credit and a field goal shy of a second championship in 2008, Simpson's teams have been ranked among the top 25 in the nation annually. The Skyhawks received votes in the FCS polls seven out of 14 weeks during the 2009 season.

The Skyhawks marched to a 5-6 overall record and sported a 4-4 OVC worksheet. The team opened its campaign with a 56-0 lambasting over Iowa Wesleyan and won three of its last four games of the season in convincing fashion. Among those victories was a 38-24 triumph over rival Murray State and a 48-38 shootout with Austin Peay. The Skyhawks were ranked 27th in the nation in rushing offense, 22nd in the nation in passing offense, 37th in scoring offense, 31st in rushing defense, 19th in punt return yardage/defense, 30th for tackles for a loss per game, 25th for third down conversion percentage and 17th for time of possession.

Cade Thompson, Simpson's starting quarterback from 2008-09, was 20th in the nation in passing yards per game and total passing yards (2,546). Thompson set new school records for passing yards, completion percentage and touchdown passes in 2009. Offensive tackle Joe Gibbs, junior linebacker Josh Bey, tailback Brandyn Young and freshman tailback Jason McNair reeled in All-OVC honors in 2009 for Simpson and the Skyhawks. Gibbs was also named to three All-America teams and claimed UT Martin's Bob Carroll Male Athlete of the Year Award. Gibbs recently earned a tryout with the NFL's New York Jets.

Simpson led the 2008 Skyhawks to an 8-4 overall campaign and a 6-2 OVC record. The team received votes in both the FCS Coaches Poll and the Sports Network Poll, and was ranked 25th in the nation in the final Sports Media Entertainment (SME) Network poll. The team was ranked fourth in the nation in scoring offense (37.33) and sixth in fumbles recovered (16). The Skyhawks were also ranked among the nation's top 40 teams in rushing offense (34), passing offense (35), total offense (16), punt returns (23), kickoff returns (38), passing efficiency (27), sacks (19), tackles for loss (7), third down conversion percentage (8) and fourth down conversion percentage (8).

The head coach had five first team All-OVC selections including Thompson, his quarterback, wide receiver Mike Hicks, offensive lineman Kevin Bannon, defensive lineman Ray Williams and defensive back Dontrell Miller.

Miller earned All-American honors from the Associated Press, the AFCA and the Sports Network. He was also included in CSN's Fabulous 50 team. Williams picked up honorable mention All-American honors from The Sports Network.

In 2007, the Skyhawks closed out the season by winning four of their last five games. The Skyhawk offense exploded in the second half of the season with a 76-34 victory over Murray State and a 55-20 thumping over Southeast Missouri State. While the second half of the season was loaded with excitement, the first half was a challenge to say the least. The Skyhawks lost their first three OVC games by a combined nine points. The team finished the season with a 4-7 overall record and a 4-4 mark in the OVC. Linebacker Josh Yarbrough led the team in tackles and earned All-OVC honors and honorable mention All-American honors from the Sports Network. Running back Don Chapman closed out his career as UT Martin's all-time rushing leader with 5,017 yards. Chapman became only the 14th Division I player to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons. Return specialist Jessie "Juice" Burton was the Sports Network's third best kick returner. Burton was invited to the Canadian Football League's Calgary Stampeders training camp.

In 2006, Simpson's first year, the Skyhawks posted a 9-3 overall record and a 6-1 mark in the OVC standings. The overall worksheet was the best for the Skyhawks since 1988 when they advance to postseason play as a Division II team. The six OVC victories were the most for the Skyhawks since joining the league in 1992. Of the nine victories, five were road wins and it marked the first time the Skyhawks won an OVC road game since 1996.

Along with wins, Simpson led the Skyhawks to national rankings for the first time since 1989 and top 10 statistical rankings in pass efficiency defense (2), total defense(6), pass defense (7). The team was 12th in rushing offense while Chapman was ranked No. 9 in rushing offense (128.36 yards per game). Burton was ranked seventh in kickoff returns (26.2 yards per return).

Simpson finished fourth in the annual voting for the Eddie Robinson Award for the nation's best coach. He was named the American Football Coaches Association Region 3 Coach of the Year and he earned the OVC's Roy Kidd Coach of the Year trophy.

Before accepting his first head coaching job at UT Martin, Simpson was the offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. He was instrumental in the resurgence of the UTC football program. In 2005, Chattanooga posted a 6-5 campaign, the school's first winning season since 1997.

At Chattanooga, Simpson coached quarterback Cedric Stevens who threw for more than 3,100 yards with a 66 percent completion percentage. With 20 touchdown passes, Stevens was named national Division I-AA Player of the Week. Stevens turned in a stellar effort with 540 yards of passing and five touchdowns as he helped Chattanooga pile up 697 yards of total offense in a 59-56 win over Appalachian State.

In 2004, Simpson's offense finished 14th in Division I-AA for passing and 32nd in scoring with 29.2 points per game. Simpson also coached Alonzo Nix at Chattanooga. Nix broke the Southern Conference record for receptions in a season with 90 catches. He earned all-conference honors in 2003 and 2004. In 2003 he was an All-American and in 2004 he was a preseason Walter Payton Award finalist.

Before Chattanooga, Simpson coached at Texas State University, a member of the Southland Football League. He coached quarterbacks, receivers and served as the team's recruiting coordinator. At Texas State, Simpson coached Tyson Ollvo who is the school's third all-time receptions leader. In 2000, Texas State posted a 7-4 record, the school's first winning season in 10 years.

Simpson served as an assistant coach from 1997-1999 at Jacksonville State University. He coached quarterbacks and was the team's passing game coordinator. He also coached receivers and served as an assistant special teams coordinator. He was a member of the Jacksonville State staff responsible for the third best turnaround in Division I football for the 1997 and 1998 seasons.

At Jacksonville State, Simpson coached Reggie Stancil, the Southland Football Conference Freshman of the Year; two-time All-Southland wide receiver Joey Hamilton who signed with the NFL's Oakland Raiders. Hamilton is Jacksonville State's all-time leading receiver with more than 2,903 yards and he holds five career records. Simpson also coached all-conference wide receiver Ronald Bonner who signed with the Canadian Football League's Hamilton Tiger Cats and Montressa Kirby, the 1998 Southland Offensive Player of the Year. Kirby is Jacksonville State's all-time offensive leader with more than 7,688 yards.

Simpson is a native of Ellisville, Miss. He signed as a quarterback with Mississippi State and played for two seasons for the Bulldogs. He also played baseball for Ron Polk at State before transferring to Southern Miss in 1992. At Southern Miss, Simpson was a two-time all-conference selection in baseball and was team captain his senior season.

After earning a bachelor's degree in 1994 from Southern Miss, he spent the next year as a graduate assistant football coach at Delta State, where he coached defensive backs. In the spring of 1995, Simpson served as an assistant football and head baseball coach at Collins High School in Mississippi.

Simpson and his wife, the former Julie Wilkerson, have two sons and a daughter: Ty, Graham and Emma. The family lives in Martin and attends First Baptist Church.

Prominent Players
- Seven all- conference, one all- region performer, and one NFL free agent signee

Former Arkansas Tech coach Jeff Byrd will serve as the third UT Martin defensive coordinator in three years.

Byrd coached linebackers and served as the defensive coordinator since spring practice of 2009 at Arkansas Tech.

In his two seasons at Tech, Byrd's defenses have been ranked in the Top 25 nationally against the run each year as the 2010 team finished ninth in D-II against the run. They allowed just 86.4 yards per game and in 2009, Tech finished 21st nationally in rushing defense as they allowed 102.8 yards rushing per contest.

In addition, Byrd has coached seven all-conference, one all-regional performer and one NFL free agent signee.

Byrd went to Tech after spending four seasons (2005-08) at Southern Arkansas, as its defensive coordinator. While at SAU, Byrd coached 13 All-Gulf South Conference performers and helped the Muleriders defense finished the 2008 season ranked 18th nationally in rushing defense (96.8 yards/game).

Before his tenure at SAU, Byrd spent two seasons (2003-04) as the defensive coordinator at Northwest Mississippi Community College in Senatobia, Miss. In 2004, Byrd's defense at NW Mississippi allowed only 212 yards of offense per game and allowed 15.1 points per contest, while his 2003 defense ranked fourth nationally in NJCAA in rushing defense (71.6 yards/game), 14th in total defense (237.2 yards/game) and 27th in passing defense (165.6 yards/game).

In addition to his coaching stints at SAU and NW Mississippi, Byrd also spent three seasons (2000-02) as an offensive line coach at Mars Hill College in North Carolina, including serving as the school's co-offensive coordinator in 2002. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 2000 and before that served as the head coach, principal and athletic director at Bayou Academy in Cleveland, Miss., in 1999 and spent four seasons (1994-98) as a varsity football assistant coach at Washington High School in Greenville, Miss.

As a high school student-athlete at Southaven (Miss.) High School, Byrd was a three-year letterwinner in both baseball and football. After high school, Byrd lettered for three seasons as a center at Southern Miss and was a member of the Golden Eagles' 1988 Independence Bowl championship team.

He earned his bachelor's degree from Southern Miss in 1989 and earned his master's degree in education from Delta State University in 2005.

- TSSAA Regional Class AA Coach of the Year (12 times)

Former UT Martin football player and Hall of Fame member Randy Barnes begins his eighth year as the director of football operations. He worked in private business before joining UT Martin in 2005.

Barnes retired from coaching in 2002 after a 30-year high school career. He was the head football coach at Union City High School for the past 21 years, and he also served as the school's athletic director and assistant principal. He is the winningest coach in Union City history and was inducted into the Union City Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003.

As head football coach at Union City, he had a .767 winning percentage (191-58). He was ranked in the top 10 in Tennessee for winning percentage when he retired. Barnes coached 12 playoff teams, six bowl teams, and won eight regional championships. His teams were Class AA Runners-up in 1997 and 2000, and he was named coach of the year 12 times.

At Union City High School, Barnes coached Jonathan Robinson, who is the current director of college scouting for the New England Patriots, as well as Donnie Ethridge, who serves as a regional scout for the New York Giants.

In 1994, Barnes served as the president of the Tennessee Athletic Coaches Association and also received the TSSAA Distinguished Service Award. He served two times as a coach in the Tennessee-Kentucky All-Star Game.

In 1998, he received the prestigious TSSAA A.F. Bridges Male Coach of the Year Award. In 2008, he was inducted into the TSSAA Hall of Fame.

Barnes, from Ripley, played football at UT Martin for head coach Bob Carroll from 1969-72. Barnes was inducted into UT Martin's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004. During his career, he earned All-Mid South Conference and All-Gulf South Conference honors. He set a school record for the longest field goal with a 53-yarder against Nicholls State in 1972.

Sept. 1, 2011

Senior Stephen Shiver came up with a big catch to put The University of Tennessee at Martin football team in great position for a game-winning field goal at Burgess-Snow Field Thursday night against host Jacksonville State.

Junior Cody Sandlin had already made a career-long 45 yard field goal, a 43 yard field goal and a 25-yard field goal to help the Skyhawks dominate No. 9 Jacksonville State. Surely Sandlin could have made a 32-yarder to give the Skyhawks a season-opening win and an Ohio Valley Conference victory.

Unfortunately Sandlin never got the chance to kick the game winner because time expired and Jacksonville State claimed a 24-23 victory over UT Martin.

Jacksonville State claimed its only lead of the game with 38 seconds left on the clock. Senior Calvin Middleton capped off a nine-play drive that covered 50 yards with a four-yard touchdown, consuming almost four minutes of the quarter.

UT Martin showed its prowess on the opening drive of the game when junior running back Jason McNair rattled off a 60- yard run to set up junior Tevin Barksdale's four-yard touchdown run. Sandlin added the PAT and the Skyhawks led 7-0 with 12:40 to play in the first quarter.

Sandlin's 43-yard field goal gave the Skyhawks a 10-0 lead, and senior fullback Jarvis Perry tacked on a touchdown when he caught a 13-yard pass from junior quarterback Derek Carr.

The Skyhawks led 17-7 at the half. They ran 40 plays and piled up 285 yards of offense.

Both teams added a field goal each in the third quarter and the Skyhawks led 20-10 going into the fourth quarter.

UT Martin opened the fourth quarter with Sandlin's third field goal of the game, but Jacksonville State answered quickly when Georgia transfer Washuan Ealey caught a 43-yard touchdown pass from sophomore quarterback Coty Blanchard to cut UT Martin's lead to six points, 23-17.

Jacksonville State managed 233 yards of total offense in the second half to finish the game with 300 yards. The Skyhawks tallied 475 yards of offense.

Carr completed 23 of 36 passes for 325 yards and one touchdown. McNair finished the game with 170 all-purpose yards. He had 85 yards rushing and 85 yards of receiving.

Junior running back Jason McNair scored two touchdowns and rushed for 123 yards to lead The University of Tennessee at Martin to a convincing 63-0 victory over visiting Union (Ky.) College Thursday night at Hardy M. Graham Stadium.

With his stellar effort against the NAIA school, McNair is now the seventh person in UT Martin history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in his career.

Junior quarterback Derek Carr completed 17-of-28 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns. He also threw two interceptions.

The Skyhawks scored midway through the first quarter when Quentin Sims hauled in a 10-yard pass from Carr. Junior kicker Cory Sandlin added the PAT and the Skyhawks never looked back. The Skyhawks scored two touchdowns in the second quarter, four more in the third quarter and two more in the fourth quarter.

The Skyhawks piled up 570 yards of total offense as seven different players scored touchdowns. On the ground, the Skyhawks rushed 48 times for 324 yards. Three Skyhawk quarterbacks, Carr, Bill Hardegree and Jordan Stokes, saw action in the game. The trio combined to complete 19-of-30 passes for 246 yards.

Defensively the Skyhawks limited Union College to 151 yards of offense. Ben Johnson and Jett Howard led the Skyhawk defense with five tackles each. Defensive lineman Darrin Nalls led the Skyhawks with one sack and 3.5 TFL. The Skyhawks recorded three sacks and 11 TFLs. Defensive backs CJ Estelle and Josh Potts had interceptions.

The Skyhawks defense limited Union College to 69 yards of rushing. Union entered the game averaging more than 200 yards rushing.

Sept. 22, 2011

The University of Tennessee at Martin scored 28 first-quarter points en route to a convincing 48-26 victory over No. 24 Murray State Thursday night at Hardy M. Graham Stadium.

Junior running back Jason McNair rushed for 104 yards and three touchdowns, while junior Tevin Barksdale rushed for 118 yards and two touchdowns. The Skyhawks piled up 272 yards of rushing.

Junior quarterback Derek Car completed 20-of-33 passes without an interception for 255 yards and one touchdown. The Skyhawks, ranked second in the nation in total offense and fifth in scoring offense, had 572 total yards of offense against the Racers who have not given up more than 324 yards of offense in their previous three games.

In three games this season, two against ranked opponents (Jacksonville State and Murray State) the Skyhawks have rushed for 746 yards, an average of 248 yards a game.

McNair scored all three of his touchdowns in the first quarter. He scored on runs of 11, 12 and 11 yards. Barksdale scored on a 6-yard run in the first quarter and then on a 7-yard run in the third quarter.

The Skyhawks also took advantage of running backs DJ McNeil and AJ Williams. Fifty-three of the Skyhawks' 86 plays were on the ground.

The Skyhawks also stopped the potent Murray State offense led by national player of the week Casey Brockman who threw for 600 yards and seven touchdowns a week ago against Tennessee State.

The Skyhawks held Brockman to 240 yards of passing and one touchdown. The junior quarterback completed 27-of-38 passes, but he was sacked twice. Murray State's rushing attack also suffered because of the Skyhawk defense. The Racers gained 168 yards of rushing and one touchdown.

| Tennessee Tech | 34 |
| UT Martin | 31 |

Oct 1, 2011

Visiting Tennessee Tech scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to win a back-and-forth, see-saw Ohio Valley Conference football game Saturday night at Hardy M. Graham Stadium.

Trailing 24-20 as the fourth quarter opened, Tennessee Tech needed four plays, capped off by a Tre Lamb 1-yard touchdown run, to take a 27-24 lead with 13:13 to play in the game.

The Skyhawks answered with a nine-play drive that covered 70 yards in a little less than three minutes. Junior tailback Tevin Barksdale scored on a 2-yard run to give the Skyhawks a 31-27 advantage with 10:16 to play.

Despite a pass interference penalty, UT Martin stopped Tech on five plays and forced the Golden Eagles to punt.

The Skyhawks took control on their own 27 yard line with 8:24 to play, but the drive didn't pay off. The Skyhawks were penalized twice for 20 yards on the drive. The Skyhawks were penalized 13 times in the game for 142 yards.

UT Martin defensive lineman Darrin Nalls picked off his first career pass on Tech's next drive, but the Skyhawks failed to capitalize again. Instead of going forward, the Skyhawks lost 14 yards on the play and were once against called for a personal foul. Junior Derek Carr was forced to punt on fourth-and-24 from midfield.

Lamb engineered a six-play drive that covered 78 yards in two minutes. He capped the drive off with a 14-yard touchdown pass to Zack Ziegler with 1:25 left in the game. Zach Sharp added the point after to give the visiting Golden Eagles a 34-31 come-from-behind victory over the Skyhawks.

With the loss the Skyhawks fall to 2-2 on the season and 1-2 in the OVC race. Tech improves to 4-1 on the year and is now 3-0 in the league.

Barksdale led the Skyhawks with 16 carries for 87 yards and two touchdowns, while senior wide receiver Stephen Shiver had five catches for 95 yards and a touchdown.

Sophomore Kevin Barfield returned a first quarter kickoff 99 yards to give the Skyhawks an early 7-3 lead. Barfield had 196 all-purpose yards in the game.

Oct. 8, 2011

Junior quarterback Derek Carr completed 24-of-36 passes for 387 yards and a school record six touchdown passes to lead The University of Tennessee at Martin to a 61-23 college football victory over visiting Austin Peay Saturday afternoon at Hardy M. Graham Stadium.

Jake Ryan threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Scott Thomas with 5:42 remaining in the first half and Austin Peay claimed a 14-13 lead.

And then the Skyhawks took charge. Carr threw his first touchdown pass of the game, a 51-yarder to senior Kenny Jones and junior kicker Cody Sandlin made it a one-point game, 14-13, with 3:22 to play in the half. Sandlin scored 13 points by kicking in the game and now has 113 career points.

Sophomore Ben Johnson intercepted Ryan to set up the go-ahead touchdown for the Skyhawks, a 13-yard pass to senior Stephen Shiver. A fumble by Austin Peay's Kamron Johnson led to Carr's third touchdown pass of the game, a 16-yard pass to Shiver.

The Skyhawks led 34-14 at the half.

Junior tight end Ben Everett missed the game because of an injury, but Carr had a plethora of receivers. Jones led all receivers with seven catches for 127 yards. Quentin Sims had five catches for 66 yards. Carr passed for 245 yards in the first half. He completed 15-of-23 passes without an interception.

The Skyhawks only rushed for 80 yards in the first half and 165 yards in the game. Junior running back Tevin Barksdale scored the Skyhawks only rushing touchdown of the game in the first quarter, a 28-yard run with 12:22 on the clock. Junior tailback Jason McNair led the Skyhawks ground game with 15 carries for 54 yards. AJ Williams had 16 carries for 46 yards and Barksdale had five carries for 33 yards.

The Skyhawks outscored Austin Peay 20-9 in the third quarter. Carr threw two more touchdown passes in the quarter and senior punt return specialist CJ Estelle returned a punt 76 yards for a touchdown.

The Skyhawks closed out their scoring with 12:43 to go in the game when Carr threw a 19 yard pass to sophomore DJ McNeil.

| UT Martin | 30 |
| South Alabama | 33 |

Oct. 15, 2011

The University of Tennessee at Martin scored 17 unanswered points in the fourth quarter but came up short as South Alabama posted a 33-30 victory over the Skyhawks this afternoon at Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

Junior Quentin Sims caught three touchdown passes and had six receptions for 78 yards, while senior wide receiver Stephen Shiver had seven catches for 96 yards.

The Skyhawks opened the fourth quarter barrage with a 38-yard field goal by junior Cody Sandlin. The field goal capped off a five -play drive that covered 40 yards in 1:10.

The Skyhawk offense scored on its next possession, but rather than run the ball, junior quarterback Derek Carr engineered an air attack. Carr completed five passes, three to Shiver, and landed the drive on the South Alabama 10 yard line with four downs to score. Sophomore running back DJ McNiel tried to punch the ball in, but Carr found Sims open in the corner of the end zone with a 2-yard touchdown pass. With the score, the Skyhawks trailed 33-23 with 3:54 to play.

The Skyhawk defense held South Alabama to three downs and took charge again on their own 26 yard line with 2:07 to play. Once again Carr went to the air. This time McNeil found paydirt on second-and-goal. Sandlin added the PAT, and with 22 seconds the Skyhawks only trailed 33-30.

The Skyhawks tried the onside kick, but South Alabama came up with the ball and preserved their homecoming victory.

South Alabama took advantage of two UT Martin turnovers, a Carr interception and a Tevin Barksdale fumble, in the third quarter and cruised to a 33-13 lead. Despite the two turnovers, the Skyhawks managed to march 80 yards on nine plays to score a touchdown with 6:02 on the clock. Carr completed a 10-yard pass to Quentin Sims for the score.

The Jaguars used a nine-play drive that covered 80 yards to take a 13-7 lead. Demetre Baker scored on a 7-yard run. South Alabama closed out the first half with a 21-yard field goal.

The Skyhawks took a 7-6 lead in the game when Shiver threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to a wide-open Sims. Sandlin added the PAT. The touchdown was Shiver's first career completion.

| UT Martin | 24 |
| Eastern Illinois | 23 |

Oct. 22, 2011

The University of Tennessee at Martin relied on big plays and a key defensive stand to salvage a 24-23 victory over host Eastern Illinois.

The UT Martin defense stopped Eastern Illinois quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo on fourth-and-two when junior Jarvis McCann forced the sophomore quarterback to fumble the ball. Junior Darrin Nalls recovered the loose ball and the Skyhawks were able to run out the final 1:42 of the game. Garoppolo completed 27-of-36 passes for 294 yards and three touchdowns.

UT Martin junior Montori Hughes led the Skyhawk defense with 10 tackles, one sack, 5.5 tackles for loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

UT Martin only ran 13 plays for 35 total yards in the first quarter before erupting for 137 yards and 10 points in the second quarter. Skyhawk junior Cody Sandlin's 29-yard field goal with 12:31 to play capped an 11-play drive that covered 48 yards put the Skyhawks on the scoreboard. However, EIU led 7-3.

The Skyhawks then capitalized on an Eastern Illinois turnover. Hughes recovered an EIU fumble and the Skyhawks went 62 yards in six plays. Derek Carr capped off the drive with a 24-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Quentin Sims with 2:36 to play in the first half.

Eastern Illinois opened the third quarter with a nine-play scoring drive highlighted by quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo's 14-yard touchdown pass to Von Wise.

The Skyhawks used another big play to answer the EIU score. Sophomore Bobby Ellis blocked Scott Weatherford's punt and the Skyhawks scored four plays later when junior tailback Tevin Barksdale found paydirt on a 1-yard run. Sandlin added the PAT and the Skyhawks led 17-13.

The Panthers answered the Skyhawks quickly. Garoppolo connected with Sam Hendricks for a 12-yard touchdown pass, and the Panthers led 20-17 with 13:22 to play in the game.

The Skyhawks took advantage of sophomore Corey Jordan's 50-yard kickoff return to respond to the Panthers this time. Sims hauled in a 12-yard pass from Carr. Sandlin added the PAT and the Skyhawks led 24-20 with 11:02 to play.

The Skyhawks managed to hold the Panthers to a field goal on their ensuing possession. Garoppolo threw three incomplete passes inside the Skyhawks' 38 yard line. Cameron Berra's 24-yard field goal cut the Skyhawks lead to one, 24-23, with 7:56 to play.

| UT Martin | 38 |

Oct. 29, 2011

The University of Tennessee at Martin scored 28 first-half points and held on to beat Southeast Missouri State, 38-30, Saturday afternoon at Hardy M. Graham Stadium.

Junior running back Tevin Barksdale rushed for 135 yards and one touchdown. Barksdale scored on a 64-yard run with 10:45 to play in the first quarter.

Sophomore DJ McNeil also scored on a one-yard run to cap off a nine-play, 51-yard drive, and the Skyhawks led 14-0 with 6:01 to play in the first quarter.

The Skyhawks rushed for 138 yards on 21 carries in the first half and finished the game with 207 yards. The Skyhawks stacked up 366 total yards of offense.

The Skyhawks scored two touchdowns in the second quarter. Junior quarterback Derek Carr threw an 8-yard touchdown pass to Quentin Sims and a 16-yard TD strike to Kenny Jones.

Carr completed 16-of-24 passes with an interception for 159 yards.

Southeast Missouri answered this time with a 50-yard field goal and a 2-yard pass from quarterback Matt Scheible to Art Mueller to cut the lead to 28-9 at the half.

Scheible and Southeast Missouri staged a second half comeback that started on the Skyhawks' first possession of the second half when Bryan Blanfort intercepted Carr.

SE Missouri State marched 71 yards in 14 plays and ate almost 10 minutes of the third quarter. The drive was capped off by Ron Coleman's 5-yard touchdown run.

UT Martin countered with 10 points in the fourth quarter. McNeil scored his second touchdown of the game on a 2-yard run with 14:04 to play in the game. And the Skyhawks led 35-16.

However, SE Missouri State relied on Scheible who threw two more touchdown passes in the quarter. Scheible completed 15-of-32 passes without an interception for 200 yards.

SE Missouri piled up 392 yards of offense.

Despite the stellar offensive play of Scheible, UT Martin was able to seal the win when junior Cody Sandlin kicked a 29-yard field goal with 5:31 to play in the game.

Scheible's final touchdown pass, an 11-yard completion to Spencer Davis, cut the Skyhawks lead to 38-30, with 3:57 to play.

| Mississippi State | 55 |

Nov. 5, 2011

Mississippi State took advantage of Skyhawk miscues and made big plays en route to a 55-17 homecoming victory at Davis-Wade Stadium.

Senior Kenny Jones was one of those players who was able to execute. The H-back scored two touchdowns in the game. He scored one in the fourth quarter when he caught an 8-yard pass from quarterback Derek Carr with 4:16 left in the game. Jones' first touchdown came in the third quarter on a 2-yard run to cap off a 13-play 71-yard drive. Junior kicker Cody Sandlin added the PAT. Sandlin also kicked a 31 yard field goal to end the first half.

The Skyhawks managed to rush for 269 total yards and piled up 454 yards against the No. 15 defense in the nation.

Mississippi State had 570 yards of offense, 288 rushing and 282 passing. Vick Ballard rushed for two touchdowns and 102 yards on 11 carries. Arceto Clark had five catches for 96 yards and two touchdowns.

UT Martin walk-on linebacker Ben Johnson led the Skyhawk defense with 13 tackles and an interception.

Skyhawks kept things close in the second quarter, only giving up one touchdown while closing out the half with a 31-yard field goal by Sandlin. The Skyhawks managed to gain 91 yards of offense, most of it coming from Carr who completed 5-of-7 passes for 53 yards.

The Bulldogs scored their lone touchdown of the quarter when Relf completed a 27-yard pass to Clark.

UT Martin gained 142 yards of offense on 23 plays and attempted a 33-yard field goal after marching 70 yards on its first possession of the game.

MSU's Vick Ballard scored the first Bulldog touchdown on a 5-yard run. The Bulldogs took advantage of the replay camera and appealed a call. Officials determined that the ball was caught, and the Bulldogs picked up a key first down in Skyhawk territory. Instead of a fourth-and-ten, the Bulldogs came away with a first-and-ten at the Skyhawks 44 yard line.

Johnthan Banks returned a Skyhawk punt 65 yards to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 advantage and then Chad Bumphis scored on a 78-yard pass from Tyler Russell to close out the quarter with a 21-0 lead.

Junior quarterback Derek Carr threw four touchdown passes, including two in the fourth quarter, and passed for 329 yards Saturday night against host Tennessee State at LP Field, but it wasn't enough to overcome the Tigers on homecoming. Tennessee State claimed a 35-30 victory.

Carr completed 25-of-43 passes without an interception for 329 yards. However after a successful on side kick with 2:55 to play in the game, Carr completed his first two passes of the potential game-winning drive, but came up empty on his next three passes.

Tennessee State was able to run the clock out and claim the victory.

With the four touchdown passes Carr needs just two more touchdown passes this season to pass Cade Thompson for the most TD passes thrown in one season (24).

Carr started early in the game by throwing two touchdown passes in the first quarter. He completed 6-of-10 passes for 94 yards in the quarter and the Skyhawks scored 17 unanswered points. Carr had racked up 198 yards of passing in the first half, while the Skyhawk running game struggled.

The Skyhawks managed just 44 yards of rushing on 16 carries in the first half. The Skyhawks finished the game with 108 yards of rushing on 26 attempts.

Tennessee State scored two unanswered touchdowns in the second quarter and then opened the second half by scoring on its first two drives to take a 28-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

The Skyhawks opened the fourth quarter with a five-play drive that covered 59 yards in 2:02. Carr completed a 26-yard pass to senior Kenny Jones to cut the TSU lead to four points, 28-24.

TSU put the game out of reach, 35-24, when Trabis Ward scored on a 2-yard run with 4:43 to play. Ward finished the game with two touchdowns and 180 yards of rushing on 28 attempts.

Carr cut the lead to five points when he threw an 11 yard TD to sophomore Corey Jordan. The two-point conversion failed and the Skyhawks trailed 35-30.

Sophomore James Satterfield's onside kick work to perfection but the Skyhawks could get a first down to extend the drive.

Nov. 19, 2011

Eastern Kentucky took advantage of two turnovers in the final 1:30 of the game to claim a 23-16 victory over The University of Tennessee at Martin.

The Skyhawks finish the season with a 5-6 overall record and a 4-4 Ohio Valley Conference worksheet.

The Skyhawks managed to tie the game at 16-all after trailing 13-0 with 13:40 to play in the second quarter, but Eastern Kentucky scored the go ahead touchdown with 1:08 to play when Matt Denham scored on a 7-yard run. Luke Pray added the PAT.

EKU's Anthony Brown forced UT Martin running back Tevin Barksdale to fumble and Emory Attig recovered the loose ball at the UT Martin 23 yard line.

Denham picked up 16 yards on the first down play and scored the game-winning TD on his next attempt.

On the ensuing possession, UT Martin quarterback Derek Carr was sacked by Brown and fumbled the ball. Attig recovered the fumble and the host Colonels ran the clock out and guaranteed themselves at least a share of the OVC championship.

The Skyhawks tied the score at 16-all when junior quarterback Derek Carr threw a 44-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Quentin Sims. Cody Sandlin's PAT was no good.

Carr was 13-of-31 with two interceptions in the game for 169 yards. He also threw a 62-yard touchdown pass to Stephen Shiver. Sandlin tied a school record in the second quarter with a 53 yard field goal.

The Skyhawks fumbled three times in the game and lost two of the three.

On defense, the Skyhawks blocked two EKU field goals. Senior Josh Cody blocked Pray's third quarter 35-yard attempt to set up Shiver's touchdown and Julius McNair blocked Pray's 37-yard attempt with 7:35 to play in the game.

Sophomore Ben Johnson led the Skyhawks with 15 tackles and 2.5 TFL.

Pacers

Nine From '88 Land in the Pros

In 1988, UT Martin had four players enter into the ranks of the National Football League draft, believed to be a first for any program below the NCAA Division I level to have that many players selected into a single draft. In addition, three players signed contracts to play in the Canadian Football League, and two others signed NFL free agent contracts.

As an NCAA Division II school, the former Pacers were allotted a total of 40 scholarships. UT Martin posted an 11-2 overall record and was tri-champions of the Gulf South Conference along with advancing to the Division II quarterfinals in 1988.

The Pacer draftees included running back John Burch with the Phoenix Cardinals in the eighth round, wide receiver William Mackall with the Indianapolis Colts in the ninth, defensive tackle Emanuel McNeil to the New England Patriots in the 10th,and defensive end Jerome Rinehart to the New York Giants as a linebacker in the 11th.

The two players to sign free agent contracts were defensive end Sam Dudley and wide receiver Andre Langley. Dudley inked with the Seattle Seahawks. Langley had a year of eligibility remaining, but as a fifth-year senior opted to enter the pro ranks, signing with the Cardinals.

The CFL-bound players included quarterback Leon Reed and receivers Mark Guy and Ernest Jackson. Reed and Jackson signed with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Guy with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders.

NFL CONNECTION: JERRY REESE

Jerry Reese will roll up his sleeves and dirty his hands as an NFL general manager, do not worry about that. He was about 10 when he started working in his great grandfather's slaughterhouse in a backwoods corner of western Tennessee, shooting hogs through the eyes, cutting their necks, skinning them, making them bleed.

The kid had to help his family pay some bills. He gutted pigs, goats, cows, just about anything that once moved. When that work dried up, Jerry chopped cotton and cut the cemetery grass.

So no, this is one 40-something executive not afraid of building, or gutting, the football Giants. Jerry was raised on the banks of the Mississippi, one of nine family members getting by in a two-bedroom house, a home that in the early years didn't offer the luxury of an indoor toilet.

This was hard country living in Tiptonville, a town of 2,500 residents wedged between the Mississippi and Reelfoot Lake. The river could get angry, and almost every April the levee would break and the waters would flood the Reese home. Jerry was one of the resourceful ones at high tide. He'd end up in a boat to do his fishing on a nearby road.

So yes, he'll think outside of Tom Coughlin's box. No great grandson of a sharecropper grows up to be general manager of the Giants without summoning the adventurous spirit of ol' Huck Finn.

In the wake of the Martin Luther King holiday, the Giants will introduce Jerry Reese as the first black general manager of either pro football team in the market. It will stand among the more profound social statements in NFL history.

For the first time, the league will prove that a black man can rise to the top of a flagship franchise without having been a professional athlete.

Reese understands the significance of the moment. He was just talking about it with his sister, Jackie, a high school teacher charged to straighten out suspended students.

"Jerry can have such an impact on African-American boys," Jackie said, "and he's aware of that. He came from a nowhere place on the map, and now he's ready to take on the world."

His mother, Ozella, had a thing or two to do with all that. She worked in a garment factory to feed her two boys and five girls; her eighth child died young in a car wreck.

After the factory closed, Ozella became a prison guard at the state pen. The children followed the lead of their mother and stepfather, Clarence Garland, a state parks employee who treated them as his own. "They all grew up working," Ozella said.

They grew up accepting the importance of education -- all seven attended college. Some 120 miles north of Memphis, Tiptonville is the seat of Lake County, among the three poorest counties in the state. The community survives on the prison, the county's largest employer, and on the Reelfoot tourists who come to see its bald eagles.

The community survives on the hopes of its people. Tiptonville was home to Clifton B. Cates, 19th commandant of the Marine Corps and hero of World Wars I and II. It is now home to Jerry Reese, a 5-foot-9 small-college safety about to become the biggest Giant of all.

"A natural born leader," said Cliff Sturdivant, Reese's coach at Lake County High. Jerry was a quarterback at Lake County, the first to lead the Falcons to a state title. The one time his 14-0 senior season was threatened, Reese ran back the second-half kickoff for a touchdown against archrival Halls High.

"I coached for 20 years," Sturdivant said, "and he's got the biggest heart of any player I've ever seen."

Mike Hutchens felt the full force of that heartbeat. Long before he covered Reese's career at the University of Tennessee-Martin as a reporter for The Messenger of Union City, Hutchens intercepted one of Jerry's passes in a state playoff game. On the return, Hutchens was too busy looking for daylight, reaching for glory, to notice the toy freight train bearing down on him.

Reese delivered payback in a teeth-rattling, snot-busting way. "I'd never, ever been hit like that," Hutchens said. "And Jerry just got up and grinned at me."

A field general, Hutchens called the high school quarterback. A fearless competitor, Hutchens called the UT Martin safety. Even without exceptional speed, Reese made a lasting impression as a college player. He intercepted enough passes and pancaked enough receivers to win induction into the UT Martin Hall of Fame.

"Jerry couldn't have been more than 150 pounds when he got here," said Bill Kaler, the assistant AD who did two tours of Vietnam as an Army colonel, "and I saw him hit a kid so hard in a spring game I thought he killed him. Pound for pound, Jerry's the toughest guy I've ever met."

As a graduate assistant, Reese slept on the couch belonging to Jeremiah Davis, the UT Martin aide who would become a Giants scout.

"Jerry wasn't the low man on the totem pole," said Vickie Reynolds, the office secretary and Reese friend. "He was beneath the totem pole. But he turned out to be an unbelievable worker."

Reese broke down film, recruited junior college players from more depressed areas than his own and moved up the coaching staff ladder. In 1994, Davis helped him get a scouting job with the Giants. Reese immediately stood out. He knew talent, and knew how to articulate his knowledge of talent.

Ernie Accorsi realized he had to get this scout off the road, get him in a jacket and tie. Reese was terrified of New Jersey real estate prices, but Accorsi convinced him to make the move.

The GM jumped Reese over veteran scouts to make him Dave Gettleman's assistant in pro personnel, and then jumped him over more experienced candidates to name him director of player personnel.

Accorsi loved his charisma, his confidence, his ability to lead. Reese walked into a draft room full of grizzled scouts looking sideways at the wonder boy, and he needed 10 minutes to take command of that room without alienating a soul.Reese passionately fought for Osi Umenyiora, another small college player from the South, when many observers thought that pick was a second-round reach.

"Everything my son has touched since high school," Ozella said, "has turned to gold."

Now all of Tiptonville believes Reese to be the best leader to come out of UT Martin since Pat Summitt. Evan Jones, editor of The Lake County Banner, a weekly paper that goes to bed Tuesday night, said he was hoping Reese would be named before deadline. "It's our lead story on the front page," Jones said.

The story is of a farmboy who would make $25 in the slaughterhouse and the cotton field, and give $20 to his mother. The story is of a high school and college graduate who worked to pay his great-grandmother's bills.

"It sounds like we're pushing Jerry for president," said Danelle Fabianich, a UT Martin assistant AD. "We just want people to know Jerry is a good southern gentleman."

Jerry Reese used to send back Giants hats and shirts to his friends and neighbors on the Mississippi. As general manager of a flagship NFL franchise, he'll send back something worth a little more. Hope.

Former UT Martin Assistant

Named Head Coach of Pittsburgh Steelers

Former UT Martin assistant coach, Mike Tomlin, joined the Pittsburgh Steelers as the 16th head coach in team history January 21, 2007. Tomlin replaced the legendary Bill Cower as Steelers and became the second youngest head coach in the NFL. Tomlin was a part of the UT Martin staff during the 1997 season, under the direction of Skyhawk head coach Jim Marshall.

ORLANDO, Fla. - Making its first-ever bowl game appearance in school history, UT Martin easily rolled past West Chester State (Pa.) 25-8 in the1967 Tangerine Bowl, the Atlantic Coast College Division Championship.

A strong defensive effort led by 6-6 defensive end Gordon Lambert produced two safeties and limited the Rams to just 17 yards rushing. West Chester, billed as the top small college team in the East, was the winner of the Lambert Cup. West Chester had averaged 40 points a game in the regular season.

Errol Hook, a 155-pound quarterback, made his first start of the season. He set up the first TD and ran four yards for the finale. He was the game's leading rusher with 73 yards.

Played mostly in the rain, UT Martin had 314 yards total offense.
UT Martin led 18-8 at the half. The only West Chester score came from a long punt return.

November 14, 1988

MARTIN- UT Martin was successful in its fi rst-ever NCAA Division II Playoff appearance, defeating visiting Butler University of Indianapolis,Ind., in a rain-soaked contest.

A crowd of almost 5,000 braved the incliment weather to cheer the Pacers in the historic contest. A steady rain fell throughout the game on the Pacer Stadium turf, which had been soaked by more than five inches of rain.

The Pacer defense limited the nation's Division II leading rusher and scorer Steve Roberts to 70 yards on 25 attempts. The front four, led by Emanuel McNeil, Jerome Rinehart and Sam Dudley, kept constant pressure on the Bulldogs.

The Pacer's run 'n' shoot offense was slowed by the weather. After a scoreless first quarter, UT Martin posted a strong second frame. Leon Reed fired a 34-yard strike to Andre Langley and Ki Tok Chu added field goals of 44 and 49 yards. UT Martin kept control in the second half. The only Butler points came following a fumble by reserve quarterback Mitch Lowery at his own 23.

CARBONDALE, IL. --- No. 12 UT Martin was 57 seconds from advancing to the second round of the Football Championship when Southern Illinois rallied for a 36-30 victory over the visiting Skyhawks.

UT Martin finished the season with a 9-3 slate, a share of the Ohio Valley Conference championship and its first-ever appearance in the Division I Football Championship.

The Skyhawks built an early lead by taking advantage of freshman quarterback Greg Preston's arm. Preston set up one touchdown with a 51-yard strike and then hooked up with Justin Glover for a touchdown. The Skyhawks led 21-7 at the half.

SIU's Arkee Whitlock took over in the third quarter rushing for 112 yards and two touchdowns. He added another touchdown in the fourth quarter giving the Salukis a 28-27 lead. Whitlock ended the game with 207 rushing yards and four touchdowns against the Skyhawks.

The Skyhawks took a 30-28 lead with four minutes left in the game when Taylor Brown hit a 34-yard field goal. However, Salukis quarterback Nick Hill answered when he hit Alan Turner for a 45-yard touchdown in the final minute of the game. SIU added a two-point conversion and claimed the victory

Ohio Valley Conference History

Now in its 65th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which begins competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gives the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. She is currently one of just five females to be the head of a Division I conference, and one of just eight to lead a Division I conference all-time. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958, Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961, Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

Through the past 64 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 21 outright or shared football crowns (including sharing the title in 2011), which is tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision history (with Massachusetts). Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with 10, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed five football crowns and Jacksonville State has three, while Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri (which captured its first crown in 2010), UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKU was coached by former All-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skippered the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKU; upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKU's 20 FCS playoff appearances are the second for the most all-time (behind only Montana).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles "Bubber" Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Following the 2011 season Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo retired following 25 years at the school (the last 16 as members of the OVC). In his time as an OVC coach he compiled 92 total victories (fifth-most in league history) and 68 OVC wins (fourth-most in league history) and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2012.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. The OVC has had at least one former player named a NFL Pro Bowl selection in four of the past six seasons.

The 2007 season marked a return to scholarship football and the OVC for the Austin Peay Governors. Following the 1996 season the Governors dropped scholarship football and competed as both an independent (1997-00, 2006) and as a member of the Pioneer Football League (2001-05).

The 2007 season also brought new vernacular to the Ohio Valley Conference and the division formerly known as I-AA. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game the term I-AA was changed to NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a decision by the Division I Board of Directors. The new label was chosen to communicate in a positive and clear manner the unique differences between Division I football categories (chiefly, the post-season opportunity) while still defining them within the Division I experience. The FCS includes programs that compete in an effort to participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 89 NCAA national championships) as opposed to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) which competes in an effort to participate in the postseason bowl system (the 35 NCAA-licensed events which includes the Bowl Championship Series).

In 2010 Southeast Missouri State, picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, compiled a 7-1 Conference record on the way to its first OVC Championship since joining the league in 1991. Overall the Redhawks were 9-2 during the regular season and earned a berth in the FCS Playoffs, its first playoff berth at any level in the program's 104-year history. Southeast would lose to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the playoffs. Head coach Tony Samuel capped the year by winning the Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. Samuel was the second OVC coach to win the award (joining Murray State's Houston Nutt who won the award in 1995).

For only the second time in league history in 2011, three teams shared the OVC football championship, as Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech finished with 6-2 records. The only other time in league history more than two champions were crowned at the end of the year was 1962 (when four teams shared the crown).

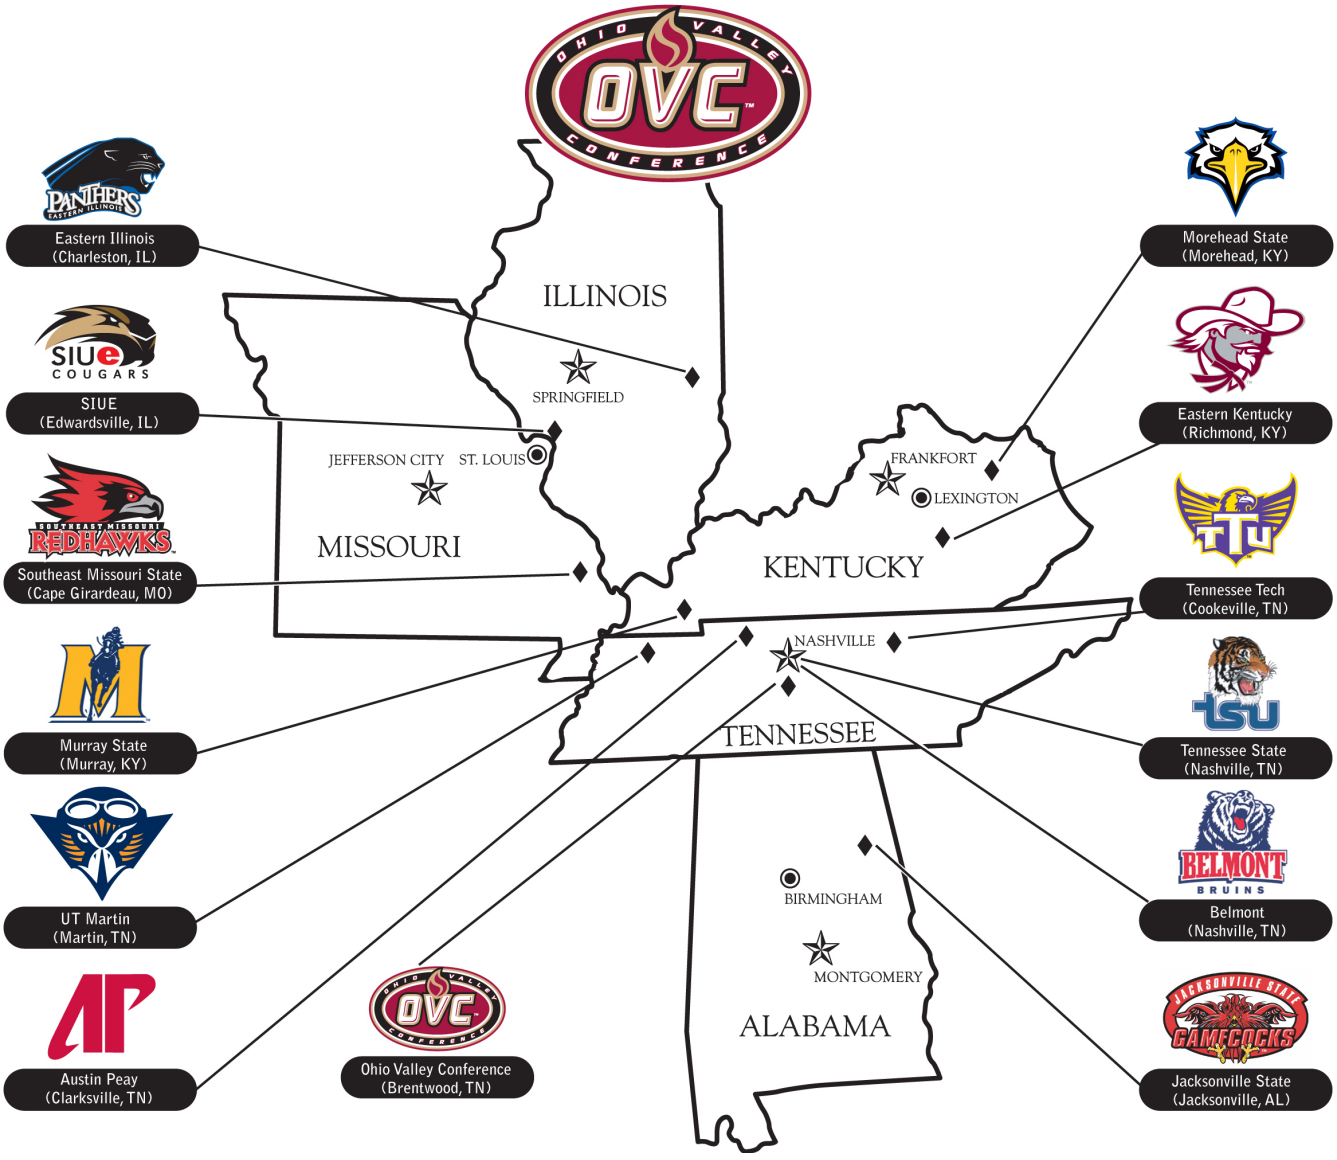

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

SKYHAWK ATHLETICS

Above: Lester Hudson became the first Skyhawk in history to be selected in the NBA Draft when he was drafted by the Boston Celtics in 2009. A two-time Ohio Valley Conference Male Athlete of the Year, he led the UT Martin men's basketball team to its first-ever OVC regular season championship in 2008-09. The only player in NCAA Division-I history to accumulate a quadruple-double, he has suited up for the NBA's Boston Celtics (2009-10), Memphis Grizzlies (2009-10, 2011-12), Washington Wizards (2010-11) and Cleveland Cavaliers (2011-12) since graduating from UT Martin.

Above: In 2011, Skyhawk junior Kasey Elswick amassed 852 digs, a single-season NCAA Division-I record. For her efforts, she was named the 2011 OVC Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season.

Below: The 2012 UT Martin softball team swept both the OVC regular season and tournament championships, capping off the program's fourth title since 2009. In the NCAA Tournament, UT Martin went toe-to-toe with eventual national champion Alabama. The Skyhawks were paced by the league's Player of the Year (Leah Taylor), Pitcher of the Year (Chelsea Jones) and Coach of the Year (Donley Canary).

Right: The Skyhawk women's basketball team clinched their second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, while also capturing the OVC's regular-season title with a 15-1 league record. Paced by the top scoring offensive attack in the nation (80.1 points per game), the Skyhawks tallied a school-record 23 victories before falling to UT Martin alum Pat Head Summitt and the Tennessee Lady Vols in the NCAA Tournament.

OVC Academic Awards

The winners are selected from a group of nominees by OVC Faculty Athletics Representatives. To be eligible, honorees must have at least a 3.25 GPA and conduct themselves in a manner which has brought credit to the student-athlete, his or her institution, intercollegiate athletics and the Ohio Valley Conference.

Commissioner's Honor Roll

The OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll is presented annually to student-athletes who have at least a 3.25 GPA and who have been eligible and on the team throughout the competitive season in their chosen NCAA-sponsored sport or sports. Since joining the OVC in 1992, a total of 1,320 UT Martin student-athletes have been named to the prestigious list.
