SKYHAWK FIELD

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's soccer program has called Skyhawk Field its home since 1998. It is a 120x75 Bermuda pitch with a press box and permanent seating for over 500 fans along the west sideline. Fans also circle the field with trucks, lawn chairs and couches to create a festive atmosphere that is intimidating to opponents.

On Nov. 4, 2012, UT Martin provided a bit of history against Austin Peay in the OVC Tournament Championship. In that match, the raucous crowd of 773 fans cheered on the Skyhawks to a thrilling 2-0 victory - passing the program's all-time record for single-game attendance. In fact, five of the Skyhawks nine home games ranked amongst the top crowds in Skyhawk Field history.

Prior to the 2012 season, Skyhawk Field saw the addition of field lights making conditions appropriate for night matches. The first match played under the lights was on Aug. 17, 2012, against Southeastern Conference power Vanderbilt. Although the Skyhawks dropped the match 2-0, the night marked the first of three night games for the Skyhawks in 2012 in addition to hosting the 2012 Ohio Valley Conference Tournament. In the summer of 2010, Skyhawk Field received a massive facelift. New colorful wind screens were also added to give the field a professional exterior look, and new brick barriers were also built around both benches. Another new feature added are a pair of large tents that have been placed over the two adjacent sets of bleachers that sandwich the main bleachers. This provides a comfortable, shady climate for fans of all ages to enjoy.

The first match played at Skyhawk Field, was on Sept. 4, 1998, against Ohio Valley Conference foe Tennessee Tech. Although the Skyhawks dropped a tough 1-0 decision in that match, they came roaring back for the first home win in program history on their next try - a 2-1 win over OVC opponent Morehead State on Sept. 12, 1998.

Over the years, the Skyhawks have put together a 71-50-6 record while playing in front of the home crowd. However, UT Martin has enjoyed a tremendous home-field advantage over the last several seasons. Since 2002, the Skyhawks are 66-23-7 in matches played at Skyhawk Field, having lost only nine matches on their home turf in the last six seasons. In that dominant decade, UT Martin has posted a winning home record in all but one season, while only losing five times in its last 26 conference matches.

In 2009, the Skyhawks matched the best home start to any season by beginning the year 6-0-0, and ended the season with the highest single-season home winning percentage (.857) in program history. The 2010 squad followed that with a five-match home winning streak, which included shutouts in all five matches and conference wins over Austin Peay, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech.

Skyhawk Field has also been home to the PUMA Skyhawk Invitational from 2002-2007 and 2009, as well as the first round of the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament in 1999, 2003, 2008 and hosted the 2012 Tournament in its' entirety.

HEAD COACH PHIL MCNAMARA

The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer program has grown into one of the top programs in Ohio Valley Conference history behind the work of head coach Phil McNamara, who enters his fifth season at the helm after being named UT Martin's fourth head coach on March 23, 2010.

McNamara has continued to build an impressive resume throughout his time at UT Martin as he led the Skyhawks to a piece of conference history in 2013. The Skyhawks picked up their fourth consecutive OVC title, including two regular season and tournament championships, after rattling off an 8-2 record in conference play to win their second consecutive season crown. The Skyhawks became the first team in conference history to pull off such a streak.

The Skyhawks saw five players take home six OVC awards, highlighted by three All-OVC first team selections for Mariah Klenke, Aoife Lennon and Hannah Fessenden while Alyssa Curtis earned second team honors. Lennon was joined by classmate Ellie Myrick as All-Newcomer selections. Three players took home All-Tournament honors as Lennon and Fessenden both joined Lucy Pater. As a whole, six Skyhawks took home either All-OVC or All-OVC Tournament accolades in 2013.

One year after McNamara took the Skyhawks to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history, he posted arguably the best season in school history in 2012. UT Martin captured its first outright Ohio Valley Conference regular season championship on its way to a new program record for single-season winning percentage (.659, 13-6-3). In the NCAA Tournament, the Skyhawks pushed Southeastern Conference power Kentucky to the limit before a narrow 1-0 loss in overtime.

For his efforts, McNamara garnered 2012 OVC Coach of the Year honors. He also presided over five players who were All-OVC performers, including Saphyra Coombs-James - the program's first-ever OVC Freshman of the Year. All in all, eight of McNamara's players earned All-OVC or All-OVC Tournament accolades in 2012.

McNamara's second season at UT Martin was a banner year, as the Skyhawks captured their first-ever OVC Tournament championship in 2011. UT Martin won a program-record six straight games from Oct. 21 through Nov. 6 on its way to a school record for victories (14) before falling to then-undefeated Memphis in its first NCAA Tournament match in school history. The Skyhawks boasted four players on the All-OVC team, including Melissa Govea (the league's Defensive Player of the Year) and Brooke Robertson (the fourth player in program history to achieve All-OVC first team status in two different seasons).

In his debut season as Skyhawk skipper, McNamara guided UT Martin to an 8-8-2 record and 3-4-1 OVC slate. The Skyhawks began to click midway through the schedule, winning seven of nine games during one stretch. UT Martin also continued its home dominance under McNamara, putting together a five-match win streak and going unbeaten for a 58-day span, falling only in the home opener and finale in 2010. The stingy Skyhawk defense also excelled under McNamara, as the team tied an all-time single-season record with eight shutouts.

McNamara came to UT Martin from Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tenn., where he led the Eagles to the NCAA Division II championship tournament in each of his last seven years. His teams advanced to the NCAA Final Four in back-to-back years in 2004-05 and won five regular season league titles and four South Atlantic Conference tournaments. During his eight-year tenure at Carson-Newman, he picked up the South Atlantic Conference Coach of the Year honor four times.

At Carson-Newman, McNamara's teams were consistently ranked, as his players garnered several top honors throughout his tenure. All in all, he coached 43 all-conference players, 22 all-region players, four All-SAC Tournament members, four All-SAC tournament MVP's, four All-Americans (including the first in Carson Newman history), four All-NCAA Tournament team players, three SAC Players of the Year and two SAC Freshmen of the Year. In addition to coaching the program's first-ever national All-American, he also guided the Eagles to the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance and NCAA Tournament victories. Four players also earned national or regional academic All-American awards under his watch.

McNamara's 2009 Carson-Newman team was the best in school history, as they set a single-season record for most wins (20). They finished ranked seventh in the nation after winning their third NCAA Southeast Regional title under his guidance.

McNamara won 11 games or more every year for the past eight years at Carson-Newman, a tremendous feat considering the Eagles had never won more than 11 games in any one season in its first 11 years of playing soccer prior to McNamara's hiring.

Before Carson-Newman, McNamara served two seasons at Virginia Interment in Bristol, Va.. He posted a 17-12 record and he led the team to both conference and regional championships. He was named conference and regional coach of the year. He spent the 2001 season as head coach of both the men's and women's programs. The men were ranked 18th in the nation.

McNamara also served as an assistant coach for both the men's and women's programs at his alma mater, King College in Bristol, Tenn.

McNamara has three European coaching licenses and has served as a youth coach for the Irish Football Association (IFA) in Belfast, Northern Ireland. As a player, he was a YTS trainee with Ashton Villa FC in England for two years, and spent one season with the Carrickfergus Rangers FC in the Irish First Division. He was a member of the Cliftonville FC in the Irish Premier League for four years before ending his playing career in the United States, spending one season playing indoor soccer with the Huntsville Fire of the Premier League and two years with the Roanoke Wraft of the PDL D-2 League.

McNamara is married to the former Jacqueline Logue of Belfast, Northern Ireland, and has two children, Halina and Anthony.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH LESLIE GILLIES

2014 SOCCER • ASST. HEAD COACH LESLIE GILLIES

Leslie Gillies begins her first season as assistant head coach after serving as a full-time assistant coach at the University of Tennessee at Martin since 2010.

Gillies has been instrumental in building an impressive resume throughout her time at UT Martin as she led the Skyhawks to a piece of conference history in 2013. The Skyhawks picked up their fourth consecutive OVC title, including two regular season and tournament championships, after rattling off an 8-2 record in conference play to win their second consecutive season crown. The Skyhawks became the first team in conference history to pull off such a streak.

The Skyhawks saw five players take home six OVC awards, highlighted by three All-OVC first team selections for Mariah Klenke, Aoife Lennon and Hannah Fessenden while Alyssa Curtis earned second team honors. Lennon was joined by classmate Ellie Myrick as All-Newcomer selections. Three players took home All-Tournament honors as Lennon and Fessenden both joined Lucy Pater. As a whole, six Skyhawks took home either All-OVC or All-OVC Tournament accolades in 2013.

In 2012, Gillies was part of arguably the best season in Skyhawk soccer history. UT Martin cruised through its first-ever Ohio Valley Conference regular season championship on its way to a 13-6-3 overall record. For the second straight season, UT Martin advanced to the NCAA Tournament, where it battled against Southeastern Conference power Kentucky before falling 1-0 in overtime. The Skyhawks' .659 season winning percentage ranks first in school history.

Gillies guided eight Skyhawks to either All-OVC or All-OVC Tournament honors in 2012. That list includes Saphyra Coombs-James (OVC Freshman of the Year, All-OVC first team, All-OVC Newcomer), Mariah Klenke (All-OVC first team, All-OVC Tournament team, OVC Tournament MVP), Ashley Reveiz (All-OVC first team, All-OVC Newcomer), Hannah McGowen (All-OVC first team), Alyssa Curtis (All-OVC second team), Lucy Pater (All-OVC Tournament team), Amy Maksimowicz (All-OVC Tournament team) and Mary Thompson (All-OVC Tournament team).

In 2011, Gillies helped guide the Skyhawks to their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, as a result of winning the OVC Tournament championship. She presided over a squad that shattered the program record for matches played (23), victories (14), highest winning percentage (.652), longest winning streak (six), points (120), assists (34) and shots (383).

Gillies coached four All-OVC performers in 2011, led by OVC Defensive Player of the Year Melissa Govea. Both Govea and Brooke Robertson notched all-league first team accolades, while Amy Maksimowicz and Midori Sera were named the All-OVC Newcomer squad.

In 2010, Gillies and the Skyhawks found their groove at the midpoint of the season, as UT Martin produced victories in seven of nine matches during one spurt in the schedule. She also oversaw a defense that grinded out eight shutouts, which tied a single-season UT Martin program record.

Also, Gillies coached Rosaelia Loza and Sam Dunn, who earned All-OVC second team and All-Newcomer accolades under Gillies' tutelage in 2011.

Prior to UT Martin, Gillies spent three seasons as an assistant coach to current Skyhawk head coach Phil McNamara at Carson-Newman, helping the Eagles to a 40-14-2 record (including a school-record 20 wins in 2009), three consecutive NCAA Division-II Tournament appearances and two South Atlantic Conference regular-season and tournament titles.

At Carson-Newman, Gillies was responsible for the organization of practices, ongoing recruitment, workouts, administrative duties such as travel and scheduling, player development and team preparation, among other things.

Not only did Gillies coach with McNamara at Carson-Newman, she also finished out her collegiate playing career for him from 2004 through 2006 before graduating with a bachelor's degree in applied psychology in 2007.

In those three seasons, Gillies led the team to a 53-10-3 record, including an 18-3 conference slate. A forward and outside midfielder, she led the team to back-to-back NCAA Division-II Tournament Final Fours, as well as two regular-season SAC titles and two SAC Tournament titles. Perhaps the most impressive feat is that as a player, she was part of the three most winningest seasons in Carson-Newman history at that point in time, including a then-school-record 19 wins in 2004.

Before playing at Carson-Newman, Gillies spent two seasons playing in Conference-USA for head coach Paul Harbin at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. As a true freshman, she logged 203 minutes and scored her first career point on an assist against Jackson State on Oct. 25, 2002. The next season, she saw limited action because of an injury. In her two years at UAB, the Blazers went 22-14-2 with a 13-7 league record.

A Marietta, Ga. native, Gillies was a four-year letterwinner at Sprayberry High School, where she was an all-star selection in the state of Georgia. She scored 56 goals - including a team-high 21 her junior season - in her career and led the Yellow Jackets to a state 5A quarterfinalist berth in 2001, as well as a 6AAAA Sub-Region championship and pair of 6AAAA Sub-Region runner-up appearances.

Leslie recently married Chris Gillies in November 2012. The couple resides in Martin.

OVC CHAMPIONS: 2009, 2012, 2013 • OVC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

GRADUATE ASSISTANT JANA HORVAT

Jana Horvat joins the Skyhawk soccer team as a graduate assistant for the 2014 season. She will primarily work with the goalkeepers.

Horvat was a standout at Bethel University, a neighboring NAIA program in McKenzie, Tenn. While playing for the Wildcats she was named a TranSouth Conference Scholar-Athlete in 2011.

Horvat originally signed with the Skyhawks in 2011 along with current player Dominika Conc. She also played on the Slovenian senior national team, serving as team captain on the Slovenian U19 squad. Prepping under coaches Boris Devetak, Bostjan Zlobko, Petra Mikeln and Darko Zizek, Horvat also led the Krka FC club squad to a national championship with Conc. She has made two UEFA appearances and attended Gimnazija Novo Mesto High School in Lower Carniola, Slovenia.

TRAINER KATHERINE MALIK

Katherine Malik enters her seventh season as an assistant athletic trainer at The University of Tennessee at Martin. She serves as the primary athletic trainer for the Skyhawk soccer and softball teams, while also assisting with day-to-day operations with all other UT Martin sports teams.

Malik came to the Skyhawk Sports Medicine staff from Birmingham Southern where she was also an assistant athletic trainer, working primarily with the women's soccer, women's basketball, softball and lacrosse teams.

Prior to her time at Birmingham Southern, Malik spent a year as an intern at Georgia Tech and two years as a graduate assistant at the University of Central Florida.

While at Georgia Tech, Malik worked with the football and track programs and at Central Florida she worked primarily with the women's soccer team while earning a master's degree in physical education.

Malik is a 2004 graduate of the University of Florida, earning a degree in exercise science and is married to her husband, Tyson Malik.

SOCCER SID ALEX BOGGIS

Alex Boggis enters his third season in the Sports Information Office. At UT Martin, Boggis is the media contact for football (secondary), soccer, women's basketball, softball, cross country and tennis teams. Boggis also serves on the statistician crew at most Skyhawk home events, produces media guides, game day programs, press releases, and serves as a media host and coordinating event operations.

While at UT Martin, Boggis has taken part in several other sports information ventures. The last three seasons, he has served on the official statistician crew at the Ohio Valley Conference men's and women's basketball tournament in Nashville, where he was part of the team responsible for all stats from the tournament. He also served as the official statistician for the 2012 OVC Soccer Tournament, hosted by UT Martin and the 2014 Women's Final Four in Nashville.

A native of Pinckneyville, Ill., Boggis graduated from UT Martin in 2011, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing. He recently earned his Master's in business administration from UTM in the spring of 2013. He worked as a graduate assistant in the sports information office for one year and was the secondary contact for football, women's basketball and softball, and also the head researcher and designer for basketball and softball media guides. He spent his undergraduate years as the head manager for the UT Martin men's basketball team, serving that role during the 2008-09 OVC Championship season.

Boggis recently married Tiffany Carlton in June 2013. The couple resides in Martin.

SEASON PREVIEW

Success has come in bunches the past several years for the University of Tennessee at Martin women's soccer team dating back to the hiring of head coach Phil McNamara, who enters his fifth season at the helm of the Skyhawks.

Coach McNamara preaches to his players that current success is not to be based off previous years' accomplishments, but the accolades have been bountiful when it comes to the Skyhawk soccer program since 2011. McNamara and the Skyhawks began their string of championship performances with the program's first Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship in 2011, initiating the first of an OVC record four consecutive championships – including two regular season and tournament crowns.

"I tell the girls that there is no point in comparing our team to previous years, it's all about this year," said McNamara. "We can only be the best that we can be this year, with this group of players. For me, I think there is huge potential here. I really like the spirit of the group, the work ethic is outstanding, the fitness levels are higher than we have had and I think we have a couple higher impact players than we've had in years past. On paper, I think we are better at this stage than we were last year, but until we start playing games and winning games, only time will tell."

With such storied success in the past five years, the Skyhawks will look to the next group of seniors to carry the torch in the 2014 campaign after the loss of five seniors to graduation. The void left by seniors Hannah McGowen, Sarah Tompkins, Jessica Horvatic, Hannah Fessenden and Abi Sanvee along with All-OVC first team selection Aoife Lennon will have to be filled by the eight-member senior class. The class which includes Amy Maksimowicz, Lucy Pater, Alyssa Curtis, Sam Dunn, Mariah Klenke, Ashley Reveiz, Ashlie Watson and Dominika Conc has won 38 games over the course of the previous three seasons, a program record.

"It's a good size class and they have been extremely important for us in the past," said McNamara. "It's a class which has done well for themselves and for the program. We are very proud of this group and it still stings that we lost in the final last year, at home, and I think that these seniors want to put the record straight by coming out strong this year."

With such a strong senior class to anchor the Skyhawk squad, the addition of key newcomers could infuse a veteran squad with youth and ability. Seven newcomers grace the Skyhawk squad, including three international players with decorated careers and two Tennessee natives. Look for junior transfer Rianna Jarrett who played for the Republic of Ireland, scoring seven goals in UEFA international play, to make an immediate impact.

"I think that the majority of the new players will find a way to be plugged in right away," said McNamara. "I think that there are a couple of them that will make a big conference impact. That's exciting considering how young they are and new they are to the college level. I think it complements our group of seniors while filling a couple positions that we needed to fill. We feel like we are pretty well balanced."

The Skyhawks will look to their defense once again to be an incredible strength. While the back four has been dominant in years past, the play of Klenke – the Skyhawk goalkeeper – has been record setting. She continues to rewrite the UT Martin record book, ranking amongst the career leaders in multiple categories. Her seven shutouts last season not only led the league but tied for the program's single season shutout mark. She currently ranks in the top five in 11 statistical categories while ranking first in career shutouts (15), career victories (31) and single season victories by goalkeeper (12 in 2012). She tallied five or more saves on eight occasions and tallied a 0.96 goals against average last season.

"In the women's game, much of your success is on the quality of your goalkeeper and strikers," stated McNamara. "The longer I'm in this game I realize the importance of a quality goalkeeper. Mariah has had an immense career at UT Martin. I think she smashes all the records this fall, and that record will be very difficult to ever break going forward."

Klenke will rely heavily on the play of the back four defensive unit to relieve the pressure. Maksimowicz and Pater, a pair of senior defenders, proved to be a defensive power in the backfield for the Skyhawks yet again, starting in all 21 matches last season. Both helped lead a Skyhawk defensive line which produced eight shutout performances, including a stretch which saw opponents score just two goals over the course of seven matches. The defensive unit came up especially tight in overtime, holding their opponents scoreless in seven overtime periods. Look for Eva Heller, Temple Hughs, Deborah Schaudt, Taylor Fry and Kaci Mitchell to see action in the back.

"The quality of play that Amy brings, along with the leadership that Lucy brings and the quality of her play, presents a back four which will be very difficult to beat," said McNamara. "We will have two new players in there this year who I think are quality players. We have to balance the youth of the back four, with the experience, by splitting the seniors. I think it is going to be the foundation of our success this year."

The midfield unit will be led by the play of seniors Curtis and Conc. The duo both tallied eight points each last season, with Senior Dominika Conc returns to provide a spark on the offense side of the ball.

Curtis notching four goals while Conc scored tallied two game-winners for the Skyhawks. The pair played and started in all 21 games last season while Curtis transitions from striker to midfielder. Look for Abby Masters, Jaclyn Heckle, Ashley Reveiz and Sam Dunn to see time at the position as well.

"I think the midfield area is certainly full of possibilities," said McNamara. "Alyssa will play primarily in the center-mid for us this year, along with Dominika. I think the third spot is certainly up for grabs. There is some new potential for new players, but we also have returners like Jaclyn and Abby who have both came in strong for us this year."

The Skyhawk strikers are a position with a lot of potential for the upcoming season. Highlighted by sophomores Saphyra Coombs-James and Ellie Myrick, the strikers are looking to become a force in the attack game. After sitting out the entire 2013 season due to injury, Coombs-James is primed for a big year after being named the OVC's Freshman of the Year in 2012. Myrick proved to be a dynamic player for the Skyhawks as a freshman, earning OVC All-Newcomer honors. She saw action in all 21 games, earning 15 starts along with scoring three goals and tallying three assists for nine points. Along with the sophomore pair, look for Watson, Heller and Olivia Bohlman to provide depth at the position.

"There is no question that we are going to be a major force going forward this year in comparison to any year that I have been here at UT Martin," stated McNamara. "I have a lot of confidence in the five or six players that can play at those positions this year. If they can get off to a quick start and build confidence early against good level teams, I think they can have good individual years which gives us the foundation for a record year."

UT Martin will begin the 2014 slate against Atlantic-10 foe Saint Louis under the lights on Friday, Aug. 22 before returning to action just two days later in a non-conference matchup against OVC rival Southeast Missouri on Sunday, Aug. 24. The Skyhawks will continue their four game homestand to open the season with another pair of home matches against Missouri Valley Conference foes Indiana State on Sunday, Aug. 31 and Evansville on Wednesday, Sept. 3.

"I like the fact that, including our exhibition, that we have five home games to start the season especially with the amount of new players we have coming in," said McNamara. "We visit some big name programs including some of the best college soccer facilities in the country. It all provides the opportunity for our players to learn and become the best team possible before our conference season begins. Once we hit the road, the schedule gets pretty brutal. Our schedule should give us a good idea of how good we can be heading into OVC play."

UT Martin will then leave the friendly confines of Skyhawk Field as they hit the road for a decisive six game road swing beginning at national powerhouse Missouri on Sunday, Sept. 7. The Skyhawks will then travel to Tulsa on Friday, Sept. 12 before making the trip to Big 12 foe Oklahoma State on Sunday, Sept. 14. From there the Skyhawks will travel east for a pair of games, opening at Kennesaw State on Friday, Sept. 19 before making the short trek to Georgia State on Sunday, Sept. 21.

"We could honestly be 30-40 percent better this year, but our results and record may not show it," said McNamara. "The conference teams are not going to know exactly how good we are until we start OVC play because of how difficult our non-conference schedule is. We start out with four home games against similar high caliber opponents, and every game is going to be a dog fight, but also a way to prove ourselves and get better for conference."

The defending OVC champions will cut their teeth on the road to open the conference slate with a trip to Jacksonville State on Friday, Sept. 26 before returning home to host Tennessee Tech on Sunday, Sept. 28. UT Martin will then alternate home and away the next two weekends, traveling to Southeast Missouri on Friday, Oct. 3 before making a stop at SIU Edwardsville on Sunday, Oct. 5. The Skyhawks will complete the home portion of the split when they play host to Eastern Kentucky on Friday, Oct. 10 before playing defending OVC Tournament champion Morehead State on Sunday, Oct. 12.

The Skyhawks will hit the road for their final road swing of the season when they travel to Eastern Illinois on Sunday, Oct. 19 before closing out the road slate at Belmont on Friday, Oct. 24. UT Martin will conclude the regular season with back-to-back home matches against OVC foes. The Skyhawks will play host to Austin Peay on Sunday, Oct. 26 before wrapping up the regular season against OVC rival Murray State on Friday, Oct. 31.

"I think we know the conference pretty well at this point," said McNamara. "There will be several similar teams at the top, like in years past. The new coaches coming in certainly bring a new level of urgency and energy into their programs, so there are no teams on the schedule that you can circle a guarantee win. You're going to have to go into every game ready to compete, work hard and earn the right to win games in this league. We hope that we can compete in the non-conference segment and get ready for conference play."

As the balance begins to come into focus and the competition cranks up, look for the Skyhawks to look forward for future success rather than in the rear view mirror at the shadow left behind in their quest for yet another OVC crown.

Senior Alyssa Curtis will provide stability on the Skyhawk's offensive unit.

SEASON RECAP

With a solid foundation erected for the past two seasons, the 2013 version of Skyhawks continued to build upon that strength and take the program to new levels which has never been seen before in Ohio Valley Conference soccer history.

Fresh off back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament following OVC Tournament championships, the Skyhawks went into the season as the early favorites to repeat as champions. What was predicted of the Skyhawks was a piece of history. Heading into the season, the Skyhawks under the direction some of the top power conferences in the country.

The Skyhawks took the schedule and welcomed Big 12 power Oklahoma State to Skyhawk Field for the regular season home opener, battling with the Cowgirls for 84 minutes before allowing the lone goal of the evening in the 85th minute to fall to the visiting foes. With minimal time to regroup, the Skyhawks turned to new Conference USA foe Middle Tennessee. Junior goalkeeper Mariah Klenke and the Skyhawk defense would flex their muscles in the contests, saving nine Pac-12 foe Colorado. The Skyhawks held with their nationally ranked opponent before surrendering the deciding goal in the 71st minute in a 1-0 decision. The next game saw a showdown against Colorado which had the Skyhawks jump out to an early advantage off the leg of senior Hannah McGowen before an aggressive Buffaloes' squad tallied 30 shot attempts and ultimately won with a 4-1 advantage.

A quick pit stop at Skyhawk Field had the Skyhawks playing host to Georgia State before hitting the pavement for yet another four of Phil McNamara had won the last three straight championships handed out by the OVC. Another regular season championship would stretch that streak to four consecutive championships, a mark which has never been done before in the OVC's storied 65 year history.

Going into the season, McNamara knew that he would have to prepare his squad for the daunting grind of the conference slate. With that in mind, the Skyhawks would put together a non-conference schedule which would face schools from shot attempts and preserving a shutout for a scoreless tie.

The next contest saw the Skyhawks hit the road for the first time, traveling to Evansville for the first game of a four game road swing. After faltering at Evansville, the Skyhawks notched their first win of the season at Lipscomb with a 2-0 decision.

After a quick luggage exchange, the Skyhawks were back on the road and flying to nationally ranked No. 20 Denver for a weekend showdown against the hosts and game road swing and the start of conference play. The Skyhawks would against Georgia State and Indiana State before wrapping up non-conference play with a 2-6-1 record following a victory at Saint Louis.

Conference play would begin on Sept. 27 with a trip to perennial challenger Austin Peay, where the Lady Gobs would get the best of the Skyhawks in the conference opener with a 2-1 victory.

Following the loss to Austin Peay, the Skyhawks would put their play in overdrive, ripping off a season best seven game winning streak at the hands of Murray State, Jacksonville State, Morehead State, Eastern Kentucky, Tennessee Tech, Belmont and Eastern Illinois. During the span, the Skyhawks picked up their road sweep of Morehead State and Eastern Kentucky with back-to-back shutouts, outscoring their rivals 4-0. The decisive 3-0 victory over Morehead State also marked career victory 200 for McNamara.

With just one matches to play in the regular season, the Skyhawks early season record was far in the rearview mirror. Sitting with just two victories in their first nine contests, the Skyhawks went into the final home match with a record of 9-8-1 and only Southeast Missouri left on the slate.

Holding onto a one game lead in the league standing over Southeast Missouri going into the final game, the Skyhawks need just a victory or tie over the Redhawks to make OVC history. Pregame festivities saw the Skyhawks pay tribute to their five seniors as McGowen, Sarah Tompkins, Abi Sanvee, Jessica Horvathich and Hannah Fessenden were announced in their final regular season match. The five seniors combined for 29 goals, 27 assists and 46 wins over the course of their standout careers.

Regulation would not be enough for the heavyweight match as the eventual game winning goal came in the 102nd minute as Sanvee capped off Senior Night with a goal past the keeper and sealed UT Martin the regular season crown and the right to host the OVC Tournament. With the championship, the Skyhawks owned a piece of history by winning their fourth consecutive OVC championships – including two regular season and tournament championships.

Less than a week after the Skyhawks notched its second consecutive season championship, five players were honored at the conference's annual postseason award banquet. Klenke, Fessenden and freshman Aoife Lennon each earned All-OVC first team honors while junior Alyssa Curtis earned second team accolades. Lennon joined classmate Ellie Myrick as All-Newcomer selections. Amongst the individual accolades the Skyhawks were awarded the 2013 OVC Championship trophy.

With the championship under their belt, and the right to host the OVC Tournament, the Skyhawks were in prime position to defend yet another crown. Before punching their ticket for the title match, the Skyhawks had to get past No. 4 seed SIUE who had just knocked off the hosts the week before on their home field. For the second consecutive match, the Skyhawks would need overtime before a goal from Lennon in the 95th minute sealed the Skyhawks third consecutive trip to the tournament finals with a 2-1 victory.

With the championship set between No. 1 seed UT Martin and No. 2 seed Morehead State on the bracket, the league's top two teams would face off for the league's automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament and a rematch of the 2011 OVC Championship.

Both teams would struggle to get anything going on the offensive end of the field in the first half, going into the break scoreless. Morehead State would come out of the halftime break as the aggressors, find the day's only goal just 48 seconds into the second half. Despite outshooting Morehead State in the game, the Skyhawks could never find the equalizer in the final 44 minutes of the match, ultimately dropping the match 1-0.

With the loss in the OVC Tournament finals, the Skyhawks finished a decorated 2013 season with a regular season championship and a record of 11-9-1 (8-2 OVC). Sanvee led the team with five goals and 11 points on the season, including four game winning goals, while Lennon and Curtis tied for second on the team with four goals each. Myrick led the team with three assists. Klenke tallied a 9-9-1 record, 0.96 goals against average, 90 saves and 18 goals allowed in 1687:18 minutes of play.

MARTIN, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team gave visiting Big 12 Conference powerhouse Oklahoma State all they could handle, holding the Cowgirls scoreless until the 85th minute, before dropping the 1-0 decision at Skyhawk Field on Friday night.

In front of a near record crowd, the Skyhawks looked to pick up where they left off in 2012 by pushing perennial contender Oklahoma State to the brink in the season opener. The Skyhawks would not back down on the evening as both teams battled in a physical affair, seeing a combined 37 fouls in the matchup.

Senior Hannah McGowen led the Skyhawk offense with two of the team's seven shots this evening. Aoife Lennon, Alyssa Curtis, Ellie Myrick, Lucy Pater and Abi Sanvee also accounted for one shot apiece tonight for UT Martin, who outshot the Cowgirls 5-4 in the first half but could only manage two shots in the second half.

Skyhawk goalkeeper Mariah Klenke faced eight shots on goal and made seven saves this evening.

Klenke registered her first save of the day at the 10:04 mark when OSU defender Delaney Kiely pushed a header into the box, keeping the match scoreless.

The Skyhawks would come out aggressive, challenging every ball and registering their first shot of the night at the 21:04 mark when McGowen put a shot on goal which Oklahoma State goalkeeper Rosa Medina wrangled for the save.

The Skyhawks and Cowgirls would exchange a pair of shots in the 26th minute. Myrick pushed the Skyhawk offense down the pitch before tallying her lone shot of the match at the 26:13 mark. OSU would not be outdone as forward Courtney Dike threatened with her first of seven shots in the match just 46 seconds later, sailing her attempt wide right.

The Cowgirls came out of the intermission firing on all cylinders, tallying 14 shots in the second half before finding the deciding goal in the 85th minute. Madison Mercado's fourth and final shot of the evening proved to be true after receiving an assist from Krissi Killion on the right side for the game-winner.

The Skyhawks would threaten with two late shots by Sanvee and Pater, but would ultimately not provide the equalizer as UT Martin dropped the season opener 1-0.

MARTIN, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team's defensive unit stole the show this afternoon, shutting out Middle Tennessee and forcing a 0-0 double overtime scoreless tie.

Freshman Ellie Myrick led the way for the Skyhawks (0-1-1) with five shots – three of which were on goal. Aoife Lennon, Dominika Conc, Alyssa Curtis and Michelle Calmelyn also recorded two shot attempts each for UT Martin.

Junior Mariah Klenke once again proved to be a force in goal, recording her first shutout on the season and ninth of her career. Klenke recorded nine saves on the afternoon in all 110 minutes, giving her 16 on the season.

Lennon fired the Skyhawks' first shot of the day at the 6:55 mark, but her shot was saved by Kelsey Brouwer. The Skyhawks would tally three consecutive shots off the feet of Curtis and Conc while a header by Jaclyn Heckle was also saved at the 22:43 mark.

At the 33:42 mark, Calmelyn tallied the final shot of the first half that nearly proved to be the difference before Brouwer recorded the save. UT Martin would hold a 5-3 advantage in the shot column going into the break.

The Skyhawks opened the second half with a trio of shot attempts within six minutes. Senior Hannah McGowen got the second period started with a shot at the 51:07 mark which was blocked. Conc responded with a shot of her own just 27 seconds later that sailed just right of the post. Myrick almost broke the match open with a header at the 56:55 mark off an assist from McGowen, but the ball sailed just over the crossbar, leaving the match scoreless.

Klenke saw three consecutive shots come her way over the span of three minutes. Middle Tennessee's 2012 Freshman of the Year tallied one of her team-high five shots at the 62:43 mark, sailing wide right.

At the 73:56 mark of regulation, Myrick posted the Skyhawks final shot of regulation.

Klenke tallied four saves in the overtime periods, clinching the shutout with her final save of the game at the 109:46 mark.

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team fell to Missouri Valley Conference power Evansville 3-0 at Arad McCutchan Stadium on Friday evening.

The Skyhawks (0-2-1) were led by junior Alyssa Curtis's three shots while Aoife Lennon, Michelle Calmelyn, Dominika Conc, Ellie Myrick, Shelby Coleman and Ashlie Watson each tallied a shot each. Curtis, Lennon and Conc each tallied one shot on goal in the contest.

Junior Mariah Klenke tallied seven saves on the evening while allowing three goals in 90 minutes of action.

Evansville looked to senior Stephanie Thompson to get the Aces on the board by scoring the eventual game-winner in the 12th minute.

UT Martin would tally their first shot of the match at the 29:35 mark when Coleman's shot went wide left. The Skyhawks would threaten with a goal of their own just two minutes later with a well-placed header by Lennon which resulted in a save by Simone Busby.

Watson would fire a shot as time nearly expired at the end of the first half, but the result was again wide left. The Skyhawks trailed the Aces 9-3 in the shot column going into the break while Klenke made four first-half saves.

Evansville would come out firing in the second frame, tallying the first three shots of the half in the opening four minutes of action. UE would later seal the victory with a pair of second-half goals by freshman Emily Griebel and sophomore Kayla Smith.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team wasted little time on the evening to break into the scoring column for the first time this season, as goals by Abi Sanvee and Aoife Lennon elevate the Skyhawks to the 2-0 victory at Lipscomb.

The Skyhawks (1-2-1) relied on goals by senior Abi Sanvee in the 10th minute while freshman Aoife Lennon would later find the back of the net in the 29th minute to secure the victory. Fellow freshman Ellie Myrick would be credited with an assist on Sanvee's goal. UT Martin was led in the shot column by Dominika Conc with four, while Hannah McGowen and Lennon each tallied three shots of their own.

Tonight's result marked as the 10th career shutout for Mariah Klenke, moving the junior into a tie for the all-time UT Martin shutout record. Notching her second shutout of the season, Klenke registered three saves on the evening.

Lennon nearly got the evening started off with a bang early, tallying the first shot of the evening which deflected off the post in the fourth minute.

Action would soon pick up as the Skyhawks scored their first goal of the young season off of a corner kick by Myrick to Sanvee. With a well-placed ball off the foot of Myrick, Sanvee used a header to break into the score column at the 9:29 mark.

Lipscomb would then issue two consecutive shots over the span of three minutes, but Klenke would tally her first save of the night at the 12:18 mark.

The Skyhawks would continue their aggressive pace in the 29th minute as Lennon picked up a deflection six yards out, rifling a shot into the right corner of the net to tally the freshman's first career goal.

UT Martin would exchange shot attempts throughout the remainder of the first period, taking a 7-2 advantage in the shot column into the intermission.

McGowen fired the Skyhawks final shot on goal at the 74:10 mark, but Lipscomb's Anna Buhigas would pick up her fourth save of the night.

Lipscomb final attempt at goal came at the 89:06 mark, but Klenke quickly wrangled the ball for her third and final save of the evening, cementing the shutout.

DENVER, Colo. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team battled throughout the opening match of the Denver Invitational against nationally ranked host No. 20 Denver, before falling to the Pioneers 1-0 at CIBER Field in Denver, Colorado.

The Skyhawks (1-3-1) held the host Pioneers (5-0) scoreless before allowing the deciding goal in the 71st minute. Denver came into the match averaging 2.50 goals per game while UT Martin has averaged just 0.96 goals against.

Freshman Ellie Myrick led the Skyhawks with two shots on the night while classmate Aoife Lennon, senior Hannah McGowen and juniors Lucy Pater and Dominika Conc each added a shot of their own. McGowen, Myrick and Pater each tallied one shot on goal.

Junior Mariah Klenke kept the Pioneer strikers at bay throughout the evening, tallying five saves while allowing just one goal.

Denver came out firing in the tournament opener, recording the first five shots of the game. Klenke recorded her first save of the evening at the 7:11 mark, beginning the barrage of Pioneer shot attempts. Denver would fire three shots over a five minute span, with Klenke earning her second save at the 17:12 mark.

UT Martin would answer with a run of their own, firing three shots at the Pioneer defense over the course of two minutes. Lennon got the Skyhawks in the shot column at the 20:20 mark with Myrick tallying a shot of her own, just seven seconds later. Conc would wrap up the run with a shot at the 21:28 mark which was blocked by a Denver defender.

Denver would threaten at the end of the first period, pushing a header into the box that Klenke would smother at the 44:28 mark, wrapping up the period with a 0-0 tie.

The Pioneers, much like the first period, came out of the break with seven consecutive shots before finding the game-winning goal in the 71st minute. After rifling a shot of her own, Nicholette Digiaco recovered her failed attempt before firing the deciding goal into the back of the net from seven yards out.

The Skyhawks would attempt to respond after the goal by placing their final two shots on goal within 20 seconds of each other. Myrick placed a shot on goal at the 71:12 mark before Pater fired an attempt of her own as Rey tallied her final two saves of the evening.

DENVER, Colo. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team broke Colorado's consecutive shutout streak with a goal off the foot of senior Hannah McGowen, but suffered a 4-1 setback at the hands of the Pac-12 Conference power on Sunday afternoon at CIBER Field in Denver, Colo.

Coming into the game Colorado (6-0) had recorded five consecutive shutouts to open the season, but the Skyhawks (1-4-1) would not make it six. McGowen led the Skyhawks with two shots, including her first goal on the young season. Aoife Lennon, Dominika Conc, Alyssa Curtis and Jaclyn Heckle would each add one shot. McGowen, Conc and Heckle each registered a shot on goal.

In goal junior Mariah Klenke and senior Sarah Tompkins fielded a barrage of shot attempts by the aggressive Buffaloes front line, as Colorado tallied 30 shots on the afternoon, including 18 of which were on goal. Klenke got the start, seeing action in the first half while tallying 10 saves and allowing two goals. Tompkins saw her first action of the season, playing the second half, recording three saves while allowing two goals on the afternoon.

Colorado recorded seven of the first eight shots, but it was UT Martin that got on the board first. After attempting a shot at the 7:32 mark, McGowen made her mark known in the 21st minute, rifling a free kick from just outside the left corner of the box. The goal was the senior's first goal of the season.

The Buffaloes quickly looked to avenge the early goal, scoring the equalizer in the 24th minute and the eventual game winner in the 26th. At the 23:18 mark Anne Stuller scored the game's equalizer off a rebound from a penalty kick save by Klenke. In the 26th minute Olivia Pappalardo scored off an assist by Stuller and Madison Krauser from a pass to the left side of the box.

Colorado outshot the Skyhawks 20-3 in the first half. UT Martin recorded 10 saves in the period.

Colorado would add a pair of goals within three minutes of each other to put the match out of reach. Stuller notched her second and third goals of the match, to record the hat trick, in the 65th and 68th minutes. Both goals were assisted by Krauser.

MARTIN - The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team played a compelling match but ultimately fell in heartbreaking fashion with a 1-0 defeat off a Georgia State goal in the 84th minute at Skyhawk Field.

The Skyhawks (1-5-1) maintained the bulk of the possession, being the aggressor for most of the game. Despite outshooting their opponent 27-15, the Skyhawks could not find the back of the net on their nine shots on goal. UT Martin's 27 shots set a season-high while being the highest total since Sept. 30, 2012 against Murray State when the Skyhawks tallied 32 attempts.

Hannah McGowen led UT Martin with seven shots on the evening while Alyssa Curtis chipped in five tries in the match. McGowen was joined by Aoife Lennon and Dominica Conc by registering two shots on goal each. Curtis, Maksimowicz and Dunn each tallied one shot on goal.

In goal, Mariah Klenke suffered the tough defeat despite registering dazzling saves throughout the duration of the match. Klenke tallied six saves in goal, including several 1-on-1 matchups in the box.

Klenke was quickly put to test in the contest, tallying her first save of the contest less than two minutes into the match. Georgia State's Amanda Bruemmer rifled a shot on goal at the 1:52 mark that Klenke quickly gathered.

UT Martin came out firing in the second period, registering four consecutive shots, including three consecutive shots on goal over the course of three minutes. The Skyhawks just missed finding the back of the net as Conc, Maksimowicz and Lennon each forced huge saves by the Georgia State goalkeeper Brie Haynes.

The Skyhawks had yet another key opportunity in the 81st minute as McGowen set up for a free kick from just outside the box. McGowen rifled a shot towards goal, deflecting off the left post before Ashlie Watson directed a header into the box off of the ricochet.

Despite being outshot, Georgia State found the magic touch of the evening in the 84th minute. Jordan Young took an assist from Nikki Fedele and Eryka Hawkins from 15 yards, just outside the reach of Klenke for the eventual game-winner.

MATCH 8: SKYHAWK SOCCER CAN'T OVERCOME PAIR OF EARLY GOALS, FALL TO INDIANA ST.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. - The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team burst into the scoring column with two goals, but it was a pair of early scores by host Indiana State that proved to be too much to overcome, falling 4-2.

The Skyhawks (1-6-1) found their groove on offense, as juniors Alyssa Curtis and Michelle Calmeyn each tallied their first goals of the season against Indiana State. Curtis and Calmeyn each tallied four shots, with Calmeyn leading the team with three shots on goal. Curtis tallied two shots on goal while freshman Ellie Myrick contributed one on the afternoon.

In goal the Skyhawks leaned on junior Mariah Klenke. Klenke registered three saves on the afternoon while allowing four goals in 90 minutes of play.

Indiana State wasted little time getting on the board, scoring their first goal of the day just eight minutes in. Abby Reed used a well-placed cross into the box which Kate Johnson used to beat the keeper and score into an empty net at the 7:12 mark.

In the 29th minute it was Reed who registered a goal of her own to push the Indiana State lead out to 2-0. Sydney Lovelace used a cross across the box to find Reed for her fourth goal on the season, off a header.

UT Martin would respond just four minutes later as Curtis capitalized on an opportunity for her first goal of the season. Curtis took a rebound off the goal and found the back of the net at the 32:46 mark to bring the Skyhawks within one goal, trailing 2-1.

The second half saw the Skyhawks and Sycamores exchange numerous shot attempts until ISU snuck their third goal into the net in the 82nd minute. Johnson found the back of the net for her second time on the day as Sydney Lovelace used an assist off a free kick to set up Johnson for a header, her fourth goal of the season.

Indiana State would find the touch again just five minutes later as Emily Chura found a rebound off a long pass to beat Klenke from 12 yards out, giving the Sycamores a 4-1 lead at the 86:14 mark.

Down but not out, the Skyhawks would respond with a late goal at the 89:56 mark off the leg of Calmeyn.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. - The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team needed just one goal to upend Atlantic-10 Conference power Saint Louis on Friday night at Robert R. Hermann Stadium, prevailing 1-0 in the final nonconference match before Ohio Valley Conference play.

UT Martin (2-6-1) was led by senior forward Abi Sanvee who converted on her lone shot attempt of the evening, scoring her second goal of the season. Freshman Aoife Lennon led the Skyhawks with four shot attempts, placing two on goal. Juniors Michelle Calmeyn, Amy Maksimowicz and Dominika Conc, along with freshman Ellie Myrick, each tallied one shot attempt.

Goalkeeper Mariah Klenke tallied her third clean sheet of the season, setting a new UT Martin career record by registering her 11th shutout of the junior's career. Klenke's 11 career shutouts surpassed Lauren MacKenzie (2010-11) and Johanna Rathbun's (2007-08) previous career marks of 10. The Highland, Ill. native registered seven saves on the evening.

The Skyhawks registered their first shot of the match in just the fourth minute as Hanna Benben saved Calmeyn's opening attempt. Lennon quickly followed with her first attempt of the night just minutes later at the 9:27 mark.

Klenke garnered her first save of the match at the 13:24 mark before seeing an onslaught of attempts come from the Billiken offense. Saint Louis tallied six consecutive shots in the first period, but Klenke was the hero of the evening, snagging two more saves.

The Skyhawks cranked up the intensity as clock ticked into the 80th minute, firing five of the team's nine shots in the final 10 minutes. Lennon fired her second shot on goal, having her attempt blocked before Conc and Maksimowicz each tallied attempts of their own, all in the 82nd minute.

It was UT Martin's senior Sanvee who stole the show in the 83rd minute. Sanvee collected a loose ball following a corner kick and delivered a straight-on shot from eight yards away for the game-winner, her second of the season.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team clashed in a rematch of last year's Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship match to open conference play at Austin Peay. Much like last year, the home team pulled out the victory as the Skyhawks fell to the Lady Gobs 2-1 at Morgan Bros. Soccer Field.

Offensively, UT Martin (2-7-1) was led by freshman Ellie Myrick who tallied her first career goal, the lone goal on Friday evening for the Skyhawks. Junior Alyssa Curtis paced the Skyhawks with three shots, including two shots-on-goal. Aoife Lennon and Amy Maksimowicz also added one shot-on-goal each.

Junior goalkeeper Mariah Klenke registered all 90 minutes in goal for the Skyhawks, tallying three saves while allowing two goals.

Austin Peay landed the first punch of the OVC bout in the 18th minute. Reigning OVC Offensive Player of the Year Tatiana Ariza struck quickly off an assist by Courtney Sheppard. Ariza's goal was her OVC leading seventh goal of the season.

The Lady Gobs weren't done offensively, adding to their total in the 63rd minute. Austin Peay's Frankie Carbajal played a ball off a corner kick into the lower right corner of the net. Carbajal's first goal of the season came off an assist by Claire Pultz.

The Skyhawks would get onto the board at the 82:00 mark off the leg of Myrick. Myrick's first career goal was a result of a well-placed cross to the top left of the box from senior Hannah McGowen as the freshman rifled the shot from 12 yards out.

UT Martin would seek the equalizer in the final minutes, but Maksimowicz's shot in the 84th minute would be the Skyhawks final attempt on goal of the game as APSU goalkeeper Haylee Shoaff wrangled the save.

MURRAY, Ky. – Not even the rain could stop the University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team from notching its first Ohio Valley Conference win on the road, earning the 2-1 victory over Murray State on Sunday afternoon.

It was senior forward Abi Sanvee who got the Skyhawks (3-7-1, 1-1 OVC) on the board. Junior Dominika Conc paced the Skyhawks with five shots, including three shots-on-goal and the eventual game-winner. Alyssa Curtis trailed with three shots while Hannah McGowen and Michelle Calmeyn both tallied two shots on the afternoon.

Junior goalkeeper Mariah Klenke registered all 90 minutes in goal, registering three saves while allowing just one goal.

The Skyhawks came out firing on all cylinders this afternoon at Cutchin Field, registering their first shot at the 5:20 mark off a header by Aoife Lennon. Lennon's header was the first of six consecutive shots for the Skyhawks before finding the back of the net in the 24th minute. Sanvee set her sights on a rebound on the near side of the field from freshman Ellie Myrick, placing a header into the back of the net to give the Skyhawks the early one goal advantage. Sanvee has scored a goal in each of the Skyhawks wins this season.

Klenke registered her first save of the afternoon at the 42:08 mark before notching her second save just one minute later off the foot of Taylor Stevens. UT Martin held an 8-6 advantage in the shot column going into the break.

Fresh off her appearance with the Slovenian national team on Thursday, it was Conc's fourth shot of the afternoon which gave the junior her first goal of the season. At the 63:00 mark, Conc took the pass from Calmeyn at the top of the box, tapping in the eventual game winner.

Trailing by two, the Racers cranked up the pace, outshooting the Skyhawks 7-2 before finding their lone goal of the afternoon in the 85th minute. Julie Mooney took the assist from Megg Hudson at the top of the box to beat Klenke and cut the margin in half. Mooney's goal was her fourth of the season.

MARTIN - The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team wasted very little time getting on the board, scoring three times in the first 20 minutes to knock off Ohio Valley Conference foe Jacksonville State 3-1 at Skyhawk Field.

The Skyhawks (4-7-1, 2-1 OVC) saw three players notch goals in the victory as freshman Ellie Myrick and Aoife Lennon registered their second goals of the campaign while junior Ashlie Watson tallied her first. Senior Abi Sanvee tallied the Skyhawk's lone assist on Watson's goal. Myrick paced the team with four shot attempts while Lennon, Watson, Hannah Fessenden and Ashley Reveiz chipped in two apiece. Myrick and Fessenden led the Skyhawks with two shots-on-goal on the evening.

Two players saw action in goal for UT Martin as junior Mariah Klenke earned her 12th start of the year, shutting out the Gamecocks in 45 minutes of action. Senior Sarah Tompkins, appearing for the second time this season, played the entire second half. Tompkins tallied three saves while allowing one goal.

Jacksonville State (4-7-1, 0-3 OVC) was led by Lindsey Jackson's lone goal of the evening. Kelsey Bright paced the Gamecocks with four shots while Jackie Rush and Jackson each tallied three attempts each.

The Skyhawks scored their first goal of the contest just nine minutes in as Ellie Myrick bent a corner kick into goal. Both of Myrick's two goals on the season have been against conference opponents.

Just minutes after Watson nearly scored a goal, just hitting the crossbar, Lennon scored the eventual game winner in the 17th minute. In what proved to be the makings of a physical battle, Lennon was tackled just outside the penalty box, setting up a free kick. Lennon took the kick from the top of the box, rifling the free kick past the keeper to push the Skyhawk lead to 2-0.

Watson's second shot attempt of the evening at the 20:09 mark gave the junior her first goal of the season. Sanvee led Watson perfectly down the middle of the field, setting up a 1-on-1 opportunity in which the Skyhawk forward beat the Gamecock goalie for the 3-0 advantage.

MOREHEAD, Ky. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team used three goals in the second half to pick up the Ohio Valley Conference win at Morehead State. Tonight's 3-0 decision gave UT Martin head soccer coach Phil McNamara his 200th career victory.

The Skyhawks (5-7-1, 3-1 OVC) leaned on the leadership of their upperclassmen, as senior Abi Sanvee scored the opening goal, her fourth goal of the season. Juniors Ashlie Watson and Michelle Calmeyn put the game out of reach with one goal each. Watson and Calmeyn paced the Skyhawks with two shots each, both tallying a pair of shots on goal.

In goal it was junior Mariah Klenke who notched her fourth shutout on the year and 12th of her career. Klenke tallied four saves on four opportunities.

After 14 seasons on the pitch, seeing stops at Virginia Intermont and Carson-Newman before coming to UT Martin, McNamara notched his 200th career victory Friday night.

After an offensively uneventful first period, it didn't take long for the Skyhawks to turn up the heat in the second period. Action began in the 47th minute when Dominika Conc took a corner kick. Following the corner, senior Hannah McGowen came out of a scramble of players to find fellow senior Sanvee as she fired the opening goal past the Morehead State keeper. Sanvee's eventual game-winner was her third on the season and fourth goal overall.

McGowen was once again in on the action in the 61st minute when she lofted the corner into the box. Lucy Pater found the corner before connecting with Watson who scored the Skyhawks second goal of the evening. Watson's goal was her second of the season, both coming in consecutive games.

Over the course of the final 20 minutes, Klenke registered three saves to keep the Morehead State offense at bay. Klenke tallied her final save of the evening off a shot by Jade Flory at the 83:02 mark.

UT Martin would not leave any goals on the field tonight. Senior Jessica Horvathich found Calmeyn for a 30-yard strike at the 89:56 mark to close out the victory. The goal was Calmeyn's second strike of the season.

RICHMOND, Ky. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team needed just one goal to pick up their fourth consecutive win against Eastern Kentucky on Sunday afternoon. Aoife Lennon scored her third goal of the season to give the Skyhawks the 1-0 victory. The win marks the first time in program history that the Skyhawks have swept Morehead State and Eastern Kentucky on the road.

The Skyhawks (6-7-1, 4-1 OVC) were led by Lennon who scored the lone goal of the afternoon. Lennon and Dominika Conc each tallied four shots on the afternoon. Hannah McGowen, Amy Maksimowicz, Ellie Myrick and Ashlie Watson each tallied two shot each.

UT Martin used two goalkeepers on the afternoon as Mariah Klenke earned the start before suffering an injury in the 23rd minute. The Skyhawks turned to senior Sarah Tompkins for the remainder of the game, notching four saves in 67:24 minutes of action. The duo combined for the team's fifth shutout overall and second of the weekend.

The Skyhawks tallied the first four shots of the game as McGowen got the action started at the 10:48 mark. Conc tallied her lone shot on goal of the game at the 17:30 mark but the Colonels' Samm Melton registered the save.

Tompkins notched her first save of four at the 33:11 mark off a strike attempt by Amani Thomas. Thomas's attempt was the only shot on goal for the Colonels in the first half.

Both teams would exchange several shot attempts to open the second period with the Skyhawks tallying nine of the next 11 attempts before finding the deciding goal.

On the sixth and final corner kick of the day for the Skyhawks, Dominika Conc found Lucy Pater who quickly connected with Lennon to give the Skyhawks the 1-0 advantage in the 78th minute. Lennon's goal was her third of the season and second game winner.

Eastern Kentucky would fire three shots in the final minutes, but Tompkins proved to be too much for the home team, tallying two saves to preserve the clean sheet.

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team battled until the end to knock off Ohio Valley Conference foe Tennessee Tech, 2-1, in double overtime. The win wrapped up the road slate for the Skyhawks to continue their season-long five-game win streak.

The Skyhawks (7-7-1, 5-1 OVC) used a pair of goals by juniors Alyssa Curtis and Dominika Conc to continue climbing the conference standings. Freshman Aoife Lennon led the Skyhawks with five shots, placing three shots on goal. Curtis and Conc each tallied four shots on the evening, tallying their second goals of the season. Freshman Ellie Myrick was credited for one assist, her team leading third of the season.

Senior Sarah Tompkins got her second career start in goal for the Skyhawks, playing the full 110 minutes. Tompkins tallied two saves on the afternoon, allowing one goal.

The Skyhawks tallied the first two shots of the game, wasting little time getting on the board. Myrick placed a perfect cross into the box as Curtis placed the opening goal into the lower left corner of the goal in the 16th minute. The strike by Curtis was her second goal of the season while Myrick tallied the assist.

Tennessee Tech (3-11-1, 1-4-1 OVC) would try to get on the board in the 20th minute as Abi Gearing fired an attempt into the box which Tompkins would coral for the game's first save. UT Martin would proceed to outshoot Tennessee Tech 9-1 in the first period.

The Skyhawks, looking for their third consecutive clean sheet, nearly completed the task before the Golden Eagles found the game's equalizer at the 89:52 mark.

Tennessee Tech's leading attacker Ellie Iaciofano would track down goalkeeper Jordan Brown's punt as time ticked down, setting up a one-on-one with Tompkins. Iaciofano would beat the keeper to knot the game at 1-1 with eight seconds to play in regulation, her fourth goal of the season.

The OVC foes would battle through a scoreless first overtime period before Conc tallied the Skyhawks first golden goal on the year. Conc controlled the ball on the right wing, dribbling through several defenders to rifle the game-winner into the lower left corner of the net.

MARTIN, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team used two second half goals to knock off Ohio Valley Conference in-state rival Belmont 2-0. With the victory the Skyhawks move into a two-way tie for first place in the conference standings.

The Skyhawks (8-7-1, 6-1 OVC) used goals from freshman Ellie Myrick and junior Alyssa Curtis to earn the shutout victory. Myrick paced the Skyhawks with five shots on the afternoon, including three shots on goal. Curtis tallied four shots on the afternoon, placing two attempts on goal. Aoife Lennon, Dominika Conc, Abi Sanvee, Ashlie Watson, Lucy Pater and Hannah McGowen each tallied multiple shot attempts as the Skyhawks fired 24 shots on the afternoon.

Junior goalkeeper Mariah Klenke notched yet another gem in goal. Klenke, UT Martin's leading all-time leader in shutouts, tallied her fifth shutout of the season. She tallied eight saves on the afternoon.

Belmont (4-8-2, 2-4-1 OVC) was led by Meg Howard and Katie Proud's four shot attempts. Howard paced the Bruins with three shots on goal. Goalkeeper Nicole Berner tallied nine saves on the afternoon, while allowing two goals.

Belmont began the game with the first shot of the afternoon, but UT Martin would respond by tallying five consecutive shots. The Bruins nearly got on the board first in the 24th minute, firing three shots in a span of 15 seconds, but Klenke would register three consecutive saves before eliminating the scoring opportunity by smothering Howard's final attempt.

The Skyhawks fired five consecutive shots leading up to the match's opening goal in the 66th minute. Berner tallied a pair of saves off shots by Myrick and Conc before Myrick found the second rebound, striking for her third goal of the season from 10 yards out.

UT Martin continued on the offensive push, striking for their second goal just 10 minutes later. Myrick fired yet another shot on goal which Berner saved. Belmont's relief was short lived as Curtis found Berner's deflection and placed her third goal of the season into the back of the net from eight yards out, giving the Skyhawks the 2-0 advantage.

Klenke would preserve the team's third shutout in its previous four matches by tallying two saves to end the threat.

MARTIN, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team extended its season-long seven game win streak as the Skyhawks knocked off Ohio Valley Conference rival Eastern Illinois 2-0 at Skyhawk Field. With the victory over Eastern Illinois, the Skyhawks move into sole possession of first place with two matches to play.

The Skyhawks (9-7-1, 7-1 OVC) were led by juniors Alyssa Curtis and Dominika Conc who each scored on the evening. Conc led the team with five shots, placing two on goal while freshman Aoife Lennon trailed with four shot attempts and one assist. Curtis tallied three shots along with her eventual game winner.

Defensively, UT Martin tallied their seventh clean sheet of the season and fourth in league play. The Skyhawks have been dominant on defense, shutting out their opponent in two consecutive games and in four of the last five matches overall. Junior Mariah Klenke tallied her sixth clean sheet of the season, notching four saves in 90 minutes of play.

Coming into the contest both UT Martin and Eastern Illinois were sitting at the top of the OVC standings with identical 6-1 conference marks. The Skyhawks would tally five consecutive shots to begin the first half before finding their first of two goals on the night in the 8th minute. After forward Ellie Myrick was fouled inside the penalty box, Curtis was called upon to take the penalty kick. Curtis won the one-on-one matchup with Jerzy, placing the ball into the left corner of the net. The goal was Curtis's fourth of the season and third in the last three games.

The second period got underway as the Skyhawks international tandem of Lennon and Conc connected for the second score of the match. At the 46:19 mark, Lennon found Conc along the left side who then fired the 12-yard attempt past the keeper and into the lower right corner of the net. Conc's goal was her third of the season and second in her last three matches.

Eastern Illinois would fire seven of their nine shot attempts in the second half before ultimately being outshot 27-9 in the contest. The Panthers had their best opportunity on the evening in the 58th minute, firing two shots on goal but they would be no match for Klenke as she erased the threat.

For the Skyhawks it was Haley Klages, Abby Masters and Ashley Reveiz who tallied the final three shots on goal for the home team.

MARTIN, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team could not capitalize on late game opportunities, falling to Ohio Valley Conference foe SIU Edwardsville, 1-0 at Skyhawk Field.

Despite the loss, UT Martin still controls their own destiny as they search for their second consecutive regular season conference title. The Skyhawks (9-8-1, 7-2 OVC) currently sit atop the OVC standings with 21 points. With losses by Eastern Illinois and Morehead State on Sunday, the Skyhawks still hold a slim margin over their next opponent, Southeast Missouri, by one point in the overall conference standings.

The Skyhawks looked to senior Hannah McGowen who led the team with six shot attempts while freshman Aoife Lennon followed with four attempts of her own. Both McGowen and Lennon paced the team with two shots on goal on the afternoon.

Junior goalkeeper Mariah Klenke turned in yet another solid performance between the posts. Klenke tallied three saves on the afternoon despite allowing one goal.

SIUE (11-4-3, 5-3-1 OVC) looked to Erin DiGiovanni for their lone goal, her third of the season. Tory Pitts tallied the game's lone assists and paced the team with four shot attempts for the Cougars. SIUE goalkeeper Jennifer Pelley notched her seventh shutout of the season, tallying nine saves on the day.

SIUE came out firing to begin the match, proving to be the aggressor as they tallied the first three shots of the match. The Cougars needed just three opportunities before tallying the only goal they would need on the afternoon in the 10th minute. SIUE marched down the left side as Pitts sailed a cross into the box, finding DiGiovanni. DiGiovanni found Pitts pass and quickly fired an eight-yard dart past Klenke for the 1-0 advantage.

The Skyhawks would try to respond to the early goal by firing five consecutive shots, but would not find the equalizer before heading into the halftime break.

UT Martin would come out of the break with an increase in intensity, placing seven of the game's next eight shot attempts. The Skyhawks nearly got on the board in the 68th minute as both Lennon and McGowen placed shots on goal but SIUE's Pelley would tally the saves.

MARTIN, Tenn. – For the second consecutive year, the University of Tennessee at Martin women's soccer team clinched an Ohio Valley Conference championship after defeating Southeast Missouri, 1-0 in double overtime. On a night in which five Skyhawk seniors were recognized, it was senior Abi Sanvee who lifted the home team to its second OVC season championship in as many years with a double-overtime golden goal.

With the victory, the Skyhawks (10-8-1, 8-2 OVC) not only secured the right to host next week's OVC Tournament on Nov. 7-10, but sealed their place in conference history. UT Martin has now won four consecutive OVC titles, including two season and tournament crowns each, marking the first time in conference history that a team has accomplished such a feat.

The Skyhawks outshot the visiting Redhawks 39-6 on the evening before Sanvee's final shot of the evening proved to be the game's deciding goal. Freshman Aoife Lennon led the aggressive Skyhawks with nine shots on the evening, including three shots placed on goal.

Defensively, UT Martin pitched its eighth shutout of the season and fifth of the conference slate. Ignoring the offensive statistics of the game, it was the Skyhawk defensive line of Lucy Pater, Amy Maksimowicz, Hannah Fessenden and Jessica Horvatic which dominated the game. The defensive quartet held a Southeast Missouri offense which tallied four goals in its last game, to just six total shots on the night and more importantly, two shots on goal.

In goal it was junior Mariah Klenke who continued to impress, notching her seven shutout of the season. Already ranking amongst the leaders in nearly every statistical category as a goalkeeper, Klenke tallied two saves on the evening in 110 minutes of action.

Southeast Missouri (8-6-3, 6-2-2 OVC) would look to Storm French to pace the Redhawks with two shots on the night, both of which on goal. It was goalkeeper Ashton Aubuchon who nearly stole the show on the night, tallying several difficult saves to preserve the scoreless match into the second overtime period. Aubuchon tallied 13 saves on the night before allowing the lone deciding goal late in the contest.

MATCH 20: SKYHAWKS WIN OVERTIME THRILLER OVER SIUE 2-1 TO CLINCH SPOT IN TITLE MATCH

MARTIN, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin soccer team used its second straight overtime match to lift the Skyhawks to their third consecutive Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship game appearance after defeating No. 4 seed SIUE 2-1 in overtime at Skyhawk Field.

The Skyhawks (11-8-1, 8-2 OVC) used key performances from all three All-OVC first team honorees as senior Hannah Fessenden and freshman Aoife Lennon gave the host all the offense that they would need to avenge a late season defeat at the hands of the visiting Cougars just two weeks before. Lennon, Alyssa Curtis, Ellie Myrick and Abi Sanvee led the team with three shot attempts each while Lennon and Myrick each tallied two shots on goal each.

All-OVC goalkeeper Mariah Klenke tallied four saves in tonight's match. Klenke allowed just one goal in over 94 minutes of play.

"We have to be very thankful to have three consecutive OVC final opportunities," McNamara continued. "Obviously we've won our first two but for this program to now be challenging in a 90-minute game on Sunday to go for five consecutive conference titles is quite outstanding. We look forward to Sunday and know that we'll have to play better than what we did tonight to get the result."

In the 15th minute of action, Pitts found the back of the net off a lob over the keeper's head. Pitts 20-yard attempt came off the assist from Kourtney Price gave the Cougars the early lead.

It was a key substitution in the 20th minute which set up the equalizer for the Skyhawks. With All-Newcomer Myrick coming off the bench, McNamara quickly made the substitution for the lefty Myrick to take a corner from the right side. Myrick's lob was perfectly placed over the box as Fessenden found Lennon's attempt shot off the bar, rebounding the attempt for a header over the keeper to even the match. The goal was Fessenden's first of the season and second of her career.

Much like in the Skyhawks last game, they wasted little time in the overtime period, finding the perfect touch. In the 95th minute of the match, Ashlie Watson used a well-placed cross into the middle of the box to find Lennon who quickly fired the game's golden goal into left corner.

MATCH 21: SKYHAWK SOCCER FALLS 1-0 IN OVC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONSHIP TO MOREHEAD STATE

MARTIN, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin women's soccer team could not find the game's equalizing score late in the second half, falling to No. 2 seed Morehead State in the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament Championship 1-0.

Defending two-time OVC season and tournament champions, UT Martin gave up a goal in the early minutes of the second period but could not find the answer in the game's final minutes.

The Skyhawks (11-9-1) were led by Dominika Conc who tallied four shot attempts, all of which were on goal. Lucy Pater notched two attempts while Aoife Lennon, Ellie Myrick and Alyssa Curtis each tallied one attempt each.

Senior Hannah Fessenden was joined on the OVC's all-tournament team by Lennon and Pater.

Morehead State (10-10-1) was led by Macy Cobb's second half goal. OVC Player of the Year, Jade Flory paced the team with two shots while Angela Black, Lindsey Oettle and Caity Fox each tallied one attempt each. Goalkeeper Elizabeth Floyd was perfect between the posts, tallying seven saves on the afternoon while shutting out the Skyhawks.

With the loss, five Skyhawk seniors place the final stamp on their decorated careers. Hannah McGowen, Abi Sanvee, Sarah Tompkins, Jessica Horvatic and Fessenden will be remembered for their 46 combined career victories and 29 goals. Beyond the individual statistics, the Skyhawks won four consecutive OVC titles, a first in conference history.

The Skyhawks had a couple opportunities to jump out to an early lead in the 21st minute. Lennon and Conc each tallied shots on goal but it was Floyd who would come up with the consecutive stops. Just five minutes later, it was a corner kick by Myrick which nearly curved into the back of the net, but once again it was Floyd with the stop.

In the second period's opening minute, it was Cobb who tallied her lone shot attempt of the afternoon that found back of the net for the eventual game winning strike. Taking a pass from the right side, Kelsey Gomez found Cobb who quickly lofted the attempt over the reach of Klenke for the 1-0 advantage.

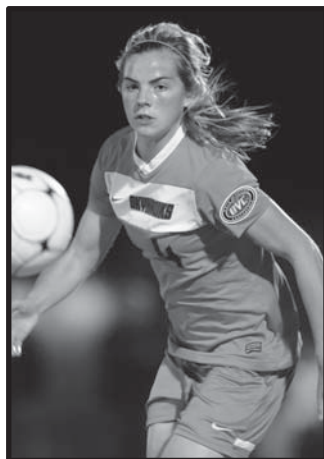

The Skyhawks would look to retaliate in the waning minutes of regulation but it was Pater's attempt at the 74:47 mark which would be the final scoring opportunity on the day.

SEASON IN PHOTOS

Abi Sanvee led the team with five goals and 11 points, along with four game winning goals.

Aoife Lennon was the lone freshman to make first team All-OVC and All-Newcomer.

Hannah McGowen left UT Martin as the all-time leader in matches played.

Mariah Klenke was named to her second All-OVC first team after tallying seven shutouts.

Hannah Fessenden was named to the All-OVC first team and All-Tournament team.

Ellie Myrick adjusted quickly, ranking third on the team with three goals and three assists en route to All-Newcomer honors.

Lucy Pater anchored the Skyhawk defense which registered eight shutouts.

Jessica Horvatich came into her own on the defensive line, posting eight shutouts.

Senior Night moved goalkeeper Sarah Tompkins to forward in her final career start.

The Skyhawk coaches say goodbye to seniors Abi Sanvee, Jessica Horvatich, Sarah Tompkins, Hannah McGowen and Hannah Fessenden. The group was part of a program which won two OVC regular season and tournament championships, becoming the first group in school history to accomplish the feat.

OVC CHAMPIONS: 2009, 2012, 2013 • OVC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

PROGRAM RECORD BOOK

PROGRAM TIMELINE

After guiding the UT Martin women's soccer club team, Dr. Ruth Holden was hired to field the first intercollegiate squad. Holden retained 10 players from the club team and added eight true freshmen to form the first Skyhawk squad. The inaugural edition of Skyhawk soccer picked up its first victory in the third match of the season over Morehead State 2-1. UT Martin finished its first season 2-15 overall and 1-3 in the Ohio Valley Conference. Kim Thompson set a school record with four goals Oct. 7 against North Alabama.

1999

In its second year UT Martin managed only one win, defeating Chattanooga 2-1 Oct. 22. The 1999 campaign would be the final season for head coach Dr. Ruth Holden, who ended with a 3-34 overall record and 1-8 OVC record at UT Martin. Jane Carroll stopped a school record 18 shots in goal Oct. 1 against Tennessee Tech. Kelli Armstrong led the Skyhawks with six goals in her only year on the team.

Nathan Pifer

Nathan Pifer was hired March 15, from Midwestern State University as the second head coach of the Skyhawks. Sherrie Weeks and Lydia Lloyd led the squad with two goals apiece as UT Martin suffered through an 0-18 season.

2001

Pifer picked up his first win Sept. 23 in the seventh match of the season after defeating Arkansas Little-Rock 2-1. UT Martin played its first overtime match Oct. 9, falling 3-2 to Chattanooga.

2002

UT Martin posted its first winning season after going 9-7-3 overall and 4-3-2 in the OVC. The Skyhawks posted school records with five consecutive wins and earning five spots on the OVC All-Conference teams. The Skyhawks recorded a record 10 goals Oct. 11 against Morehead State. Dani Myrick set a freshman and school record with 16 goals on the season.

Katie Jackson

The Skyhawks record a second consecutive winning record and host their first post season match when Southeast Missouri visited Nov. 4 and defeated UT Martin 2-0. Katie Jackson tied Dani Myrick's single season record of 16 goals. For a second consecutive year, five Skyhawks earned OVC All-Conference recognition.

2004

UT Martin goes 4-11-2 and misses the OVC tournament for the first time in three seasons. Freshman Katie Behrens netted three goals and earned the Skyhawks only spot on the all-conference team.

Dani Myrick

2005

Dani Myrick concluded her Skyhawk career as the all-time leader in goals scored, shots and assists. UT Martin set Ohio Valley Conference records for goals-per-game with 2.32 and shots-per-game with 19.11. As a team UT Martin tallied nine wins for the third time in four years.

Craig Roberts

Craig Roberts assumed the helm of the Skyhawk soccer program as the third head coach only four weeks prior to the season's start. The Skyhawks set a school record with six shutouts, including five consecutive conference shutouts. The Skyhawks returned to the OVC Tournament for the first time since 2003.

Katie Behrens

At the time, UT Martin had the winningest season in program history with a record 10 wins and advanced to the semi-finals of the OVC Tournament for the first time in program history. Katie Behrens and Jamie Price were both named to the All-Ohio Valley Conference Team while Behrens was also named UT Martin's Female Athlete of the Year.

Johanna Rathbun

The Skyhawk program reached new heights in its third season under Roberts, tying or breaking 12 school records, including most victories in one season (10) and highest season winning percentage (.632). The Skyhawks advanced to its first OVC Tournament championship appearance, and had five OVC Player of the Week honorees, including four straight weekly mentions, a new program record.

Danielle Rogers

2009

The Skyhawks won their first-ever Ohio Valley Conference regular-season championship, breaking or tying eight school records in the process. Danielle Rogers was one of six players to earn All-OVC mentions, as she was named the OVC Defensive Player of the Year - the first time a Skyhawk had taken that award home. UT Martin also tied a program record with five OVC Player of the Week honorees.

Phil McNamara

In Phil McNamara's first season as head coach, the Skyhawks found their groove midway through the season, winning seven out of nine games during one stretch. UT Martin tied an all-time single-season program record with eight shutouts and produced a pair of All-OVC second team and All-Newcomer selections in Rosaelia Loza and Sam Dunn.

Lucy Pater

2011

UT Martin went where no other team in program history had gone - to the NCAA Tournament. The Skyhawks clinched their first-ever Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship behind the foot of tournament MVP Lucy Pater, who netted the game-winning goal in the 76th minute against Morehead State. Behind All-OVC first team selections Melissa Govea (also the league's Defensive Player of the Year) and Brooke Robertson, the Skyhawks tallied a program-record 14 victories.

UT Martin picked up where they left off in 2011, winning the program's first outright OVC championship and second straight OVC Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament qualifier. The Skyhawks placed five on the All-OVC first and second teams while Saphyra Coombs-James notched the program's first OVC Freshman of the Year award while Phil McNamara took home OVC Coach of the Year honors.

Mariah Klenke

UT Martin notched a feat never seen before in Ohio Valley Conference history after winning their fourth consecutive conference championship - including a pair of regular season and tournament championships. Mariah Klenke led a Skyhawks squad which saw five players take home postseason awards, including three All-OVC first team selections after tying the program's single season shutout mark with seven clean sheets on the season.

Media interviews with players and coaches are encouraged, and every effort will be made to accommodate media requests. In-person interviews are preferred. Telephone interviews can be arranged through the sports information office. The best time to reach head coach Phil McNamara is weekdays between 9 a.m.-11 a.m.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITIES

Players and coaches will be available for interviews after a brief cooling-off period at the conclusion of each game. Media will be provided stat packages upon completion of each game. Skyhawk head coach Phil McNamara and selected players will be made available upon request. Requests for players will be taken near the end of each game. Space will be made available following post game interviews for filing stories.

PRESS BOX

The Skyhawk Field press box is located off Pat Head Summitt Drive, directly above the bleacher seating area. Internet access is available in the press box, or upon request from the UT Martin sports information office. There is no charge for parking.

ON THE WEB

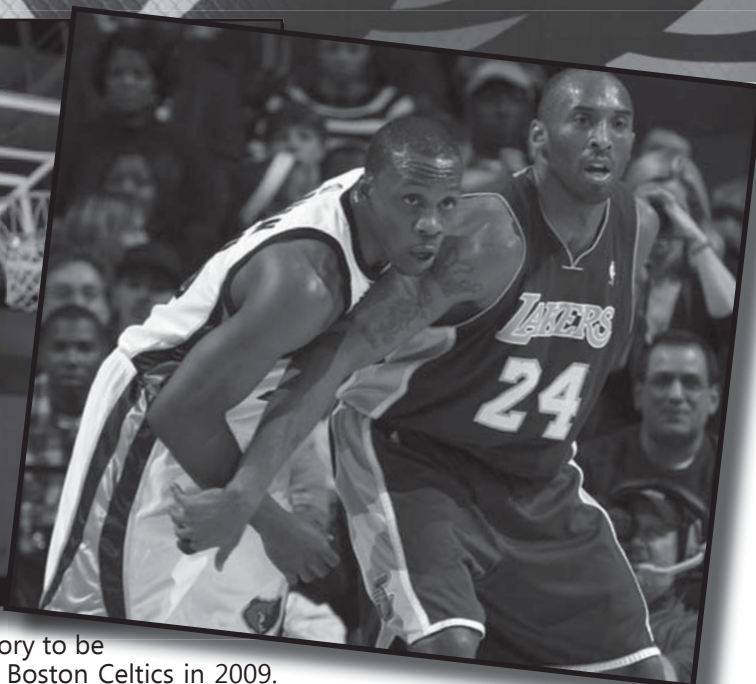

A wealth of resources for the UT Martin sports information department can be found at www.UTMSports.com. The site features updated schedules, rosters, player information, scores and statistics.

SKYHAWKS IN PRINT

The name of our institution is The University of Tennessee at Martin and if abbreviated, should be referred to as UT Martin. The University of Tennessee at Martin should be used as the first reference in a news story. UT Martin should be used in subsequent references and UTM is acceptable in headlines. Tennessee-Martin, UT-Martin, UT or Martin should never be used. The description Skyhawks should be used to represent all UT Martin athletic teams. Lady-Skyhawks or Hawks should never be used.

SKYHAWK ATHLETICS

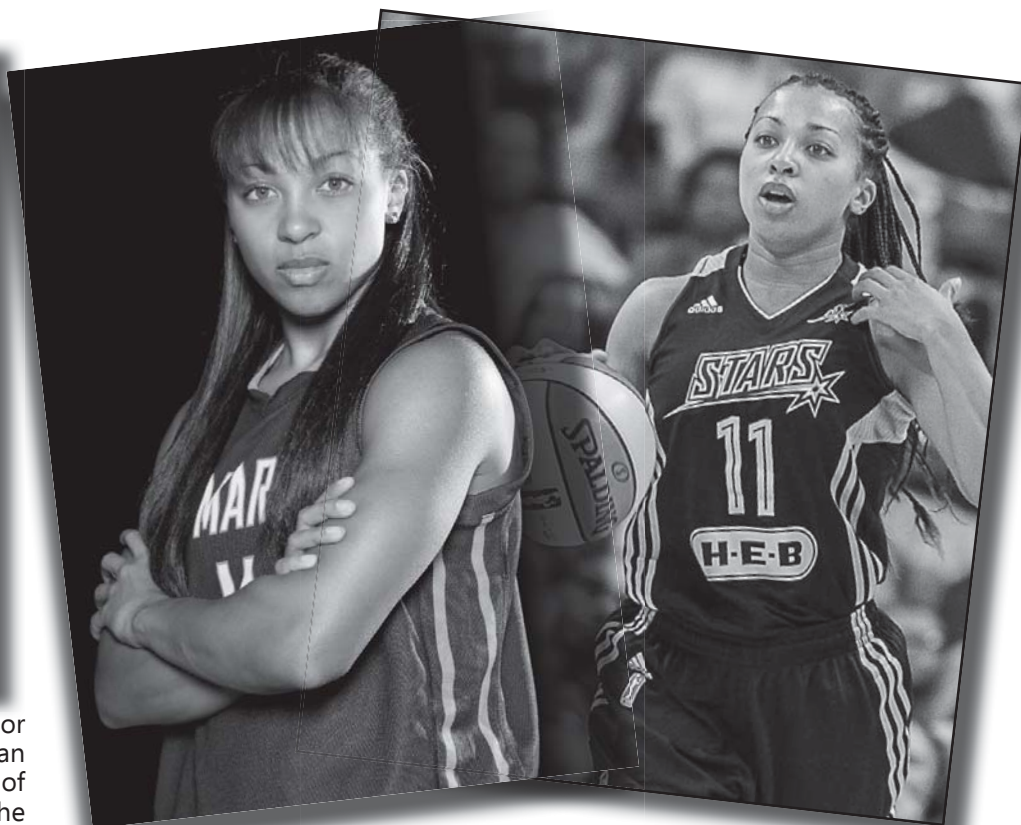

Above: Lester Hudson became the first Skyhawk in history to be selected in the NBA Draft when he was drafted by the Boston Celtics in 2009.

A two-time Ohio Valley Conference Male Athlete of the Year, he led the UT Martin men's basketball team to its first-ever OVC regular season championship in 2008-09. The only player in NCAA Division-I history to accumulate a quadruple-double, he has suited up for the NBA's Boston Celtics (2009-10), Memphis Grizzlies (2009-10, 2011-12), Washington Wizards (2010-11) and Cleveland Cavaliers (2011-12) since graduating from UT Martin.

Above: Skyhawk junior pitcher Taylor "Bug" Cox was selected by the San Diego Padres in the 16th round of the 2014 MLB Draft. That marked the fourth straight season that a UT Martin baseball player had been chosen. Other selections include Trey Karlen (2011, 33rd round, Washington Nationals), Alec Mills (2012, 22nd round, Kansas City Royals) and Dan Tobik (2013, 39th round, Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim).

Above: Heather Butler became the first player in UT Martin and Ohio Valley Conference history to play in the WNBA after signing with the San Antonio Stars. She left the Skyhawks as the program and conference's all-time leading scorer with 2,865 career points, ranking 16th in NCAA history. Her 392 career 3-pointers tied the NCAA all-time record while scoring double figures in all 129 games of her career, ranking as the second longest streak in history.

Above: The Skyhawk women's basketball team clinched their fourth straight NCAA Tournament appearance along with second outright Ohio Valley Conference regular season title after setting a new record for single-season wins with 24. The duo of Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome left UT Martin as the No. 1 and 2 scorers in both UTM and OVC history, combining for 5,404 career points. The trio of Newsome, Megan White and Butler will leave UT Martin with the program's first two outright OVC championships, four OVC tournament titles and four NCAA Tournament appearances.

Above: The 2014 men's rodeo team won the program's first College National Finals Rodeo team championship with 755 overall points. UT Martin became the first team east of the Mississippi River to win a national title.

Team Won OVC Regular-Season and Tournament Titles

Above: Head coach Phil McNamara and the UT Martin soccer team won its' second consecutive Ohio Valley Conference season championship in 2013. Overall, the Skyhawk soccer team won four consecutive championships handed out by the OVC with back-to-back OVC season and tournament titles from 2011-13.

OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

Now in its 67th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 14 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (IAIW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Over its 66 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. Former Morehead State football and Eastern Kentucky track and field athlete Dallas Robinson competed with the U.S. bobsled team during the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Kenneth Faried (Morehead State), football player Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players A.J. Ellis (Austin Peay) and Shawn Kelley (Austin Peay). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 229 student-athletes honored with the award, including 50 over the last five years (2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13, 2013-14).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin. In addition Columbus State University serves as an affiliate member for the sport of rifle.

OVC CHAMPIONS: 2009, 2012, 2013 • OVC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

With three Skyhawk training room locations throughout the UT Martin athletic facilities, student-athletes can be assured of receiving the best medical attention and rehabilitation available. The primary athletic training room facilities are located in the Skyhawk Fieldhouse. There are also satellite athletic training room locations in the Bob Carroll Football Building and near Pat Head Summitt Court in Skyhawk Arena.

The Skyhawk Fieldhouse athletic training room was renovated in 2007 as part of a $1.9 million dollar renovation of the entire Skyhawk Fieldhouse and Kathleen and Tom Elam Center. Included in the renovation was an updated whirlpool rehabilitation room where student-athletes can receive aqua rehabilitation and treatment. The athletic training room also contains multiple examination stations with the latest in rehabilitation equipment.

The athletic training staff uses a comprehensive approach to the injury care and wellness of student-athletes by utilizing state-of-the-art diagnostic and treatment equipment with the latest methods in the care and prevention of injuries.

Assistant Athletic Director Bart Belew is in his 13th year as head athletic trainer. Belew, a UT Martin graduate, went on to earn a master's degree and serve as a graduate assistant at Ole Miss where he worked with both the football and baseball programs before a stint at Freed-Hardeman led him to a return to his alma mater in 2000 as the head athletic trainer. He currently has a staff of four full-time certified athletic trainers and support staff of 16 athletic training students.

The athletic training staff is surrounded by many qualified and generous team doctors, through a partnership with Sports Orthopedic and Spine of Jackson, Tenn.. Dr. G. Bradford Wright, MD, and Dr. Steve Houseworth, MD, serve as the primary team physicians and are directly responsible for the orthopedic needs of UT Martin student-athletes. Dr. Wright has previously worked as team physician with the US Olympic Track & Field teams, West Tennessee Diamond Jaxx and Memphis Riverkings while Dr. Houseworth has served as a team physician for Louisiana Tech University.

Dr. Wright and Dr. Houseworth are also assisted in the care for Skyhawk student-athletes by the other orthopedic specialist of Sports Orthopedic and Spine; Dr. David E. Yakin, MD, Dr. Keith Nord, MD, Dr. Timothy Sweo, MD, and Dr. John P. Masterson, MD.

The athletic training staff is one support group that the athletic teams cannot do without. They are responsible for staffing all practices and games as well as handling the day-to-day rehabilitation of injured or post-surgery student-athletes.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

OVC CHAMPIONS: 2009, 2012, 2013 • OVC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

SKYHAWK STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The UT Martin strength and conditioning facilities are for the exclusive use of Skyhawk student-athletes as they train for competition, under the direction of strength and conditioning coach Charles Rayburn.

Sport specific workouts are designed and supervised at all times by one or more members of the strength and conditioning staff. Each student-athlete is placed in to respective developmental levels according to individual ability and specific regiments are then prescribed and continuously changed based on individual aptitude.

The Skyhawk strength and conditioning philosophy is multifaceted with a primary emphasis on reducing injuries during the season.

The 3,500 square-foot Skyhawk weight room, located on the second level of Skyhawk Fieldhouse, includes Hammer Strength and Life Fitness machines and weights. This state-of-the-art facility is equipped with modern equipment ranging from self contained Power Lift multi-racks with 6x8 platforms, Olympic lifting bars, a complete line of rubber coated TGX dumbbells, a variety of glute/ham stations, a huge plyometric/medicine ball area, and various other supplemental pieces. The facility offers an unlimited variety of movements and exercises for the student-athlete.

The Skyhawk weight room allows for large enough groups so the student-athletes can train concurrently optimizing efficiency and effectiveness but, small enough to receive individual direction.

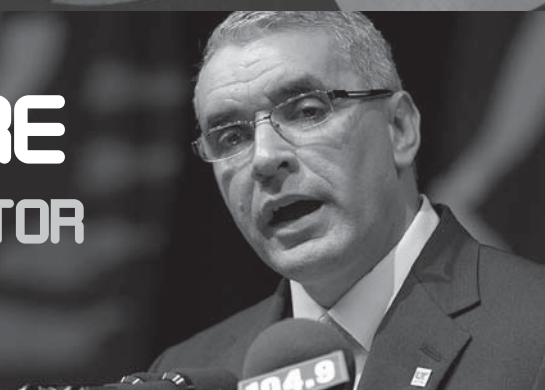

JULIO FREIRE

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

FIRST YEAR

Julio Freire, formerly the assistant/associate athletics director for development at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, was formally introduced as the 12th athletics director in University of Tennessee at Martin history on Jan. 13, 2014. He succeeds Phil Dane, who retired on Dec. 31, 2013 after 34 years of service at UT Martin, the last 14 of which were as athletics director.

"At certain times, certain individuals rise to the top and that's really what happened in this case," UT Martin Chancellor Dr. Tom Rakes said of the athletics director search. "Julio demonstrates an understanding of protocol and team spirit necessary for this type of position. He also exhibits a level of energy and understanding of how to interact with a whole cross section of individuals. He has seen the intricacies of Division-I athletics and we are fortunate to have him here."

"It's such an exciting day for the future of Skyhawk nation," OVC Commissioner Beth DeBauche said. "I am absolutely delighted for the opportunity to work with Julio and to get to work with his family as we move forward. There are some exciting things going on in the OVC and it's the perfect time to be joining the league. I know Julio brings the right energy, excitement, vision and knowledge to really be a contributor to this fine conference."

Freire stressed three messages at his introductory press conference, noting that he had a plan for comprehensive excellence, he would remain focused on the student-athlete and he would engage the community in a meaningful way.

"In 2014, we will embrace the spirit of planning for comprehensive excellence, all in support of the mission of the University of Tennessee at Martin," Freire said. "Our plan for excellence will allow us to build upon the department's history and traditions. With this plan, we will guide and support our student-athletes as they aspire to reach their fullest potential academically, athletically and socially."

"We will embrace high ideals that a UT Martin student-athlete should be leaving this great university with a meaningful degree and had been in position to compete for championships," Freire said. "Everyone on my staff throughout the department and throughout the university will know that the academic achievement of our student-athletes is our top priority. It is my intent to have us all represent this institution with the highest degree of integrity at all times."

"We will work to communicate a plan that will focus on the well-being of our student-athletes," Freire said. "This plan will be shared within our community, with university leaders, with the academic community, with alumni and fans. We will be inviting them all to be part of our plans and part of our success. I believe that community engagement must extend beyond the campus border, beyond the city limits and beyond the great state of Tennessee."

Freire brings 22 years of experience within intercollegiate athletics and educational settings to UT Martin. He most recently worked under athletics director Jim Livengood at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas as senior associate athletics director from 2010-13. Freire worked closely with university relations, department leadership, athletics development, external operations, athletic program administration and compliance while at the Mountain West Conference affiliate.

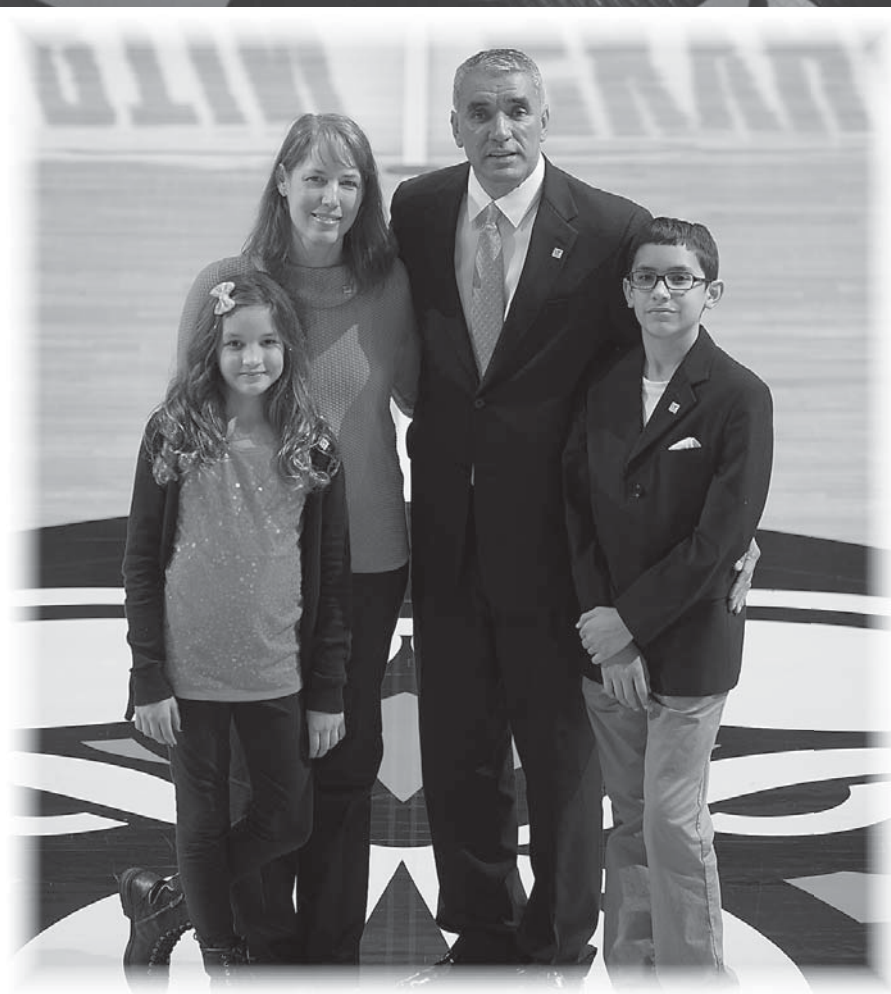

Prior to his time at UNLV, Freire spent time at the University of Arizona from 2007-10 as the assistant/associate athletics director for development under Livengood. Among Freire's accomplishments at the Pac-12 school were the increase of planned gifts by $4.5 million and serving as the athletic program liaison for the highly successful football and men's basketball programs.

Freire also served at fellow OVC institution Tennessee Tech under athletics director Mark Wilson from 2005-07 as the associate athletics director for development. While in Cookeville, Freire was responsible for the cultivation and stewardship of major gift prospects and donors.

OVC CHAMPIONS: 2009, 2012, 2013 • OVC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

He increased annual donations by 300 percent and secured seven of the 10 largest gifts in department history.

Freire began his collegiate athletic administration career at Ohio University, where he served as an assistant/associate athletics director for development from 2000-04 under athletics director Thomas Boeh. During his time at the Mid-American Conference member, Freire managed all facets of facilities and game operations units, concession and merchandise contracts and also supervised the renovation and construction of numerous facilities.

"We will embrace high ideals that a UT Martin student-athlete should be leaving this great university with a meaningful degree and had been in position to compete for championships. Everyone on my staff throughout the department and throughout the university will know that the academic achievement of our student-athletes is our top priority. It is my intent to have us all represent this institution with the highest degree of integrity at all times."

-Julio Freire

Freire spent 10 years as a high school teacher, counselor, coach, athletics director and principal in Phoenix, Ariz. and Tempe, Ariz. before moving on to Ohio.

Born in Tijuana, Mexico and raised in Tucson, Ariz., Freire ran cross country and track and field at Arizona State University in Tempe, Ariz. He graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in education in 1990 and earned his Master's degree in counseling from the University of Phoenix in 1997.

Freire, 47, is married to the former Cherie Taylor and has two children, Christopher (11) and Gabriella (9).

WHAT INDUSTRY LEADERS ARE SAYING:

"Congratulations to UT Martin for their selection of Julio Freire as their director of athletics. Julio has worked hard for many years to learn and develop the skills and experience necessary to lead an intercollegiate athletics department. He will exemplify a leader who focuses on the well-being of the student-athletes, knows how to help coaches achieve success and understands the significant importance of higher education."

-Dutch Baughman, Executive Director, Division 1A Athletic Directors' Association

"Julio Freire is an outstanding choice as the director of athletics at UT Martin. Julio's unwavering commitment to a student-athlete will benefit students, faculty, staff and the university community in many ways. Julio is a tireless worker, an enthusiastic advocate and a terrific leader who will have an incredibly positive impact on all those he encounters. Congratulations and best wishes."

-Bubba Cunningham, Director of Athletics, University of North Carolina

"Congratulations to UT Martin. Julio Freire is one of the very brightest and talented athletic administrators I have ever been around. There is not an area of intercollegiate athletics he is not familiar with. Student-athletes, staff, university and alumni have just brightened your outstanding future at your wonderful university. UT Martin, in baseball terms you have just hit a grand slam home run."

-Jim Livengood, Former Director of Athletics at UNLV, University of Arizona, Washington State University and Southern Illinois University

"I have had the distinct pleasure of knowing Julio Freire for over 10 years. At all times, Julio has embodied and modeled a code of conduct that we would wish upon every student-athlete: focus, work ethic, endurance, a competitive spirit and a commitment to excellence. Honor and integrity are often mere buzzwords but for Julio, they represent his way of life. Amongst the array of intercollegiate administrators across the United States, Julio Freire stands amongst the very best in terms of his preparation. Julio now brings his wealth of knowledge, skills, experiences and relationships to bear on the UT Martin community. You will find that Julio understands the complexities, opportunities and benefits of a successful athletics enterprise. As a former student-athlete, Julio also understands the transformative power of the intercollegiate athletics experience. UT Martin – prepare yourself. A professional and true gentleman is coming your way – his name is Julio Freire."

-Tom Thomas,
President and CEO of Cardinal Advisors

"No one that I know in our profession has prepared themselves to take on a major leadership role with more diligence and purpose than Julio Freire. He is thoughtful and a relationship builder, which is evident in his extraordinary work as a development officer. His work ethic is unmatched. Most importantly, he is a highly principled servant leader who will be a terrific addition to the UT Martin community."

-Todd Turner, President and Founder of Collegiate Sports Associates

"UT Martin has made an exceptional hire in Julio Freire. He will bring immeasurable experience, particularly in fundraising, from a variety of top-notch institutions to the position. Most importantly, he will exhibit tremendous passion and an unwavering commitment to excellence every day that will greatly benefit the UT Martin athletics family for years to come. Having known and respected Julio since the 1990's, this is the ultimate home run hire for the Skyhawks."

-Kevin White, Vice President,
Director of Athletics, Duke University
