KEVIN MCMILLAN

HEAD COACH • SIXTH YEAR

The eighth head coach in UT Martin women's basketball history, Kevin McMillan enters his sixth year at the helm of the Skyhawk program, setting an abundance of new standards for UT Martin basketball.

UT Martin will look to reload after its sixth Ohio Valley Conference championship in the past four years with a regular season and tournament championship in 2013-14. The McMillan led Skyhawks set new program records in victories with 24 while setting new a new single season scoring record with 2,681 points en route to receiving the program's first votes in the USA TODAY Sports Top 25 Coaches' Poll and an NCAA Tournament appearance against No. 7 North Carolina.

The Skyhawks were led by the play of two premier senior guards in Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome. Butler finished her career as UT Martin and the Ohio Valley Conference's all-time leading scorer with 2,865 career points after being named the league's Player of the Year. Under the tenure of McMillan, Butler finished tied for 16th on the NCAA's all-time scoring list while scoring in double figures every game of her career, spanning 129 games and ranking fifth all-time. She also left the Skyhawks as the best threepoint shooter in NCAA history after tying the career three-pointers record with 392.

Joining Butler with postseason accolades was the highly decorated Newsome. Newsome notched her third OVC Defensive Player of the Year honor while finishing her Skyhawk career as the school and league's second all-time leading scorer - second to Butler - with 2,566 career points. The two-time OVC Player of the Year was also named an All-Mid Major Player of the Year and Mid Major All-American by College Sports Madness.

In his fourth year, the Skyhawks notched their third consecutive Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship in program history, downing No. 2 seed Tennessee Tech 87-80 in overtime on March 9, 2013. With the victory, UT Martin would advance to their third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, traveling to the Carver-Hawkeye Arena in Iowa City, Iowa, to take on the Notre Dame Fighting Irish. The Skyhawks suffered a 97-64 setback in the contest despite junior guard Butler scoring a tournament high 37 points in the contest.

McMillan's 2012-13 squad was led by the junior duo of Newsome and Butler. Along with being named All-Ohio Valley Conference first teamers, Newsome (22.6 points per game) and Butler (22.4) each ranked in the top-10 in the nation in scoring in 2012-13, ranking fifth and sixth, respectively. Newsome captured her second straight OVC Player of the Year honor along with her second OVC Defensive Player of the Year trophy en route to the program's first All-American honorable mention accolade last season. Butler set an NCAA record by making a three-pointer in 80 consecutive games and with 34 consecutive games in a season.

In 2011-12, McMillan's Skyhawks captured their second Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship in program history, downing No. 3 seed Tennessee Tech 82-65 on March 5. With the victory, UT Martin advanced to make its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, traveling to the Horizon Center in Rosemont, Ill., to take on the Tennessee Lady Vols. The Skyhawks suffered a 72-49 setback to the hands of alumnus Pat Head Summitt.

Consisting of a roster of mostly West Tennessee players, the Skyhawks went 23-9 with a 15-1 OVC mark in 2011-12 despite having relatively young roster with one senior. The 23-win season was the second consecutive 20-win slate for UT Martin and the second since 1998-99 and fifth 20-win campaign in program history. En route to the 23 victories, the Skyhawks scored the most points in the nation per game (80.1) and beat most opponents by at least 11 points. The Skyhawks were also the nation's top team in assistto-turnover ratio (1.43) and sixth in assists (17.7 apg).

The Skyhawks were led by sophomore duo Butler of Medina and Newsome of Millington. The pair was named to the OVC's first team for the second consecutive season, as well as the All-OVC Tournament squad. Butler was named OVC Tournament Most Valuable Player.

Butler was the nation's fourth leading scorer (23.8 points per game) while Newsome was the 18th leading scorer (19.6 ppg) in all of NCAA Division-I. Butler was second in the nation in threepoint field goals made (42.3 percent) while Newsome was 13th in the nation in assists per game with 6.0.

Butler, Newsome, Jaclissa Haislip combined to win eight adidas OVC Player of the Week awards. In 2011-12, the trio of players combined to win 13 Freshmen of the Week honors, which was also an OVC record. The Skyhawks also picked up the OVC team sportsmanship award in 2010-11.

In McMillan's second season at the helm of the Skyhawks he guided the team to a second place finish during the regular season and the OVC Tournament title. The team earned its first berth in the NCAA Tournament and played at Cameron Indoor Arena against the Duke Blue Devils. The Skyhawks played within 10 points of the ACC powerhouse at the halftime break before falling

Consisting of a roster of mostly West Tennessee players, the Skyhawks went 21-11 with a 14-4 OVC mark in 2010-11 despite having a roster that was the youngest team in America (only two years of Division-I experience heading into the season). The 20-win season was the first since 1998-99 and fourth 20-win campaign in program history. A dozen of UT Martin's wins were by double-figures, including six victories by 20 or more points.

McMillan's first season at UT Martin, he took over a program that had just finished 2-27 and went winless in conference play to go 11-19 and make an OVC Tournament semifinals appearance before falling to top-seeded Eastern Illinois. For his efforts, McMillan was named OVC Coach of the Year.

Before UT Martin, McMillan spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State. He has 17 years of experience as a high school head coach, sporting an overall record of 484-135, including leading Gibson County High School to an undefeated 35-0 season and a Tennessee state championship.

In the high school ranks, McMillan has proven himself as one of the most successful women's head coaches in Tennessee. His teams captured 17 district, regional and sub-state championships and made six trips to the state tournament. He has had coaching stints at Gibson County High School in Dyer (2007-09), Westview High School in Martin (1997-2005) and Millington High School in Millington (1990-97)

McMillan played basketball at Wake Forest for one season (1985) before transferring to Rhodes College to finish out his career from 1986-89. At Rhodes, he was a three-time all-conference selection and in 1988 was named the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Year. In only three seasons, he scored 1,372 career points and still ranks ninth all-time at Rhodes for career points scored.

McMillan received his bachelor's degree in math and business in 1989 from Rhodes, then completed his master's in health and human performance at Middle Tennessee in 2007. He and his wife Paige have two sons, Matt and Ben, along with one daughter, Alli.

David Russell begins his fifth season as a part-time assistant with the UT Martin women's basketball team.

While an assistant at UT Martin, the Skyhawks have won four consecutive Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championships, appeared in four NCAA Tournaments and tallied two OVC regular season championships.

Known in the coaching community as a defensive guru, Russell led a Skyhawk squad with outscored its opponents by 12.3 points per game, including a remarkable +22.0 scoring margin against OVC opponents in 2013-14. The Skyhawks pressure defense forced their opponents into 643 turnovers while tallying 330 steals, nearly doubling the work of their opponents.

Primarily working with the Skyhawk forwards, Russell was integral in the advancement of current Skyhawk Ashia Jones and alum Rickiesha Bryant. The emergence of Jones, a freshman forward, was impressive as the season developed. Jones was named the league's Freshman of the Year, along with All-OVC second team and Newcomer honors after a stellar OVC slate. She reached double-figures 20 times on the year, including the final 17 games of the season while leading the OVC in field goal percentage at 58.5 percent. She scored 20 points or more on six occasions, while scoring 18.1 points per game in conference play and tallied 13 multi-steal performances.

In 2012-13, Bryant set a UT Martin single-season record for highest field goal percentage (.642), converting 129 of her 201 attempts. She cracked double-figures in the scoring column on 18 different occasions – including 17 times in the final 23 games of her senior season. She led the Ohio Valley Conference and set a single-season school record for blocks, swatting away 85 shot attempts. She turned away at least four blocks in 11 games, including an eight block performance at Murray State with tied a UT Martin single-game record with had stood since 1986.

Russell, who built his legacy at Bradford and Gibson County I, captured six state championships and won more than 950 games during his illustrious 35 years in the preps. He took his teams to the state tournament an astounding 17 times.

Russell, began his high school coaching career at Medina. He then spent 21 seasons at Bradford and 11 at Gibson County, winning the last of his state titles in his final game as the Lady Pioneers' skipper. He joined McMillan on the UTM bench before the 2010-11 season. He also served as an assistant coach to McMillan in 2009 when McMillan led the Lady Pioneers to their first Class AA state title and an undefeated 37-0 won-loss record.

Russell was later named a member of the 2013 TSSAA Hall of Fame induction class after his illustrious prep career.

David Hart is in his fourth season with the Skyhawk women's basketball program, after serving three seasons as a volunteer assistant from 2010-13.

During the squad's historical run to three NCAA Tournament appearances from 2010-13, Hart was an integral part of the staff, keeping statistics for the team as well as coordinating travel. He will continue those duties and will be more involved with recruiting in the upcoming season.

Hart has been involved in the women's basketball game for nearly 15 years on the AAU, high school and collegiate levels. He led the Tennessee Wings to a pair of top-10 finishes nationally. Hart also served as a girls volunteer assistant basketball coach at Westview High School in Martin, teaming with Skyhawk head coach Kevin McMillan for two state tournament appearances in 2001 and 2003, where the Chargers placed runner-up. He also reached the state tournament as a member of the staff in 2006 and 2009.

Hart is a 1991 graduate of the University of Tennessee at Martin with a degree in accounting. He is also a licensed Certified Public Accountant.

Hart's family includes his wife Dana, and two sons Nicholas and Kyle reside in Martin.

Skyhawk Women's Hoops Hope To Gel In Time For OUC Title Defense

Records have been broken and traditions have been developed but a time of transition has come upon the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team after rattling off several program firsts over the past four seasons.

Since head coach Kevin McMillan took over the reins of the program, the Skyhawks have risen to new heights behind the stellar play of program pillars Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome who left UT Martin and the Ohio Valley Conference as the top two scorers in history. Fast forward five months after graduation and the Skyhawks are looking to replace nearly 63 percent of the team's scoring from a year ago as Butler and Newsome now pursue professional careers overseas.

After winning the program's first pair of outright OVC regular season titles, four consecutive OVC Tournament championships and four straight NCAA appearances, the Skyhawks are set to embark on their next mission: reload.

"It's no question that everyone is going to be very interested to see what we do when you consider that we have lost last year's senior class," said McMillan. "The truth of the matter is that we are interested to see what we will be able to do. Are these kids going to grow up that were role players last year? Have we surrounded ourselves with a good mixture of newcomers that will fit what we have? Those are the questions which we are hoping to find answers to."

Despite the lack of upperclassmen experience, the Skyhawks' cupboard is far from bare. Looking to pick up where she left off after last season is sophomore Ashia Jones. Jones took home not only OVC Freshman of the Year honors but was named to the All-OVC second team and All-Newcomer squads after a freshman season which saw the forward average 18.1 points per game in conference play. A Preseason All-OVC selection, Jones was named OVC Freshman of the Week a school record six times along with becoming the third player in school history to tally OVC Player and Freshman of the Week honors in the same week. She reached double-figures 20 times on the year, including the final 17 games of the season and scored 20 points or more on six occasions while posting five double-doubles.

Along with expected contributions from Jones is the advancement of Katie Schubert and Shai Warfield-Cross. Schubert led the OVC for the second consecutive year with a .448 three-point percentage, converting 65-of-145 threes. She was one of four players to see action in every game, earning 25 starts and scoring 6.9 points per game. Warfield-Cross saw action in 28 games while starting in 11 of the last 12 games of the season. Both players will look to fill a variety of roles and prove leadership for a young Skyhawk squad in 2014-15.

"You can't drop anything at those positions and you have to hope players around them continue to step up and become a threat for us," said McMillan. "You're replacing probably 75 points of our 84 points per game last year if you take into consideration their assists and forced turnovers. Katie needs to be Katie, and continue to be very good at what she does. Shai needs to grow up and learn how to handle additional responsibilities while we are hoping Ashia continues to progress like she did to end the year. We just need our newcomers to come in, pick up the torch and run with it."

Joining the aforementioned trio are three players who saw action last year for the Skyhawks in Tiara Caldwell, Chelsea Roberts and Karisma Tyson. Caldwell played in all 32 games for the Skyhawks as a freshman earning the starting nod in the first seven games of the season, along with scoring in double figures in six contests on the year. Roberts and Tyson both played in 31 games, providing depth primarily off the bench.

Much like most seasons, there is a large cast of characters that are new to the program that will be called upon to make an immediate impact. Three players that will look to make an immediate splash will be Jessy Ward – who sat out last season after transferring from Mississippi State while Ole Miss transfer Monique Jackson and Butler transfer Haley Howard have been granted waivers to play immediately. Ward brings an offensive mentality to a squad that is looking to replace over 1,600 points from a year ago while Jackson and Howard provide dynamic playmakers which can be plugged into the lineup from the start.

Along with the trio of new faces are guards Danielle Woolfolk – a junior college signee – and DaiJia Ruffin, the team's lone freshman. Woolfolk stands small in stature but in a system which has seen small guards flourish, expect the guard to compete for time at the point. After suffering an injury prior to joining the team, the Skyhawks are looking for the swing guard to make strides in recovery efforts in time for conference play. Fellow Butler transfer Ashton Feldhaus will have to sit out this season because of NCAA transfer rules.

"I think that newcomers will be our key when you look at how they fit with what is already here," said McMillan. "Ward is a player who sat out last season and can come in and give us some fire power right away. Monique can do a lot of different things down in the post with her skill set and the body to be able to bang with any player in the country. Ruffin can definitely fill into a lot of different places. We think she is a player that can step in and take a load off some players at several positions. There are a lot of different pieces out there, we are just curious to see how they all fit together."

Despite the new additions of players who have not experience winning a championship at UT Martin, several players join the program with winning experience. Both Howard and Feldhaus competed in the Big East Tournament while Woolfolk spent her freshman season at OVC rival Eastern Illinois, winning a regular season conference title. Regardless of their winning pedigrees at former institutions, the newcomers will have to make adjustments to life as a Skyhawk.

"There is a difference between understanding what it takes to win, and what it takes to win here," said McMillan. "They've got to understand what we mean by work ethic and mental toughness. These kids have some success in their history but translating that to what we need them to do is part of that learning curve that usually takes us some time to level off."

One advantage of having so many new faces along with a good stock of valuable returners, the Skyhawks will be able to experience a level of flexibility which has not been available in years past. Having been known as one of the nation's smallest teams the past several years, an influx of height and depth could curve that trend dramatically. Having players with good size that can range several positions makes a lengthy squad create matchup problems.

"We've got the depth to which we have 11 players who are interchangeable. That's either a good thing because you have so many options or can be bad because no one has separated themselves. Kids are going to get opportunities. We may play someone 25 minutes in the first couple games that may not see the floor at the end of the year."

"That's part of the challenge. It's a negative in the short run, but a positive in the long run. For the first part of the season it is a negative because we have to figure out how to get this thing to gel. Who needs to be on the perimeter, when do they need to be on the perimeter and with whom they need to be paired with. In the long run, since we have so many different pieces to figure out what can be good, we can do a lot of different things. That will take a long time for everyone to figure out."

The Skyhawks will have to quickly gel in anticipation of the 2014-15 campaign. With what looks to be a difficult schedule featuring the likes of Louisville, Cincinnati, Dayton, Iowa, Alabama, Chattanooga, Missouri and Arizona on the docket, along with a full conference slate the Skyhawks will have to find their way as they go.

"I think that our nonconference schedule could be the most challenging that we have ever had because of the strength of the middle-of the pack teams," said McMillan. "There are a lot of really good teams on this schedule and it might be over our heads, but we will just have to wait to see. You're going to find out how good you are when you play this caliber of teams and it will certainly be a stout test. We'll have to grow up and find an identity very quickly if we are going to be successful."

"There is a style in which we need to play to win games and the sooner we figure that out, the better we will be."

Only time will tell if the Skyhawks will gel in time to defend their OVC crowns. After being predicted to finish second in the OVC by the league's head coaches and sports information directors, the thoughts of the masses are echoed. Key faces might change, but expectations remain the same.

HIGH OCTANE OFFENSE AND PRESSURE DEFENSE LIFTS SKYHAUKS TO PAIR OF OUC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Going into the yearly preseason meeting when you ask University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball coach Kevin McMillan his expectations for the season, he replies that he hopes the Skyhawks will strive for the best this team can be

The 2013-14 edition of the Skyhawks notched the program's second outright Ohio Valley Conference championship along with their fourth consecutive OVC Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament berth. The Skyhawks were rewarded for their superior play with the No. 13 seed, the highest seed in program history after finishing the season with a 24-8 record and an RPI of 75 along with receiving votes in the final USA Today Coaches Poll for the first time in program history.

Faced with one of the toughest non-conference schedules in program history, in conjunction with the school's first Preseason Women's National Invitational Tournament appearance, the Skyhawks faced two nationally ranked opponents along with a pair of Big 10 conference foes. The Skyhawks opened the season with a victory against Georgia State in the WNIT before traveling to No. 25 Gonzaga and completing the tournament with a win over Quinnipiac.

After two straight home games, the Skyhawks began a 10-game road swing with a trip to the Robert Morris Classic in Moon Township, Pa. on Nov. 29 which ultimately ran through Jan. 6 at Austin Peay. The Skyhawks traveled nearly 13,000 miles on the season with much of it coming during the 10-game swing. Despite the tough stretch against Ohio State, Illinois and No. 20 Florida State, the Skyhawks finished non-conference play with a 7-6 record heading into conference play.

Sticking with life on the road, the Skyhawks kicked off OVC play with three consecutive road games to open the conference slate. Opening league play against Jacksonville State and eventual OVC Coach of the Year Rick Pietri, the Skyhawks posted an 88-75 victory. The victory began a season-long 10-game winning streak which marked the best conference start in program history.

The conference season saw its lone hiccup of the season come at SIU Edwardsville on Feb. 8. Not only were the Skyhawks down a starter in Shai Warfield-Cross but their head coach did not make the trip because of the flu. Without two key members of the squad, the Skyhawks suffered their lone setback of league play with a 65-62 upset.

With defeat in their rearview mirror, the Skyhawks coasted to a five-game winning streak to cap off the regular season, ending league play with a 15-1 record and the program's second outright OVC championship and the No. 1 seed in the upcoming OVC Tournament.

UT Martin proceeded to take the OVC Tournament by storm for the fourth consecutive season, trailing its opponents for a total of 25 seconds in their two games. Playing Eastern Kentucky in the tournament semifinals, the Skyhawks defeated the Lady Colonels 97-45 for the biggest margin of victory in OVC tournament history. The Skyhawks then became the fourth team overall – and first since 2001-04 – to win four consecutive OVC Tournament championships with a 78-66 victory over Belmont in the championship.

Matching up against No. 7 ranked and No. 4 seed North Carolina in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the Skyhawks changed their offensive strategy to take on their nationally ranked opponent on their own court. Putting their high octane scoring offense on the backburner, the Skyhawks turned to solid defense and drawn out offensive sets to limit the offensive minded Tar Heels. The Skyhawks would nearly pull off the upset, leading for much of the game and holding an 18-point lead with just over 10 minutes to play, the Tar Heels would make a valiant comeback. Down by two with just four seconds to play, the Skyhawks looked to win the game but the potential game-winning three would fall just short as the buzzer sounded and the hope for an upset expired with a 60-58 loss.

The prevailing theme of the season was the play of senior guards Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome. Both scoring threats earned first team All-

OVC status for the fourth time, with Butler claiming her first Player of the Year honor while Newsome was tabbed the league's Defensive Player of the Year. Joining the duo was freshman forward Ashia Jones who was tabbed Freshman of the Year as well as an All-OVC second team and All-Newcomer selection.

Butler posted a league leading 23.6 points per game, ranking ninth in the country, while becoming the OVC's all-time leading scorer on Jan. 18 against Morehead State. Her 2,865 career points rank tied for 16th on the NCAA's scoring list while her 129 consecutive games scoring in double figures ranks fifth in NCAA history. Newsome joined Butler on the OVC's scoring leaderboard against Eastern Kentucky in the OVC semifinals, moving into second place with 2,566 career points. The duo is the first pair of teammates to rank first and second in their respective conference's scoring history.

Over the course of the final 18 games of the season, Jones finished third on the team in total points while averaging 18.1 points and 6.9 rebounds per game in conference play. Her 18.1 points per game ranked fifth in the OVC along with leading the league with a 58.1 field goal percentage.

The Skyhawks showed they could control the ball at both ends of the court. The combination of a ferocious full court pressure defense and an innate scoring ability, the Skyhawks outscored their conference opponents by 22 points per game. Not only did the Skyhawks score in triple figures on a school record eight occasions, they broke the team single season scoring record with 2,681 points while ranking third in the country with 83.8 points per game.

WOMEN'S HOOPS CAN'T OVERCOME NO. 25 GONZAGA IN WNIT SECOND ROUND, FALL 91-54

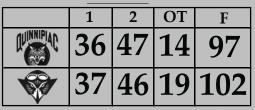

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team could not overcome nationally ranked No. 25 Gonzaga in the second round of the Preseason Women's National Invitational Tournament on Sunday afternoon, falling to the host Zags, 91-54 at the McCarthey Athletic Center.

The Skyhawks (1-1) struggled from the field against Gonzaga, shooting just 26.7 percent from the floor. Freshman forward Tiara Caldwell led all Skyhawks with 13 points while tallying six rebounds. Senior guard Heather Butler was the only other Skyhawk to crack double figures, tossing in 12 points on the day. Gonzaga (2-0) placed four in double figures, led by Haiden Palmer with a game-high 18 points. Keani Albanez tallied 14 points to go along with a game-high eight rebounds. Sunny Greinacher and Stephanie Golden rounded out the point leaders with 13 and 10 points, respectively.

NEWSOME'S RECORD-SETTING PERFORMANCE GUIDES WOMEN'S HOOPS PAST QUINNIPIAC IN OVERTIME, 102-97

Senior guard Jasmine Newsome needed just 11 points this evening against Quinnipiac to become just the second player in program history to reach the 2,000 career point mark in University of Tennessee at Martin basketball history. The speedy 5-6 guard eclipsed that in the first 14 minutes of the game on her way to a program-record 44 points as the Skyhawks outlasted the visiting Bobcats by a 102-97 margin in overtime in the consolation bracket of the Preseason Women's National Invitational Tournament.

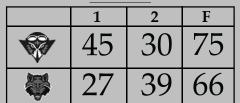

Newsome's 44 points shattered the program record for single-game scoring set by current teammate Heather Butler (42 points against Tennessee State on Jan. 30, 2012). She also made the points count when UT Martin needed it the most, tallying 15 of the team's 19 points in overtime. All in all, the Millington, Tenn. native went 12-for-19 from the field (4-of-10 from three-point range) and tied her own school record with 16 free throws in 19 attempts. She also added six rebounds and eight assists to help UT Martin (2-1) edge Quinnipiac, who was coming off a 30-win campaign a year ago.

Butler compiled 31 points before fouling out with 27 seconds remaining in regulation. It marked the third time in program history that both Newsome and Butler scored at least 30 points in the same game (at Tennessee State in 2012, at Tennessee State in 2013).

SKYHAWK WOMEN SUFFER LATE RUN, FALL TO ILLINOIS 77-62

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team produced a valiant effort, but could not overcome the hot shooting of Illinois, falling 77-62 at the State Farm Center.

The Skyhawks (6-5) struggled from the field for the second straight game, shooting just 33.8 percent from the field. On top of the poor shooting night for the Skyhawks, the Fighting Illini shot an impressive 55.2 percent, including a 66.7 clipping in the second half.

Offensively, the game was a showdown amongst a pair of senior guards. UT Martin guard Heather Butler scored a game-high 29 points, shooting nearly 50 percent from the field. Butler was the only Skyhawk to reach double figures while Ashia Jones flirted with a double-double with nine points and a game-high eight rebounds.

Illinois (7-5) looked to its senior guard Amber Moore to lead an offensive attack which saw four players score in double figures. Moore tallied a team-high 26 points while chipping in seven rebounds. Jacqui Grant scored 12 points while Sarah Hartwell and Alexis Smith tallied 11 points each. As a team, the Illini tallied 21 assists on their 32 field goals.

SKYHAWK HOOPS STYMIES SOUTHERN ILLINOIS OFFENSE, FORCES 36 TURNOVERS IN 85-55 WIN

Defense wins championships and the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team made major strides towards continuing its championship pedigree in the 85-55 road victory at Southern Illinois.

The Skyhawks (7-5) snapped their two-game losing streak with a consistent effort at both ends of the court, forcing 36 turnovers while shooting nearly 50 percent from the floor. Of the team's 85 points scored, 48 points were scored off turnovers, including 16 points in transition. The 36 forced turnovers marked a season high and the most in the Kevin McMillan era.

Offensively the Skyhawks placed four players in double figures while seven players scored seven points or more. The Skyhawks were led in scoring by freshman Ashia Jones who tallied a career-high 17 points and game-high five steals. Jones was joined in double figures by Heather Butler who tallied 15 points while Elizabeth Masengil and Jasmine Newsome each tallied 12 points on the afternoon.

Newsome's 12 point performance moved the senior into ninth on the Ohio Valley Conference's all-time scoring list with 2,181 career points. Her performance jumped former Morehead State guard Chynna Bozeman (2,170) and Southeast Missouri's Gray Harris (2,176) previous career marks.

SKYHAWK WOMEN CANNOT OVER COME NATIONALLY RANKED FLORIDA STATE, FALL 76-53

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team could not overcome the No. 20 ranked Florida State Seminoles on the road to close out the non-conference portion of the schedule, falling 76-53 at the Tucker Center.

Despite a slow start to the game, the Skyhawks (7-6) responded by forcing 12 turnovers in the second half and played to an even 33-33 second half score. The Skyhawks would shoot just 35 percent from the floor while the Seminoles shot 54 percent and won the battle of the boards, 41-20

Senior guard Heather Butler led the Skyhawks once again with 16 points, all of which came in the second half to extend her career long streak of 110 straight games in double figures. Butler's streak of 110 games ranks 21st in the NCAA record book. Chelsea Roberts joined Butler in double figures with 10 points. Jasmine Newsome and Ashia Jones both flirted with double figures, but finished with nine points each.

Florida State (12-1) placed three players in double figures, led by senior Natasha Howard's 26 points. Howard was joined in double figures by Morgan Jones and Ivey Slaughter. Jones tallied 17 points while Slaughter tossed in 11 points and a game-high 13 rebounds.

POOR SHOOTING PROVES TO BE THE DIFFERENCE AS SKYHAWK WOMEN FALL TO SIUE 65-62

Without the guidance of their head coach Kevin McMillan combined with poor shooting, the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball saw its season-best 10 game winning streak snapped at SIU Edwardsville 65-62. NASHVILLE, Tenn. – The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team became the first team to win four consecutive Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championships since 2001-04 with a 78-66 victory over No. 2 seed Belmont Bruins on Saturday afternoon at Municipal Auditorium. The victory notches the team's six OVC title (four tournament, two regular season) in the past four years while clinching a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

The Skyhawks (24-7) never trailed after the 18:58 mark of the first half, while only trailing for 25 second in the whole game, en route to the program's decisive tournament title. In contrast to the Skyhawks' semifinal contest, the top-seeded Skyhawks had to provide a gutsy performance. Both teams valued each possession, committing just nine turnovers a piece.

Four players scored in double figures for the Skyhawks who were led by the play of senior Jasmine Newsome, the tournament's most valuable player. Newsome battled a twisted ankle along with a tumble over a media table before finishing with a gamehigh 25 points, seven rebounds and six assists to lead the Skyhawks. The MVP award is Newsome's third of her career and second straight while scoring 20 or more points in nine consecutive OVC Tournament games.

Freshman Ashia Jones tossed in 16 points while Heather Butler and Katie Schubert tallied 12 points each. With Butler's 12 point performance, she earned a spot on the All-Tournament team, while extending her career double figures streak to 128 straight games and moving into a tie for fourth on the NCAA's career made 3-point field goals list with 389. She now trails the all-time NCAA three-point record by three, set by Kansas State's Laurie Koehn in 2002-05 with 392.

In addition to the victory, the Skyhawks set a new program record for single season scoring with 2,623 total points this season. The mark eclipsed the previous record set in the 2011-12 season of 2,563, which ranked first in the country. Along with scoring records, the victory gave UT Martin 24 wins on the season, ranking as a new program record.

"I thought that going into the game that we wanted the game to be kind of our style – our pace," said UT Martin coach Kevin McMillan. "I thought that they would have trouble playing it but we couldn't make them play the way that we wanted them to play. That's a tribute to them. For this class to win four championships, I don't think we ever dreamed of that when I recruited them and told them when they were high school seniors, 'Hey, we're going to win some games.' But, we're very thrilled."

"It's an amazing feeling," said Butler. "We are truly blessed and fortunate to have a team each year to be able to win the OVC Championship. But it is just a little different this year now because we're so hungry and we are not satisfied. We want to get to the NCAA Tournament but win a game and continue to prove ourselves to everybody."

The victory not only wraps up the OVC Tournament, but the trio of Skyhawk seniors of Butler, Newsome and Megan White's career in the OVC. The trio won four OVC

Tournament titles while defeating their opponents by average of 10.25 points per game in the four tournament championship games. "There's a very sad part of this for these guys and us because they'll never play an OVC game again. But I think all of us are pretty happy to be where

"There's a very sad part of this for these guys and us because they'll never play an OVC game again. But I think all of us are pretty happy to be where we are," said McMillan. "It's meant the world to me," said White. "These are my best friends and they are the ones that got me the rings. I would never be here if it wasn't for coach McMillan. It's been amazing and I'll take a lot of memories from winning four championships and playing at all the places that we've gotten to go and now we get to go to one more place for the NCAA Tournament. So hopefully this year we can win a game and go to that next round."

Belmont (14-17) placed four players in double figures while placing both Jordyn Luffman and Katie Carroll on the OVC All-Tournament team. Luffman led the way for the Bruins with 16 points while Frankie Joubran tallied 13 points and 10 rebounds. The duo of Taylor Mills and Adrienne Tarrence tallied 10 points each.

"Extremely proud of our team," said Belmont coach Cameron Newbauer. "We just played one of the best mid-major teams to a 12-point game. I think we played really hard and I couldn't be more proud of our ladies."

Newbauer had some words to both Newsome and Butler following the game's completion. "I told them they can beat somebody," said Newbauer. "I told them they can win a game. I've been at Louisville and Georgia for a long time, and I know what the highest level is and I know you guys can beat somebody. People outside the OVC don't understand how good they are and how tough they are to play against. I really think, depending on the seed, they can give the right team and the right matchup fits and get a win."

CHAPEL HILL, NC – The fourth time was nearly the charm for the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team against nationally ranked No. 12/13 and No. 4 seed North Carolina on Saturday afternoon, but the Skyhawks final attempt fell just short as the game ended 60-58 in heart-breaking fashion.

The Skyhawks (24-8) led for the majority of the game, changing their game plan which ranked them third in the nation in scoring going into the contest to a patient half-court offense and defensive pressure. Holding the Tar Heels, a team which averaged 80.7 points per game going into the tournament, to just 60 points the Skyhawks liked their chances.

The Skyhawks shot 45.8 percent from the floor in the second half, but came up dry in the second half, shooting just 30 percent from the field. The lead changed hands four times while seeing five ties. The Tar Heels finished the game on a 28-8 run over the game's final 10 minutes of play.

UT Martin was led by the play of senior Heather Butler who tallied a game-high 19 points on the night, including three three-pointers which tied the NCAA record for career three-point field goals made with 392 which ties Kansas State's Laurie Koehn from 2002-05. Butler finished with 2,865 career points which moved her into a tie for 16th place on the NCAA's all-time scoring list and with 129 straight games with 10 points or more. Ashia Jones joined in the action on the afternoon with 18 points and eight rebounds, including 11 points in the second half. Jasmine Newsome and Katie Schubert tallied eight points each.

"I thought that we did exactly what we planned on doing in the ball game," said UT Martin coach Kevin McMillan. "We wanted the game to stay at 60, in the 60s, and not get out of the 60s. I thought we executed and did everything we wanted to do. We tried to defensively make them get a little frustrated and take some time off the clock and we wanted to try to get to the foul line and keep the rebounding fairly close. Most of those things we did, I though these kids...it was an extremely, extremely large challenge for us because that's not how we play. We press and we run and we shoot it quick and I think we're 3rd in the country in scoring. For these kids, especially these two seniors, to buy into changing that for this basketball game was actually unbelievable."

The Tar Heels (25-9) were led by freshman sensation Diamond DeShields who tossed in 15 points, 13 coming in the second half, before fouling out with 1:34 to play. DeShields was joined in double figures by Xylina McDaniel who tallied 14 points and nine rebounds.

With one second remaining on the shot clock, the Skyhawks would over take the lead once again following a timeout at the 6:46 mark as Jones rose above the Tar Heel defender off an inbounds pass. Schubert would knock down a three-pointer from the right corner after a UNC answer to give the Skyhawks the 20-17 advantage for the game's fourth lead change. Another trifecta from Schubert in the right corner just moments later would give the Skyhawks their largest lead at 25-19.

Another trifecta by Butler at the 1:22 mark tied the NCAA career three-point record with 392 for her career, matching Koehn from Kansas State in 2002-05.

The Skyhawks would use a 13-3 run over the final 4:42 of the first half to take a 35-22 advantage into the halftime break. Butler led all scorers with 13 points while Schubert tallied eight and Jones tossed in seven points. The Tar Heels were led by McDaniel with nine points.

In what would prove to be a strange moment, the scoreboard would malfunction to open the second half, causing a nine minute delay before play would resume. The delay didn't matter for the Skyhawks as Butler opened the half with a back cutting layup on the first play. The Tar Heels would outscore the Skyhawks 11-9 in the opening five minutes of play, but the Skyhawks clung to the 42-31 lead at the first media timeout.

Jones opened the second half with dominating performances, scoring 11 points in the opening minutes of the second half. The Skyhawks put together a 8-3 run over the four minute span, taking a 48-32 leading into the 10:52 media break.

North Carolina would make their push going into the 7:08 media timeout. The Tar Heels would go on a 10-0 run over a period of 3:31, cutting the UTM lead to 50-42.

The Tar Heels would keep up the pressure, putting together a 15-0 run over the course of 5:36 before Butler knocked down a pair of free throws to stretch the Skyhawk lead back to 52-47. DeShields would knock down a 10 foot jumper to bring the game to 52-49 heading into the final media timeout.

North Carolina would complete their comeback on a three-pointer by Brittany Roundtree to regain its first lead since the 8:58 mark of the first half at 54-53. Newsome would knock down a deep three with 1:15 to play to tie the game at 58-58. The Tar Heels would respond with a jumper by McDaniel to retake the 60-58 advantage.

With 18 seconds remaining in the game, controversy struck again as the public address system issued a statement that the campus was on lockdown, forcing the Skyhawks to call consecutive timeouts while preparing for the final play of the game. With the Skyhawks trailing by two, Newsome drove into the paint before hitting an open Karisma Tyson for a three-point opportunity, but the historic upset would not be in the cards as the shot missed wide as they final horn sounded.

UT Martin not only finishes the season 24-8, the best record in program history but says goodbye to three mainstays in the locker room as Butler, Newsome and fellow senior Megan White end their collegiate careers. The trio combined to win 87 games, two Ohio Valley Conference championships, four OVC Tournament championships and four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

PAT HEAD SUMMITT OLYN

Olympic Appearances as a player: 1976 Montreal Games, XXI Olympiad Silver Medal, Team co-captain

Olympic Appearances as a coach: 1984 Los Angeles Games, XXIII Olympiad Head Coach, Gold Medal

Success and accomplishment have always followed Pat Head Summitt. By the time Summitt graduated from The University of Tennessee at Martin in 1974, she symbolized the prototype player of the decades to come. She was described as a strong player that had great instincts and was awesome on defense. She denied the ball all over the court, rebounded with authority, took the ball to the hoop and then could shoot the lights out over a zone defense

In her career as a Lady Pacer Summitt helped UT Martin to a record of 62-15, which included two AIAW District Tournament Championships, one AIAW Tennessee State Tournament Title, one AIAW Regional Championship and an appearance in the 1972 AIAW National Tournament.

Only four games into her final season as a Lady Pacer, Summitt suffered a near careerending knee injury. After she went down with an injury, the UT Martin team won only two games the rest of the season to finish 6-15. Even with her final season cut short, Summitt ended her career with 1,405 points, which stood as the career record for points scored in a career until 1989.

In 1973, following her junior season, she made her first U.S. national team when she represented the United States at the World University Games in the Soviet Union. She returned to UT Martin for her senior season with loftier goals, such as making the 1976 Olympic team when she was hampered by the knee injury.

She was determined to get the knee back into shape and try out for the Olympic Games, but not many people gave her a chance. The University of Tennessee in Knoxville, though, showed its confidence in her abilities as a coach when the school offered her a graduate teaching assistantship and the reins to the women's intercollegiate basketball team as a 22-year-old. The position suited her needs to a "T" she could pursue her career and stay close to basketball as she rehabilitated her knee.

The late Helen B. Watson, the former chairperson of the University of Tennessee's Physical Education Department, can be credited for bringing a young Pat Head to Knoxville. Watson asked Head to coach the Tennessee women's team in a letter dated April 30, 1974, when Head was a 21-year old senior at UT Martin. In her letter, Watson wrote, "we have an excellent potential team, and I believe that they would be happy to have you as their coach."

At the time, Head was being courted as the assistant coach who would also serve as a graduate teaching assistant in the Physical Education Department at Tennessee while she pursued her master's degree. An enthusiastic Head accepted the position. Imagine her shock two weeks later when Watson called back and informed Head that the women's basketball coach, Margaret Hutson, had decided to take a sabbatical and Tennessee was offering her the job as head coach. Head, who had never run a practice or made out a practice plan or schedule, said she really contemplated her decision because as she put it, "I was absolutely overwhelmed and scared to death."

Patricia Sue Head arrived in Knoxville as the new head coach and was practically the same age as the seniors on her team. A little shy at the time, she never corrected Dr. Helen B. Watson or Dr. Nancy Lay, her mentors in the UT Physical Education Department, when they shortened Patricia to Pat, assuming that's the name she went by. Head never mentioned to them that she had gone by Tricia or Trish her whole life.

In her first year as a collegiate coach, she led her team to a 16-8 overall record, attended classes as a master's degree candidate, taught physical education classes and stayed in playing shape. As the summer of 1975 approached, she thought the knee was ready for a big test. The knee held and so did Summitt - held, that is, a spot on the U.S. Women's World Championship team and the 1975 Pan American Games team.

After another summer of international experience, she returned home to coach her Lady Vols to a 16-11 record, a second-place finish in the state tournament and a spot for herself on the 1976 U.S. Olympic Team. Playing on the Olympic Team in Montreal at the Games of the XXI Olympiad was the high point of her competitive playing career, as she helped lead the United States to a silver medal finish while serving as the team's co-captain.

After her player career was done, Summitt continued to find Olympic and international success as a coach, to go along with her storied success at The University of Tennessee. In 1977, Summitt was given the first U.S. Junior National Team to coach, and she led it to two gold medals in international play. What makes it so remarkable is that one year earlier Summitt was a player on the U.S. Olympic Team.

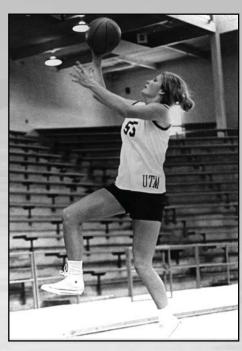

Her next international challenge was taking the U.S. National Team to the 1979 William R. Jones Cup Games, the 1979 World Championships and the 1979 Pan American Games. Summitt and her team returned home with two gold medals and one silver medal.

When the Moscow Olympic Games rolled around in 1980, she was honored as the assistant coach to the late Sue Gunter. Although the United States boycotted the Games, the team still captured the pre-Olympic qualifying tournament title.

In August 1982, Summitt was named the 1984 U.S. Women's Olympic basketball coach, and the rush for the gold was on! She coached the 1983 World Championship team to a silver medal finish; but the silver was not indicative of the team's play.

The XXIII Olympiad in Los Angeles, Calif., found Summitt's U.S. squad tearing through the opposition by a bundle of points. When the gold medal was a reality, Summitt's team lifted her high and carried the "All-World" coach around the Los Angeles Forum for all to applaud.

Pat Head Summitt was a member of the UT Martin Lady Pacers women's basketball team from 1970-74, before going on to win a silver medal at the 1976 Olympic Games and eventually becoming the winningest coach in college basketball history.

HALL OF FAME

PAT HEAD SUMMITT, CLASS OF 1983 (INAUGURAL CLASS)

Summitt was a member of the Lady Pacers from 1970-74, during the program's first days as a varsity sport. To this day, Summitt remains among the career leaders in many statistical categories. At the time of her graduation, Summitt led the Lady Pacers with 35 points in a single game, became the program's first 1,000 point scorer with 1,405 career points and was a member of the 1972-73 squad that compiled a 22-3 record and advanced to the AIAW National Tournament. During Summitt's final season as a Lady Pacer, she became the first women's basketball player to have her jersey retired when her number 55 was raised to the rafters.

Summitt, of Ashland City, Tenn., continued in basketball after her time at UT Martin as a co-captain of the USA Women's Basketball team that won a silver medal in the 1976 Montreal Olympics. She later earned a two silver medals and five gold medals as a coach in international play, including gold at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics.

Summitt is now best known for her 34 years at the helm of the Tennessee Lady Vols, where she has become the winningest basketball coach in history (men's or women's). She has amassed over 1,000 wins in her career, in addition to seven NCAA titles, 26 Southeastern Conference tournament and regular season championships, 25 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Sweet 16, produced 12 Olympians, 19 Kodak All-Americans and 68 All-SEC performers.

Summitt's was also honored by having the court in the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center named in her honor Nov. 23, 1997. Summitt's name also appears on the gymnasium at Cheatham County Central High School in Ashland City, Tenn., and on the floor at The University of Tennessee's Thompson-Boling Arena.

NADINE GEARIN, CLASS OF 1988

Gearin was the coach of the first UT Martin intercollegiate women's basketball team and played a major role in why the University of Tennessee at Martin is regarded as a pioneer in women's athletics. She coached the Lady Pacers' teams from 1969-78 and directed the team to the 1970-71 Tennessee College Women's Sports Federation championship and won three Western Division titles. Her 1971-72 team posted the most wins in Lady Pacer history and also became the only basketball team in school history to advance to the national championship tournament. Skyhawk Fieldhouse, which is now home to the UT Martin volleyball program, was once home to the women's basketball team from 1969 until 1989, when the team began played its Gulf South Conference games inside then Pacer Arena. At the beginning of the 1990-91 season the women's basketball program began playing all of its home contest exclusively on Pat Head Summitt Court in Skyhawk Arena.

1999 WNIT First Round

March 11, 1999 • Skyhawk Arena UT Martin 77, Ole Miss 66

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team used a 20-7 second-half run to break open a close game and defeat Ole Miss, 77-66, Thursday night at Skyhawk Arena in the first round of the Postseason Women's National Invitational Tournament.

After taking a 33-22 lead into halftime, the Skyhawks still led by one, 40-39, with 15:00 to play. However, the 20-7 spurt over the next 8:28 gave UT Martin a 60-46 lead with 6:32 left in the game.

The Skyhawks extended the lead to 66-50 on a Nichole Lockridge jumper with 5:06 to play, and the Lady Rebels would get no closer that nine points the rest of the way.

"Ole Miss was the more aggressive team in the first half. Once we got the lead, we became tentative," said UT Martin co-head coach Gary Van Atta. "We did a better job on the defensive end in the second half and were able to nullify their quickness. We couldn't stop Boyd inside, but we did a good job on Bethley and Myatt."

Tessa Fields led four Skyhawks in double figures with 25 points, including 11-of-13 free throws. Zabrina Harris posted a double-double, finishing with 16 points and 13 rebounds. Tamika Brown and Lockridge each scored 10 points, while Tracy Webb pulled down a career-high 11 rebounds for UT Martin.

The Lady Rebels (15-13) were led by Frankie Boyd who finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds. Tarsha Bethley also posted a double-double, registering 17 points and 10 rebounds. Sinissia Wysinger pulled down a team-high 11 rebounds for Ole Miss.

The Skyhawks matched the school record for wins in a season while improving to 22-8, the best mark for a UT Martin women's team since the 1972-73 team finished 22-4. The victory was the ninth straight at home for the Skyhawks, setting a new school standard.

1999 WNIT Second Round

March 15, 1999 • Elma Roane Fieldhouse Memphis 87, UT Martin 73

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team shot just 31 percent from the field while losing an 87-73 decision to Memphis in the second round of the Postseason Women's National Invitational Tournament Sunday at Elma Roane Fieldhouse.

Seniors Tesa Fields and Nichole Lockridge each had 13 points to pace the Skyhawks, while Zabrina Harris and Chastity Bohannan contributed 12 and 11 points, respectively. Tracy Webb pulled down a game-high nine rebounds.

Conference USA Player of the Year and All-America Tamika Whitmore led Memphis with a game-high 25 points in spite of playing only 23 minutes because of foul trouble. Kelly Herron added 18 points, while Malissa Bush finished with 13 points for the Lady Tigers.

In spite of a 29-18 rebounding edge at halftime, the Skyhawks trailed, 40-30, at intermission. Memphis opened the second half with an 8-2 run to take a 48-32 lead with 17:48 to play.

The Skyhawks battled back to pull within 52-46 with 12:53 left after a 14-4 UT Martin run. However, Herron scored seven straight points to put the Lady Tiger lead back at 12, 64-52, with 8:26 to go. UT Martin would get no closer than 10 the rest of the way.

The Skyhawks conclude a 22-9 season, while the Lady Tigers improve to 21-9 and advance to face Arkansas State in the quarterfinals.

For the first 20 minutes of this afternoon's matchup against Duke in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team traded blows with the No. 2 seeded Blue Devils on their own home floor. However, Duke opened the second half on a 9-0 run and never looked back. UT Martin suffered a 90-45 loss at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year Heather Butler capped off her spectacular debut season with a team-best 15 points tonight, while junior Taylor Hall added 10 points off the bench for UT Martin (21-11). Jasmine Newsome also chipped in nine points for the Skyhawks, who were making their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

"In the first half we didn't play as well as we can play and we were down 10," UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan said. "I felt pretty good about that, but I was worried about the gas that was left in the tank. You hope that your adrenaline will kick in and that you can find ways to fight in the second half and make a shot or two. The thing about this game is that once the snowball got rolling it was gone. We didn't have much of an answer."

Jasmine Thomas' 18 points led the Blue Devils, who will advance to play Marist in the second-round on Monday. Chelsea Gray and Haley Peters also scored 11 points for Duke, who improved to 30-3 on the Duke scored the first five points of the game before Beth Hawn converted a wide-open layup 50 seconds into the game to put the Skyhawks on the scoreboard. The Blue Devils then scored five unanswered before a Jaclissa Haislip three-pointer from the right wing made the score 10-5.

The Skyhawks trailed by nine before UT Martin scored four straight points off a Hall jumper and backdoor layup by Butler to slice its deficit to five points at the 13:27 mark.

The Blue Devils then went ahead by 11 points thanks to six straight points in the paint, but Newsome took over. The lightning-quick guard scored five straight points in 55 seconds for the Skyhawks to help UT Martin stay within 10 points.

A Hall trey from the right corner at the 4:18 mark made the score 32-22, but the Skyhawks went scoreless for the next 2:14 while Duke opened up a 15-point lead. Another Hall three-pointer ended the drought, igniting a 9-4 run to close out the half and send the Skyhawks into the locker room trailing 41-31.

Newsome's nine points paced UT Martin at the break, while Butler and Hall poured in eight points apiece. Thomas tallied a game-high 10 points for the Blue Devils in the first half.

Duke's big run to begin the second half ended when Hall sank a pair of free throws at the 16:55 mark. However, the Blue Devils scored seven of the next nine points before Butler drilled a three-pointer from the right wing with just under 15 minutes to play.

That would be the last field goal the Skyhawks would make for the next 4:52, as a long jumper by Butler at the 10:05 mark broke the scoreless streak. Duke responded by hitting back-to-back threepointers to push its lead out to 71-41 at the under-eight minute media timeout.

UT Martin would endure another lengthy span without a field goal, as a layup by Perica Glenn at the five-minute mark ended a 12-0 Blue Devil run and made the score 77-43. Duke then scored the next 12 points of the game before Butler leaner with 22 seconds left ended the scoring on both sides.

i - UTM 2nd-01:12, UT 2nd-01:39. Score tied - 0 1 lead - UTM by 2 1st-16:39, UT by 25 2nd-01 Lead changed The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team sold out to its plan Saturday afternoon in the first round of the NCAA Tournament against Tennessee at Allstate Arena Saturday afternoon.

However the team made a few mistakes that the coaching staff recognized and Tennessee used its size and depth to eliminated UT Martin from the NCAA Tournament, 72-49. The setback ends UT Martin's 14-game winning streak and sends Tennessee into Monday night's second round against the winner of the BYU-DePaul game.

"What we had planned on doing, we did the whole game," UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan said. "We sold out on our plan, and that was to control who shot the ball and where they shot from and for the most part we did a good job. I think we only made three or four mistakes that we were upset about as a staff."

The Skyhawks fell behind 5-0 with 17:59 to play in the game, but went on a 7-0 run thanks to sophomore Jaclissa Haislip's 3-pointer with 16:39 to play in the first half.

"I think the few times in the first half when I was getting points I was slipping by a screen and catching them off guard," Haislip said. "So, I think their defensive plan they had worked all night. We got the shots we wanted we just had to put them in the hole."

Tennessee answered the UT Martin run with an 8-0 run of its own and took a 13-7 lead when senior Glory Johnson made a layup. Tennessee never trailed again in the game. Johnson was held to four points in the first half, but had seven of her game-high 12 rebounds in the first half.

Tennessee led at the half 35-26. UT Martin shot 28 percent from the field in the first half and 25 percent from behind the arc. Despite the poor shooting effort Haislip scored 10 points in the first half.

Tennessee opened the second half with an 8-0 run and led 43-29 when Briana Bass knocked down a 3-pointer. Tennessee made 10 3-pointers, while UT Martin who entered the game averaging 10.4 3-pointers per game only made four three balls.

McMillan said his team will take several things away from the loss to Tennessee.

"We were much better today than we were a year ago at Duke," he said. "We were out rebounded 52-39 and that was an acceptable margin. Taking things away from this game, Tennessee played two mid-majors all year, and they won both of them by 35 points, and here we are, shooting as poorly as we shoot, and we played them to 23.

"Where we fell short is we have to score more points.

Heather Butler led UT Martin with 14 points, while Haislip finished the game with 12 points and Jasmine Newsome added 10 points.

Meighan Simmons led Tennessee with 20 points, while Johnson added 14 points.

The Skyhawks finished the season with a 23-9 won-loss record and for the second consecutive season only lose one senior, Taylor Hall, to graduation.

"We have marked the novelty off (going to the NCAA Tournament), now we have to figure out how to win a game," McMillan said.

Junior guard Heather Butler put on a show this afternoon in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, pouring in a season-best 37 points against No. 1 seed Notre Dame, but the Skyhawks fell 97-64 to the Fighting Irish in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

UT Martin (19-15) matched the No. 2 team in the nation shot-for-shot for the majority of the first half, led by the prolific scoring of Butler. The 5-5 sparkplug out of Medina scored 20 straight points for the Skyhawks at one point, tallying her 10th career game of 30 or more points. She ended her day with a 13-for-30 shooting performance, adding five free throws in eight attempts. She also drained six of her 11 three-point attempts, extending her NCAA records of consecutive games with a three-pointer (80) and in a season (34 games).

Butler's 37 points are the most points scored in the 2013 NCAA Tournament first round with the results from four games still pending. Butler passed Central Michigan's Crystal Bradford in that category, as Bradford scored 36 points against Oklahoma in first round action on Butler's 37 points are also one point shy of the all-time record for an opponent against Notre Dame, nearly passing Latasha Byears' 38 point performance for DePaul against the Fighting Irish on Jan. 16, 1995. It is the most points any player has ever scored against Notre Dame in an NCAA Tournament game, passing Connecticut great Maya Moore's 36 point outing against the Fighting Irish on April 3, 2011 in the Final Four.

"I thought Butler had probably the best individual game anybody's had against us all year long," Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw said. "She was phenomenal. I think we slowed her down for four minutes, but she played extremely well. What a great performance by her."

"What that young lady does is absolutely amazing," UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan said. "She had an opportunity to play against All-Americans and I would think 37 points is a pretty good day against a No.

Two-time Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year Jasmine Newsome also added 15 points and five assists for UT Martin, who closes out its season with a 19-15 overall record after making its third straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Notre Dame (32-1) was led by 27 points from Jewell Loyd and a doubledouble (22 points, 10 rebounds) by Kayla McBride. Natalie Achonwa (16 points) and Skylar Diggins (10 points) also led the Fighting Irish, who won their school-record 27th straight game.

Notre Dame scored the first four points of the game until a layup off an offensive rebound by Rickiesha Bryant got the Skyhawks on the scoreboard at the 18:38 mark. The Fighting Irish extended their lead out to 14-4 with 15:23 to play in the first half but Butler answered right back with an old-fashioned three-point play to get UT Martin within seven.

After Notre Dame went ahead by 11, the Skyhawk offense started clicking on all cylinders. A pull-up jumper by Butler sparked a 7-0 UT Martin run over a span of 1:17 to pull the Skyhawks within four points (20-16) with 12:19 to play.

Butler stayed hot, scoring 15 consecutive points for the Skyhawks including a backdoor layup and free throw for another old-fashioned three-point play – to keep UT Martin within striking distance at 28-24 with just under nine minutes to go before the halftime break.

Butler's 23 points led all scorers at the break, as she made eight of her 17 field goal attempts including a trio of three-pointers. Loyd's 17 points paced the Fighting Irish, who shot just 14.3 percent from beyond the three-point arc in the first 20 minutes.

The fourth time was nearly the charm for the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team against nationally ranked No. 12/13 and No. 4 seed North Carolina on Saturday afternoon, but the Skyhawks final attempt fell just short as the game ended 60-58 in heart-breaking

The Skyhawks (24-8) led for the majority of the game, changing their game plan which ranked them third in the nation in scoring going into the contest to a patient half-court offense and defensive pressure. Holding the Tar Heels, a team which averaged 80.7 points per game going into the tournament, to just 60 points the Skyhawks liked their chances.

The Skyhawks shot 45.8 percent from the floor in the second half, but came up dry in the second half, shooting just 30 percent from the field. The lead changed hands four times while seeing five ties. The Tar Heels finished the game on a 28-8 run over the game's final 10 minutes

UT Martin was led by the play of senior Heather Butler who tallied a game-high 19 points on the night, including three three-pointers which tied the NCAA record for career three-point field goals made with 392 which ties Kansas State's Laurie Koehn from 2002-05. Butler finished with 2,865 career points which moved her into a tie for 16th place on the NCAA's all-time scoring list and with 129 straight games with 10 points or more. Ashia Jones joined in the action on the afternoon with 18 points and eight rebounds, including 11 points in the second half. Jasmine Newsome and Katie Schubert tallied eight points each.

"I thought that we did exactly what we planned on doing in the ball game," said UT Martin coach Kevin McMillan. "We wanted the game to stay at 60, in the 60s, and not get out of the 60s. I thought we executed and did everything we wanted to do. We tried to defensively make them get a little frustrated and take some time off the clock and we wanted to try to get to the foul line and keep the rebounding fairly close. Most of those things we did, I though these kids...it was an extremely, extremely large challenge for us because that's not how we play. We press and we run and we shoot it quick and I think we're 3rd in the country in scoring. For these kids, especially these two seniors, to buy into changing that for this basketball game was actually unbelievable.

The Tar Heels (25-9) were led by freshman sensation Diamond DeShields who tossed in 15 points, 13 coming in the second half, before fouling out with 1:34 to play. DeShields was joined in double figures by Xylina McDaniel who tallied 14 points and nine rebounds.

North Carolina knocked down the first two shots of the game, jumping out to an early 4-0 lead. The Skyhawks would begin to get stops from there as Butler knocked down a 15 foot jump shot before hitting a three-pointer to give the Skyhawks the 5-4 advantage. Schubert would pull up on a dribble drive to cap off the 7-0 run for the Skyhawks. UT Martin would lead 7-5 going into the first media break at the 15:37 mark.

The Skyhawks would use a 13-3 run over the final 4:42 of the first half to take a 35-22 advantage into the halftime break. Butler led all scorers with 13 points while Schubert tallied eight and Jones tossed in seven points. The Tar Heels were led by McDaniel with nine points.

Jones opened the second half with dominating performances, scoring 11 points in the opening minutes of the second half. The Skyhawks put together a 8-3 run over the four minute span, taking a 48-32 leading into the 10:52 media break.

With the Skyhawks trailing by two, Newsome drove into the paint before hitting an open Karisma Tyson for a three-point opportunity, but the historic upset would not be in the cards as the shot missed wide as they final horn sounded.

Fans of the Ohio Valley Conference have come to know the Elam Center as one of the toughest places to play in the league.

While the fast-paced action on the court is the reason that fans fill the Elam Center each game, it's far from the only attraction.

Fans can take advantage of a number of activities before the action starts, such as "Courtside Dining" or waiting for an autograph from their favorite Skyhawk after the game.

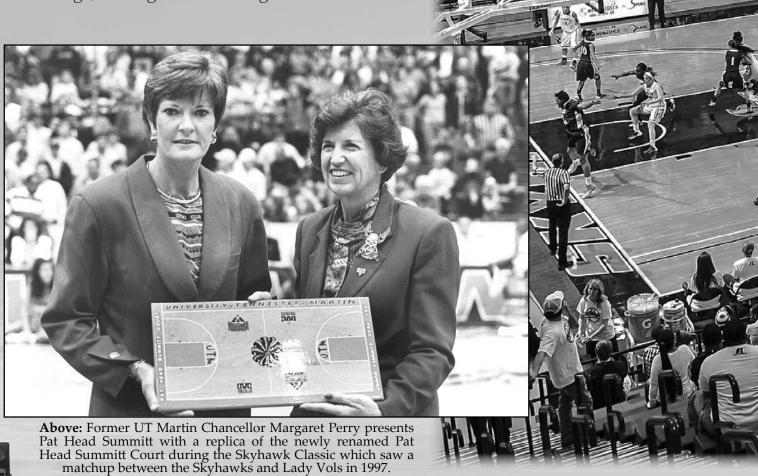

Skyhawk Arena has been the full time home of the UT Martin women's basketball team since the 1995-96 season.

The floor in Skyhawk Arena is named for Hall of Fame UT Martin women's basketball alum Pat Head Summitt, who played her collegiate basketball at UT Martin before becoming the winningest basketball coach in the NCAA.

EE MARTIN LL

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL LOCKER ROOM

The UT Martin women's basketball locker room is adjacent to the Nadine Gearin Team Room, named for the program's first-ever head coach.

Only a short walk down the tunnel from the entrance to Skyhawk Arena, each player has her own locker stall, which has separate storage spaces for team equipment and personal items. A personalized name plate is located above each locker.

The Gearin team room features leather couches along with a big screen television where the team can relax before and after practices, while also housing much of the program's historic memorabilia.

ATHLETIC TRAINING ROOM

With three Skyhawk training room locations throughout the UT Martin athletic facilities, student-athletes can be assured of receiving the best medical attention and rehabilitation available. The primary athletic training room facilities are located in the Skyhawk Fieldhouse. There are also satellite athletic training room locations in the Bob Carroll Football Building and near Pat Head Summitt Court in Skyhawk Arena.

The Skyhawk Fieldhouse athletic training room was renovated in 2007 as part of a $1.9 million dollar renovation of the entire Skyhawk Fieldhouse and Kathleen and Tom Elam Center. Included in the renovation was an updated whirlpool rehabilitation room where student-athletes can receive aqua rehabilitation and treatment. The athletic training room also contains multiple examination stations with the latest in rehabilitation equipment.

The athletic training staff uses a comprehensive approach to the injury care and wellness of student-athletes by utilizing state-of-the-art diagnostic and treatment equipment with the latest methods in the care and prevention of injuries.

Assistant Athletic Director Bart Belew is in his 13th year as head athletic trainer. Belew, a UT Martin graduate, went on to earn a master's degree and serve as a graduate assistant at Ole Miss where he worked with both the football and baseball programs before a stint at Freed-Hardeman led him to a return to his alma mater in 2000 as the head athletic trainer. He currently has a staff of four full-time certified athletic trainers and support staff of 16 athletic training students.

The athletic training staff is surrounded by many qualified and generous team doctors, through a partnership with Sports Orthopedic and Spine of Jackson, Tenn.. Dr. G. Bradford Wright, MD, and Dr. Steve Houseworth, MD, serve as the primary team physicians and are directly responsible for the orthopedic needs of UT Martin student-athletes. Dr. Wright has previously worked as team physician with the US Olympic Track & Field teams, West Tennessee Diamond Jaxx and Memphis Riverkings while Dr. Houseworth has served as a team physician for Louisiana Tech University.

Dr. Wright and Dr. Houseworth are also assisted in the care for Skyhawk student-athletes by the other orthopedic specialist of Sports Orthopedic and Spine; Dr. David E. Yakin, MD, Dr. Keith Nord, MD, Dr. Timothy Sweo, MD, and Dr. John P. Masterson, MD.

The athletic training staff is one support group that the athletic teams cannot do without. They are responsible for staffing all practices and games as well as handling the day-today rehabilitation of injured or post-surgery student-athletes.

The UT Martin strength and conditioning facilities are for the exclusive use of Skyhawk student-athletes as they train for competition, under the direction of strength and conditioning coach Charles Rayburn.

Sport specific workouts are designed by coach Rayburn and supervised at all times by one or more members of the strength and conditioning staff. Each student-athlete is placed in to respective developmental levels according to individual ability and specific regiments are then prescribed and continuously changed based on individual aptitude.

The Skyhawk strength and conditioning philosophy is multifaceted with a primary emphasis on reducing injuries during the season.

The 3,500 square-foot Skyhawk weight room, located on the second level of Skyhawk Fieldhouse, includes Hammer Strength and Life Fitness machines and weights. This state-of-the-art facility is equipped with modern equipment ranging from self contained Power Lift multi-racks with 6x8 platforms, Olympic lifting bars, a complete line of rubber coated TGX dumbbells, a variety of glute/ham stations, a huge plyometric/medicine ball area, and various other supplemental pieces. The facility offers an unlimited variety of movements and exercises for the student-athlete.

Athletes can train concurrently optimizing efficiency and effectiveness but, small enough to receive individual direction.

selected in the NBA Draft when he was drafted by the Boston Celtics in 2009.

A two-time Ohio Valley Conference Male Athlete of the Year, he led the UT Martin men's basketball team to its first-ever OVC regular season championship in 2008-09. The only player in NCAA Division-I history to accumulate a quadruple-double, he has suited up for the NBA's Boston Celtics (2009-10), Memphis Grizzlies (2009-10, 2011-12), Washington Wizards (2010-11) and Cleveland Cavaliers (2011-12) since graduating from UT Martin.

Above: Skyhawk junior pitcher Taylor "Bug" Cox was selected by the San Diego Padres in the 16th round of the 2014 MLB Draft. That marked the fourth straight season that a UT Martin baseball player had been chosen. Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim).

Above: Heather Butler became the first player in UT Martin and Ohio Valley Conference history to play in the WNBA after signing with the San Antonio Stars. She left the Skyhawks as the program and conference's all-time leading scorer with 2,865 career points, ranking 16th in NCAA history. Her 392 career 3-pointers tied the NCAA all-time record while scoring double figures in all 129 games of her career, ranking as the second longest streak in history.

Above: The Skyhawk women's basketball team clinched their fourth straight NCAA Tournament appearance along with second outright Ohio Valley Conference regular season title after setting a new record for single-season wins with 24. The duo of Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome left UT Martin as the No. 1 and 2 scorers in both UTM and OVC history, combining for 5,404 career points. The trio of Newsome, Megan White and Butler will leave UT Martin with the program's first two outright OVC championships, four OVC tournament titles and four NCAA Tournament appearances.

Above: The 2014 men's rodeo team won the program's first College National Finals Rodeo team championship with 755 overall points. UT Martin became the first team east of the Mississippi River to win a national title.

Now in its 67th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 14

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto obs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black midsouthern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer

Women's basketball in the OVC has been dominated by Tennessee Tech, which has won or shared 18 regular-season titles and owns nine OVC Tournament crowns. In fact, the Golden Eagles have reached the championship game of the OVC Tournament 22 times in the past 32 years. Although Tennessee Tech remains the standard-bearer, five other teams have won 14 of the last 21 OVC Tournaments. UT Martin became the latest program to add its name to the list, capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Skyhawks became just the fourth team in OVC history (and first since Austin Peay from 2000-03) to win four-straight tournament titles

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; Murray State's Ashley Hayes; and UT Martin's Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken). During the campaign, only her second with the Eagles, she also set career block records for both Morehead State and the OVC

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

In 2013-14 Butler and Newsome capped their brilliant careers by ranking first and second in scoring in OVC history. Butler, the 2013-14 OVC Female

Athlete of the Year, finished her career with 2,865 points, which ranked first in OVC and 16th in NCAA history. She also finished her career with 392 career 3-pointers (tied for the most in NCAA history) and scored in double figures in all 129 career games which ranks fifth in NCAA history. Following the season Butler was signed by the WNBA's San Antonio Stars where she became the first OVC player to make an active WNBA roster. Newsome capped her career with 2,566 points, second only to Butler in OVC history

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC served as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event was held April 6 & 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville and was played in front of sold-out crowds for both the semifinals and championship as UConn topped Notre Dame in a battle of undefeated teams to win its ninth

Over its 66 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 229 student-athletes honored with the award, including 50 over the last five years (2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13, 2013-14)

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following orts: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin. In addition Columbus State University serves as an affiliate member for the sport of rifle.

JULIO FREIRE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR HIRED: JRN. 13, 2014

Julio Freire, formerly the assistant/associate athletics director for development at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, was formally introduced as the 12th athletics director in University of Tennessee at Martin history on Jan. 13, 2014. He succeeds Phil Dane, who retired on Dec. 31, 2013 after 34 years of service at UT Martin, the last 14 of which were as athletics director.

"At certain times, certain individuals rise to the top and that's really what happened in this case," UT Martin Chancellor Dr. Tom Rakes said of the athletics director search. "Julio demonstrates an understanding of protocol and team spirit necessary for this type of position. He also exhibits a level of energy and understanding of how to interact with a whole cross section of individuals. He has seen the intricacies of Division-I athletics and we are fortunate to have him here."

"It's such an exciting day for the future of Skyhawk nation," OVC Commissioner Beth DeBauche said. "I am absolutely delighted for the opportunity to work with Julio and to get to work with his family as we move forward. There are some exciting things going on in the OVC and it's the perfect time to be joining the league. I know Julio brings the right energy, excitement, vision and knowledge to really be a contributor to this fine conference."

"In 2014, we will embrace the spirit of planning for comprehensive excellence, all in support of the mission of the University of Tennessee at Martin. Our plan for excellence will allow us to build upon the department's history and traditions. With this plan, we will guide and support our student-athletes as they aspire to reach their fullest potential academically, athletically and socially."

-Julio Freire

Freire stressed three messages at his introductory press conference, noting that he had a plan for comprehensive excellence, he would remain focused on the student-athlete and he would engage the community in a meaningful way.

"In 2014, we will embrace the spirit of planning for comprehensive excellence, all in support of the mission of the University of Tennessee at Martin," Freire said. "Our plan for excellence will allow us to build upon the department's history and traditions. With this plan, we will guide and support our student-athletes as they aspire to reach their fullest potential academically, athletically and socially." "We will embrace high ideals that a UT Martin student-athlete should be leaving this great university with a meaningful degree and had been in position to compete for championships," Freire said. "Everyone on my staff throughout the department and throughout the university will know that the academic achievement of our student-athletes is our top priority. It is my intent to have us all represent this institution with the highest degree of integrity at all times."

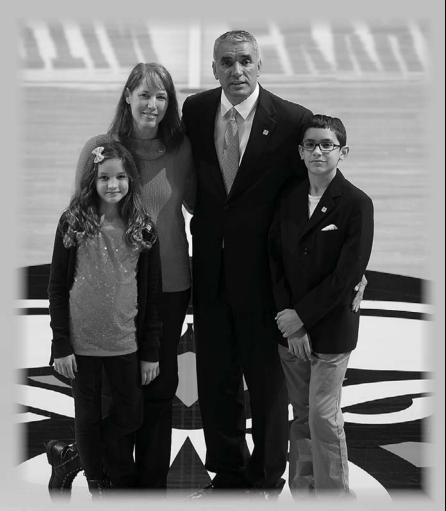

"We will work to communicate a plan that will focus on the well-being of our studentathletes," Freire said. "This plan will be shared within our community, with university leaders, with the academic community, with alumni and fans. We will be inviting them all to be part of our plans and part of our success. I believe that community engagement must extend beyond the campus border, beyond the city limits and beyond the great state of Tennessee."

Freire brings 22 years of experience within intercollegiate athletics and educational settings to UT Martin. He most recently worked under athletics director Jim Livengood at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas as senior associate athletics director from 2010-13. Freire worked closely with university relations, department leadership, athletics development, external operations, athletic program administration and compliance while at the Mountain West Conference affiliate.

Prior to his time at UNLV, Freire spent time at the University of Arizona from 2007-10 as the assistant/associate athletics director for development under Livengood. Among Freire's accomplishments at the Pac-12 school were the increase of planned gifts by $4.5 million and serving as the athletic program liaison for the highly successful football and men's basketball programs.

Freire also served at fellow OVC institution Tennessee Tech under athletics director Mark Wilson from 2005-07 as the associate athletics director for development. While in Cookeville, Freire was responsible for the cultivation and stewardship of major gift prospects and donors. He increased annual donations by 300 percent and secured seven of the 10 largest gifts in department history.

Freire began his collegiate athletic administration career at Ohio University, where he served as an assistant/associate athletics director for development from 2000-04 under athletics director Thomas Boeh. During his time at the Mid-American Conference member,

Freire managed all facets of facilities and game operations units, concession and merchandise contracts and also supervised the renovation and construction of numerous facilities.

Freire spent 10 years as a high school teacher, counselor, coach, athletics director and principal in Phoenix, Ariz. and Tempe, Ariz. before moving on to Ohio.

Born in Tijuana, Mexico and raised in Tucson, Ariz., Freire ran cross country and track and field at Arizona State University in Tempe, Ariz. He graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in education in 1990 and earned his Master's degree in counseling from the University of Phoenix in 1997.

Freire, 47, is married to the former Cherie Taylor and has two children, Christopher (11) and Gabriella (9).

"We will embrace high ideals that a UT Martin student-athlete should be leaving this great university with a meaningful degree and had been in position to compete for championships,. Everyone on my staff throughout the department and throughout the university will know that the academic achievement of our student-athletes is our top priority. It is my intent to have us all represent this institution with the highest degree of integrity at all times."
